'I'll Assist in Fight:' Mrs. Auze

LOYAL WIFE WILL HELP MANAGER

Mrs. Auze Declares Her Husband's Innocence Will Be Proven

Accused Man Is on the Verge of Total Collapse

Expressing faith in her husband's ability to clear himself, Mrs. Alfred Auze, wife of the Pacific Coast manager of the Turner Cotton Mills of New York, arrested at Eleventh and Broadway late yesterday, declares that she will give him every aid in her power.

"This has been sudden," Mrs. Auze said at her beautiful home in The Uplands, Berkeley. "But I know it is all based on a mistake. Mr. Tuze is innocent and I will help him prove it."

He had been given warning that trouble was coming, according to friends, and it was coming, according to friends. The [illegible] on the street by accident, for Detective Henry Kalmoach, who was seeking him, was at the time on his way to the Auze home, "The Uplands," Claremont, and recognized Auze on the street.

IS PROMINENT SOCIALLY.

The man is father of a well-known Berkeley family and is socially prominent. He is a member of St. Mark's Episcopal church. He has for some time been Pacific Coast manager of the Turner Company.

In this position Auze held a high salaried and responsible position having offices in the Lumbermen's building, San Francisco, and controlling large stocks of cotton and linen goods in warehouses.

The firm, according to detectives, became suspicious of his financial methods last July, when Walker was sent to investigate. The books were audited and a shortage discovered. The charge is [illegible] making late payments appear earlier, the man has appropriated nearly $70,000. Auze, it is alleged, kept the firm's account

DISCUSS DRY NAVY

Order Barring Alcoholic Liquor Topic at Army and Navy Club.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Secretary Daniels' order barring alcoholic liquors from American warships and naval stations, continued today to be a topic of animated discussion at the Army and Navy Club and wherever navy officers gathered. Mr. Daniels said he has not yet considered in what circumstances he will make exceptions to the iron-clad rule, but reminded his inquirers that Surgeon-General Braisted, who recommended the banishment of alcohol, had suggested that exceptions could be made wherever international courtesy required.

The secretary has not made up his mind what course he will pursue when the international fleet mobilizes at Hampton Roads next year to go through the Panama Canal at its formal opening.

"I am sure the order will meet with the approval of nearly all officers and I expect full compliance," said Mr. Daniels.

The order created no little interest among army officers, but none of the officials at the War Department would comment for publication. When the subject was mentioned to Secretary Garrison he said:

"When I was a young man my father pointed out to me a man who had made a fortune minding his own business

Bacilli Evolution New Discovery of Mme. Victory Henri

PARIS, April 7.—Mme. Victory Henri, a bacteriologist, has succeeded in creating a new species of microbes, it was announced last night, the action of which has developed a new form of disease. She subjected the bacilli of anthrax to ultra violet rays which changed them from rod shape to spherical. The transformed bacilli were injected into guinea pigs, the result being a slowly developing disease of a totally different character from that of anthrax.

Mme. Henri deduces from her discovery the possibility of evolution in the bacterial world, as in the animal world, and expresses the opinion that the multitudes of existing species come from a few primitive forms which have undergone transformations under the action of light and have engendered the varieties of germs responsible for the diseases known to science. The discovery is regarded as of importance from a practical standpoint not only in showing the way for efficacious treatment, but in opening a new field for the investigation of the evolution of many species of bacteria and resultant diseases.

HEARINGS ON CANAL TOLL ISSUE

Fifteen Days to Be Devoted to Public Discussion

WASHINGTON, April 7. — Fifteen days of public hearings beginning April 9 on the Sims bills to repeal Panama canal tolls exemption [illegible] Canals' Committee.

Administration supporters pressing for a minimum of delay in getting the Sims bill out of committee professed to be satisfied with the plan for fifteen days of hearings, provided added time was not reserved for consideration of the bill after hearings are over. The hearings will give opportunity for pressing out various amendments, principal among them one to re-afirm the sovereignty of the United States over the canal zone and its right under the treaty to grant an exemption to coastwise ships if it desired to do so.

The controversy continued to eclipse all other business in the Senate chamber. Senator Works, Republican, of California made a lengthy speech analyzing the treaty obligations of the United States.

'PURELY DOMESTIC' SAYS WORKS

"The granting of this exemption is a purely domestic matter," said he. "There could be no discrimination against Great Britain because no foreign nation can enter into the coastwise trade. Some of our own repre-

Terminal Bonding Request Ratified

Formal resolution, directing officers of the company to apply to the State Railroad Commission for permission to increase the bonded indebtedness of the road to $35,000,000 was passed this morning at the stockholders' meeting of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways. The resolution was a matter of form, carrying only a ratification of action already taken. The application to the Railroad Commission was announced some weeks ago. The money, if realized, will be used for payment of debts and for certain road improvements and extensions. The matter will be investigated at length by the commission before action is taken.

'COP' HAS RECORD AS CONVICT

Convicted Berkeley Policeman Sentenced to Six Years

Tells Judge He Repents But Is Not Shown Mercy

When Charles F. Meller became a Berkeley special policeman a year ago it was with a record as a convict and army and navy deserter behind him during the previous five years, according to the report of Assistant Probation Officer L. D. Compton which was filed with Superior Judge Donahue today.

Meller was sentenced to serve six years and eleven months in Folsom for participating in nighttime robberies of Berkeley business houses with James F. Farley, a patrolman. Farley was sentenced last week to serve eighteen months in San Quentin.

Meller, who tried to jump overboard from a ferry boaat while crossing the bay from San Francisco in charge of officers several weeks ago, told Judge Donahue that he had thoroughly repented of his crimes and asked for a light sentence. He admitted that he had served part of a five-year term in the prison at Jefferson City, Mo., for burglary. He was released in 1907 and then joined the army from which he shortly deserted. Then he joined the navy and deserted in 1909.

"I have lost everything that I had," Meller pleaded. "I want to reclaim my wife and child and friends. I have reformed in body and soul and I will leave myself in your hands now."

"You have a bad record," said Judge Donahue. "You broke the trust that was placed in you as a uniformed guardian of the public safety and you showed little inclination to repent until you found that [illegible]

With Officer Farley, Meller robbed the store of Nichol & Chown at College avenue and Russell street, Berkeley, on February 5. Other crimes were charged against the defendant, but were not pressed. It developed that Meller had been the inspiration of the midnight depredations committed by himself and fellow officer.

POET WARMAN DEAD

Short Story Writer and Pioneer of Railroad Literature Stricken.

But there's a consolation in the thought that when we're dead,
If we have written something good our efforts will be read.
And friends will plant forget-me-nots and come and sit and sigh,
And irrigate our grave with tears, when we go off and die."—Cy Warman.

CHICAGO, April 7.—Cy Warman, poet and short-story writer, died here today after a long illness.

Warman was stricken with paralysis in his hotel here this winter. Cy Warman was known as the "Poet of the Rockies" and was a pioneer in the school of railroad literature. His stories about railroad men were based on personal experiences at Salida, Colorado, where in the early eighties he worked in turn as a wiper, fireman and locomotive engineer. After a few years of railroading he became ill and was compelled to seek lighter work.

He went to Denver and worked as a reporter. He began publishing the Western Railway Journal there, but it did not prove a success. All the while he was writing short poems and bits of prose but there seemed to be no sale for them.

Cy Warman was a native of Illinois. He was born in 1855 near Greenup on a homestead presented to his father by the Government for gallant service in the Mexican War. Warman had always wanted to run a locomotive so he went to Colorado and learned the business. The poet met Miss Marie Myrtle Jones. It was she who inspired his verse for "Sweet Marie," a song which afterward be- [illegible] married and spent three years in traveling. While in Paris he wrote his first successful book "Tales of an Engineer."

BOMB KILLS INNOCENT VICTIMS

Two Dead, Two Seriously Injured; Store Wrecked

Messenger Blown Into Street; Given Package by Italian

DETROIT, April 7.—Victoria Gusmano, druggist, and Sam Cipranio were killed and two others were injured when a bomb exploded in Gusmano's store here today. The injured men are in a serious condition. Leo Gunsberg, a messenger boy, who carried the bomb to the store [illegible] into the street by the explosion. The store was wrecked.

The messenger told the police that two Italians gave him the package with instructions to take it to a certain number on Lafayette boulevard East. Failing to find the number he stopped at a store for information and Cipranio, one of the victims, accompanied him to Gusmano's store to ascertain if the package was intended for the latter place. Vincenzo Cipranio [illegible] the package with the others standing near when the explosion occurred.

THREATEN BOYCOTT

Hop Pickers' Committee Demands New Trial for "Blackie" Ford.

Threats on the part of the I. W. W. organizations that unless the authorities immediately grant a new trial to "Blackie" Ford and Herman Suhr, recently convicted in Woodland of the murder of District Attorney E. T. Manwell of Yuba county, a boycott will be declared on the hop fields during the present season are being made throughout this section of the State today.

Under the direction of the "Hop-pickers' Strike Committee," the first steps toward the boycott have been taken with the issuance of notices containing the general demands of the dissatisfied laborers.

"There will be no hops picked in California during the season of 1914 unless the following demands are met with," is the ultimatum of the "strike committee." The demands are:

That Ford and Suhr be given a new trial and their cases dismissed.

Free water in the fields.

Extra men to assist women pickers in loading baskets on wagons.

Certain general sanitary conditions in the fields.

No bonus payments.

Widespread agitation has commenced with a view of perfecting a boycott by the time the hop-picking season opens in the fall.

During past seasons the great army of hop-pickers, men, women and children, who have gone into the fields of Yuba county in the vicinity of Marysville, Wheatland and Woodland, have been recruited from all parts of the state. I. W. W. agitators have sought from time to time to organize the workers. Last August occurred the tragic riot on the Durst brothers' ranch near Wheatland, when a posse of officers, headed by Sheriff Voss and District Attorney Manwell, was fired upon. Manwell and two others were slain. Subsequently "Blackie" Ford and Herman D. Suhr were arrested and tried for the murder. They were tried before Superior Judge Daniels, found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Since the trial the I. W. W. forces have been working relentlessly to bring about a new trial and for the release of the prisoners.

Date of City Bond Election Is Changed

The date of the bond election was changed from May 5 to May 19 by the city commissioners today to give those who have not registered a chance to do so, that as many as possible may have the opportunity of voting on the question as to whether the municipal auditorium shall be immediately completed. It was discovered that with the date fixed at May 5 registration would immediately close, and many would be prevented from voting. By extending the time to May 19 voters are given just 11 days before the closing of registration. Registration closes 20 days before election.

The bond election will be for the issuance of $500,000 in municipal bonds, $80,000 of this being for the rebuilding of the Clawson school and the balance for the completion of the auditorium.

SWEET-VOICED AS BIRD; WILL SOAR LIKE ONE

SUSPECT CAPTURED

Accused Safe Cracker Is Arrested by Sheriff Frank Barnet.

Sheriff Frank Barnet and Sheriff A. S. Dingley of Stanislaus county last night arrested Vernon A. Laughlin at the Marymount Hotel in San Francisco on a warrant charging him with having cracked a safe in the office of a mining company in Stanislaus county last December.

In their investigation of the recent robbery of safes in Alameda county and a conference of sheriffs evidence that led to this arrest was shown. The night following the robbery of the mining company's safe the postoffice safe at Coppertown was dynamited and robbed. The recent robberies of postoffices at Irvington and San Lorenzo cannot be proven against Laughlin. He was taken to Modesto this morning by Sheriff Dingley and Deputy Sheriff Ed Sweeney, where he will be tried for grand larceny. Laughlin was formerly a resident of Oakland.

Congressman Knowland Starts for California

Congressman Joseph R. Knowland, now candidate for the United States Senatorship, will soon arrive in Oakland to launch his campaign personally. He left Washington last night, according to wires received by local Republican leaders, and will at once begin his fight for the Republican [illegible] Knowland Republican Club of Oakland is preparing for his coming and forming allied organizations to further his candidacy the congressman is planning a vigorous speaking program. On reaching the state he will be heard at a big mass-meeting in Los Angeles and then will come to Oakland.

Congressman Knowland will remain in California two weeks, lining up the details of his campaign, before returning again to Washington, where he will watch the free tolls fight. He declared before leaving Washington that even his campaign would not keep him from that fight and he will, while in California, direct his assistants by wire in the matter.

MAY BE AVIATRIX

Pretty Miss Fisher, Deluged With Invitations, Not a "Bit Timid."

If one wants to sing like a bird, why not fly?

So asks pretty Melba Fisher, Oakland musician and would-be aviatrix, who is going to make a flight soon with Silas Christofferson, the noted bird-man, and may later also fly with Farnum Fish, the former aviator and college student. Fish has offered to take her up several times. Now she's decided to try Christofferson first and, if he's safe, perhaps—just perhaps—she'll go up with Fish, too.

Fish first promised Miss Fisher to teach her to fly. He offered to take her around the university campanile, and he told her that if she'd fly herself he'd give her his old machine. She doesn't know whether to try it or not, she says.

"I am going up with Mr. Christofferson first," she declared, "and then it will be time enough to think about Mr. Fish's offer. I don't know how I'm going to like it yet."

Her first aviation ambitions came with her acquaintance with Fish who, since giving up professional flying, is studying [illegible] at the State University, but often flies for pleasure. Fish arranged his machine with a dual control for teaching a pupil and promised to teach her the art of flying. Several other college girls have [illegible] members of the co-ed quality.

Then came Christofferson and his hydroplane, and Miss Fisher decided to try [illegible] "I don't know whether I'll ever be able to fly alone," she declared, "but at least I'll have two good teachers."

ST. MARYS, Scilly Islands, April 7.—A barkentine, whose identity could not be established was seen today in flames eight miles northwest of Bryher Island, one of the Scilly group. The crew had taken refuge in the rigging.

TWO DIE AT HANDS OF POSSE

Four Get Away With $1100 From Hazleton, B. C., Bank

Believed to Be Desperate Band Who Operated Extensively

HAZELTON, B. C., April 7.—Two bandits were killed today in a battle between a band of robbers and a large posse of citizens following the hold-up of the Union Bank of Canada branch. Six men held up the bank and four got away with $1100. A posse is pursuing them.

The bank, a substantial building of logs, standing by itself apart from other buildings, had opened only a few minutes for business when the robbers appeared.

Two men with rifles sauntered up the road, two others came from the woods at the rear of the bank, and two more came from another direction.

The first two stepped inside the door of the bank and, with rifles raised, called out "Hands up!" The other four appeared almost at the same instant, taking up positions outside the bank.

The only customer in the bank was John Gaslin, manager for a contracting firm. Gaslin had a sheaf of checks and postal orders in his hand and less than $50.

WON'T TAKE BLAME

Railroad Commissioner Rebukes Warehouse Men for Statements.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—A large delegation of San Francisco's foremost merchants and representatives of the largest warehouse companies on the Pacific Coast, were summoned before the state railroad commission today, given a sound lecture, smilingly administered, and told to be more careful of their statements in the future.

John Eshleman, president of the commission and candidate for lieutenant governor, administered the rebuke. He warned his hearers that the commission would not stand for the criticism which had been heaped upon it, either by the warehousemen, the merchants, or both in connection with the high rates prevailing for storing.

"This commission has been cussed from one end of the city to the other and perhaps throughout the entire state, for something for which it is not responsible, and we do not propose to stand it," he said. "It will not be tolerated in the future. This commission had nothing to do in raising the warehouse rates but what we did do was to prevent them from being higher than they now are. We have not passed on the reasonableness of these rates, and we do not propose to be blamed for what we do did not do. These rates were raised before this commission came into existence and yet not a day passes but what we are told that merchants and warehousemen complain that they are forced to keep their rates high because they were fixed by the commission and they have no option in the matter."

Registration Books Open Until May 18

Chief Deputy County Clerk A. E. Johnstone announced today that in view of the city council's postponing the $500,000 bond election from May 5 to May 19, the registration books would be opened up to and including May 18. Persons who have not registered since the first of January will now have an opportunity to cast a ballot at the bond election. Persons who have registered since January 1 and not changed their place of residence since then need not register.

The registration office in the Hall of Records will be open from 9 until 5 every day except Sundays.

in one bank and a personal account in another, and often endorsed checks by the firm for his personal funds.

The Turner Company does a large local business and this made it easy, say the company's experts, to cover shortages for a time.

Auze came to San Francisco from New Orleans some ten years ago to undertake the management of the firm's coast interests. He had lived for a time in North Berkeley and recently moved to his new Claremont home.

HEAVY SUITS ARE FILED.

The J. Spencer Turner Company of New York city, through Attorney Garrett McEnerny, filed two suits in the superior court today to recover a total of $121,000 from the Anglo-California Bank and Alfred Auze, arrested yesterday.

The first suit makes both the bank and Auze defendants and asks for the return of $74,000 which, it is claimed, Auze converted for his own uses and $47,000 in damages, accrued interest, etc. The second action is for $74,000, the money deposited by Auze with the bank. This suit does not make the alleged defaulter a defendant.

It is the theory of the complainants that Auze has not disposed of the coin alleged to have been stolen by him, but that it is all available and can be recovered [illegible] the payment of damages as the result of Auze's alleged embezzlement.

Auze Nervous Wreck As Case Is Called

Alfred Auze, Pacific coast manager for the Turner cotton mills of New York, overcome by the worry and anxiety of his arrest yesterday on embezzlement charge, appeared temporarily deranged when his case was called in Police Judge Deasy's court this morning.

Auze showed the effects of a long nervous strain and seemed unable to retain his composure. He shifted excitedly in his seat and talked in almost random fashion to his counsel, Attorney Tom O'Connor, whom he addressed with great familiarity, despite the fact that the lawyer had met him last night for the first time and had only then been called into the case. Auze will be released on bail today, according to O'Connor, who is busy now arranging with friends of the accused man to furnish bonds.

The hearing was continued until Friday at the request of the defense.

Mrs. Auze, wife of the defendant, was not present in court, and following the hearing before the magistrate the accused was temporarily returned to prison.

HOPES TO RECOVER FUNDS.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The company, whose coast agent, Alfred Auze, was arrested in Oakland, Cal., yesterday on a charge of embezzlement said today that proceedings have been started against banks where the $7,000 they say Auze embezzled, is deposited. The company believes the greater part of the money will be recovered.

Auze, the company charges, sold cotton duck goods belonging to the concern and placed the money received in payment to his own account. Discovery of the alleged shortage was made some time ago. No further arrests are expected.

PUBLIC HEARINGS ON CANAL TOLLS

Senator Brandegee, Republican cast the only vote against the hearings, saying he did so because he believed the committee's action would have no weight. He urged that the repeal bill be returned to the Senate without any report and that the fight be transferred to the floor.

The committee adjourned until Thursday with the understanding that the authors of various bills and resolutions on the subject will then be heard, pending the arrival of witnesses from New Orleans and the Pacific Coast.

By a vote of 35 to 27, the first taken in the Senate on the Panama tolls exemption controversy, Senator Poindexter's resolution asking President [illegible] guage of his repeal message, was referred to the foreign relations committee.

UNDECIDED ON VOTE.

Urging passage of the Poindexter resolution, Senator Lippitt, Republican, said he was undecided how to vote on the repeal bill and believed the duty of the Senate to find out what apprehensions the President had as to the country's foreign relations [illegible] guage of his message.

"I have not found any man anywhere who understands what in the world that language means," he said.

Then the Senate adopted Senator Brandegee's resolution calling on the State Department for "all information correspondence and records" bearing on the negotiations for the Hay-Pauncefote treaty and the interpretation of that treaty.

PLUNGES DOWN SHAFT.

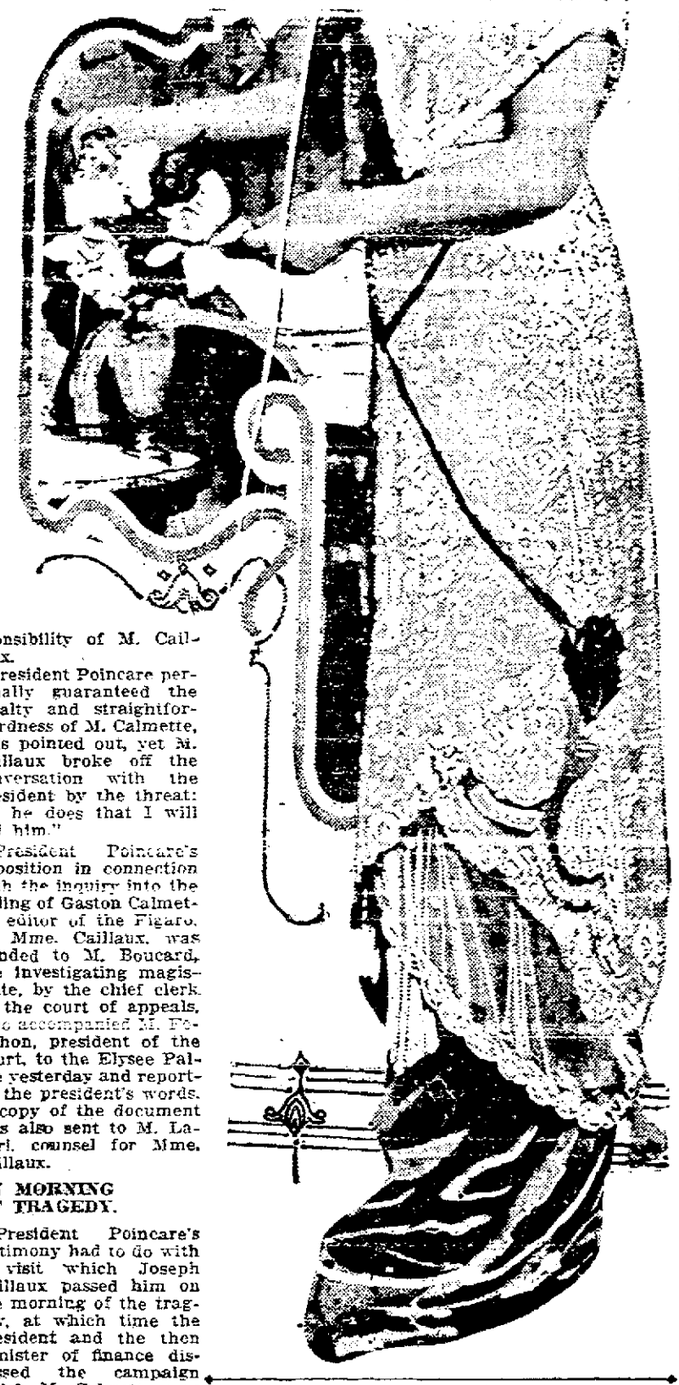
SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—John Martin, a teamster residing at the Hotel Westland, walked into an open elevator shaft at the plant of the San Francisco Salt Refinery, Fifteenth and Utah streets, this morning and was painfully hurt. He was talking to one of the employes and failed to notice the danger. He plunged a distance of fifteen feet and suffered a fracture of the left hip. He was taken for treatment to the Mission Emergency Hospital.

PROSECUTOR TO RESIGN CASE WIDELY DISCUSSED

Poincare in Caillaux Trial

PARIS, April 7.—A morning paper understands that the minister of justice has requested the public prosecutor, Victor Febre, to resign, and adds that in the event of his refusal he will be retired. M. Febre is entitled to a pension of $1200.

President Poincare's deposition is being widely discussed. While some believe that it proves beyond doubt the great provocation to which Mme. Caillaux was subjected, and thus diminished the gravity of her act, others contend that it establishes clearly premeditation and that it further adds to the responsibility of M. Caillaux.



MME. CAILLAUX, BEAUTIFUL SLAYER OF CALMETTE.

President Poincare personally guaranteed the loyalty and straightforwardness of M. Calmette, it is pointed out, yet M. Caillaux broke off the conversation with the president by the threat: "If he does that I will kill him."

President Poincare's deposition in connection with the inquiry into the killing of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro, by Mme. Caillaux, was handed to M. Boucard, the investigating magistrate, by the chief clerk of the court of appeals, who accompanied M. Perichon, president of the court, to the Elysee Palace yesterday and reported the president's words. A copy of the document was also sent to M. Labori, counsel for Mme. Caillaux.

ON MORNING OF TRAGEDY.

President Poincare's testimony had to do with a visit which Joseph Caillaux passed him on the morning of the tragedy, at which time the president and the then minister of finance discussed the campaign which M. Calmette was conducting against M. Caillaux. In his deposition the president says that he was deeply impressed by the distraught condition of M. Caillaux, on whom all his reasoning seemed to be ineffectual, that he finally advised him to see M. Bernard, who had acted for him in his divorce proceedings. M. Bernard was a friend of M. Calmette, he said, and would be in a position to ascertain if M. Caillaux's suspicions were justified, and, if so, might be able to stop the threatened publication of M. Caillaux's private letters.

PRESIDENT SEES M. BERNARD.

The minister thanked the president, but said he would be engaged all afternoon in the senate and would be unable to see M. Bernard.

President Poincare then remarked that M. Bernard was an old friend of his and that he expected him to call at the Elysee Palace that afternoon. He promised to speak to him, which he did.

M. Bernard agreed to see both Caillaux and Calmette, although he was of the same opinion as the president that M. Calmette was incapable of publishing the letters. The president learned later that M. Bernard did see M. Caillaux at the close of the afternoon, but it was too late.

The question of whether Caillaux, former minister of finance, may be charged as an accessory of his wife in the assassination of Calmette is the subject of general discussion today. In the newspapers the publication of testimony of President Poincare indicating that Caillaux had at least influenced his wife's action, has given rise to the suggestion that he may be brought into the investigation as an accomplice.

The magistrate in charge of the preliminary inquiry, Henri Boucard, called both M. Caillaux and Louis Barthour, former premier, for examination today.

stepped forward and relieved Gaslin of his cash, also reaching over the teller's desk to the drawer and taking all the currency within their reach in the bank. As they backed out, the clerks began to reach for their pistols and in reply to this movement, the robbers fired several shots through the counters and walls. The only one hit was Fenton, a ledger keeper, who suffered a scalp wound from a splinter knocked out of his desk.

The shooting alarmed the town and several cowboys who happened to be in a hardware store got their pistols into play at once. They were backed up by citizens and within a few moments the fusilade was general.

Shooting from cover the posse did such rapid work that two of the robbers fell dead in their tracks as they raced along the road toward the bush. Neither of the dead bandits has been identified. All the robbers are believed to be Russians and the gang may be the same that two months ago robbed the same bank and got away into the hills. A posse is in pursuit of the robbers. There is still some shooting going on.

A DESPERATE GANG.

The band of robbers, two of which were killed at New Hazelton today is supposed to have been the one which had in the past year robbed banks at New Hazelton, B. C., Granite Falls, Wash., and Abbotsford, B. C.

The robbers were always unmasked and were dressed like loggers or railroad laborers.

After the recent robbery no one who saw the robber could give a good description of them or even be sure of their number. Some said there were five, others six or seven. A great show of firearms was made, but shooting was avoided. After each of the robberies the men headed ostentatiously for the woods, but it is evident that they had means of flight arranged, for they were never intercepted. Instead, the posses were soon besieging and even firing at one another, as was notably the case after the Elma, Wash., robbery last month, when they escaped with $4-280.

SCORNS WORK AND FAILS TO PROVIDE

Burns Rejects Even 50 Cents Per Day to Mind Own Children.

Elias A. Burris, 61 years of age, appeared before Superior Judge Ogden today on a charge of failure to provide for his wife and seven children. He refused to recognize his wife, who stood near him, until she was pointed out by friends.

"Oh, yes; that's her," he finally admitted.

"I was not able to get a job. My wife told me that she would give me 50 cents per day if I would stay at home and take care of the children so that she could work. But I couldn't see my way clear to do that," said Burris.

Assistant District Attorney James Koford suggested to the court that the defendant be released upon his own recognizance with the understanding that he would go on a ranch of 150 acres he owns in Siskiyou county and take care of himself. Burris demurred, declaring that he could not milk 12 cows per day and that he would rather stay [illegible] home. The matter was continued until he makes up his mind.

Deny Application for Increase of Fares

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—The Railroad Commission today denied the application of the Southern Pacific Company for permission to raise its passenger rates between San Francisco and Merced from $4.05 to $4.10. The company claimed that by reason of the facts that its rates from San Francisco on one hand, and Fresno, Tulare, Hanford and Bakersfield on the other are higher than the fare between this city and Merced, plus the fare from Merced to the points mentioned.

Alleges Husband Kidnaped Child

Declaring that her husband had kidnaped their 2-year-old child, Mrs. Idela Sprague of Berkeley appeared before Superior Judge Harris today and obtained an order directing F. B. Sprague to return the boy to her before the end of the day.

"My husband came to the house and took the baby away without even a hat or coat to protect him," said Mrs. Sprague.

Mrs. Sprague is seuing her husband for a divorce, alleging that he went to theaters with an affinity. She was given temporary custody of the baby, but two weeks ago Sprague took him away.

TELLS OF NEED OF COMMERCE WATERWAYS

Captain Wilson I. Davenny, field secretary of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress, was the speaker this afternoon before a large gathering in the lounge room of the Oakland Commercial Club. Members of the club and of the Chamber of Commerce, which was invited to attend the session, gathered at the affair, which was informal in its nature.

Choosing as his topic, "The Development of Our Water Channels and Commerce," Captain Davenny outlined the national need of more waterways for commerce, and spoke specially of Oakland's situation, and its shipping future as affected by the Panama Canal.

The speaker outlined the salient points of the big ports of America and told of projected work. He commented on Oakland's facilities and [illegible] shipping with the coming of vessels from the canal.

Discover New $10 Counterfeit Bill

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Discovery of a new $10 counterfeit national bank note on the Crocker National Bank of San Francisco was announced by the secret service today. The counterfeit is of the series of 1902-1908, and is printed from photo-etched plates and the back of the note is very blotchy. It should not deceive experienced handlers of money, the secret service states. It is a second edition of the counterfeit $10 note on the same bank, the first being issued on October 10, 1911.

Again Asks Release From Probation Term

That the ways of the probationer do not lie along paths of roses was pointed out by Angello Cassero, who has twice recently sought to have his probation of five years rescinded.

"The first time I tried," he said, "I left court and on the street I asked a man for a match. He had me taken into custody as a hold-up suspect. Next time I went to a birthday party at the home of my brother and as a result of the celebration I failed again." He tried today, but was equally unsuccessful in being released from the probation provisions.

BIRTHDAY PARTY GIVEN IN HALL

A birthday party and dance in honor of Jack Clancy, an Oakland business man, with offices in the Kohler & Chase building, was given at Lakeside Hall in East Oakland last night. A special permit was granted by the police for the dance, to extend after 1 a. m., and following a sumptuous supper, served at midnight, the guests returned to rag and tango until 4 a. m. Among those who attended and offered toasts in honor of Clancy's 32 years, were Mr. and Mrs. James Clancy, Mr. Hill, Oakland manager for Kohler & Chase, and Mrs. Hill, Percy Bruce, R. C. Winslow and A. Hayes.

French Inspector of Police Kills Comrade

PARIS, April 7.—Maurice Delacroix, an inspector of police, shot and killed his comrade and intimate friend, Inspector Raymond Dupin, at police headquarters today. Delacroix obtained evidence last night that Dupin was alienating the affections of Mme. Delacroix. The two officers met at headquarters today as usual and after reporting to Chief Inspector Le Breton they left his office together.

As the two inspectors descended the stairs Delacroix drew a revolver and shot Dupin five times. Delacroix then returned to the chief inspector's office and surrendered.

To Sing 'America' First Time in Synagogue

NEW YORK, April 7.—Final arrangements for the passover celebration for the Jewish soldiers and sailors, whose release on furlough was obtained a few days ago, provide for services Friday afternoon at the Temple Emanuel, at which Dr. Silverman will deliver an address, and "America" will be sung for the first time in a synagogue. The soldiers and sailors will be entertained at a dinner at noon on Saturday and the same afternoon Rabbi Shulman will deliver an address at Temple Beth-El.

Four hundred and fifty soldiers and sailors will take part in the celebrations.

May Be Chairman of Aeronautic Congress

NEW YORK, April 7.—Charles D. Walcott, secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, active in the organization of the Langley Aerodynamic laboratory is mentioned for chairman of the proposed aeronautic congress to be held next year in connection with the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco. The proposal for a congress has already been approved by the management of the Exposition.

Segregation of Chinese and Japanese in Vancouver Schools Discussed.

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 7.—The Vancouver city council last night discussed the segregation of Chinese and Japanese children in the city schools in view of the agitation now proceeding against the co-education of Asiatics and white children, as the outcome of the Chinese murder case.

The council, describing the practice as a menace, referred a resolution urging the school board to make the change, to the city solicitor in order to make clear the city's legal position as to the establishment of separate schools.

The council also decided to buy all lumber for the city from firms employing white labor exclusively, providing the prevailing prices can be met. Some aldermen were of the opinion that the resolution does not go far enough; that the city should extend a preference to such firm even if it cost more and there was a general discussion of why British Columbia mills had difficulty in meeting the competition of American mills employing white labor.

RANCHER AGREES TO PROVIDE FOR CHILD

ALAMEDA, April 7. — William Conran, a Geyserville rancher, appeared before Police Judge Robert Edgar of Berkeley yesterday on a charge of failure to provide for his minor child. The charge was filed by his wife, Mrs. Mary Conran.

The defendant stated that he desired to support the child but was without funds. Judge R. B. Tappan, dismissed the charge. Conran promised to pay in the future.

TURMOIL IN JAPAN

Politicians and Navy Are on Strike; No Cabinet Formed.

TOKIO, April 7.—The Emperor has been thrown into a condition of utter political confusion by the inability of Viscount Kiyoura to form a cabinet to replace that under the premiership of Count Yamamoto. The Viscount today informed the Emperor that he had been compelled to give up the task entrusted to him. All political groups as well as the navy have virtually gone on strike. The various progressive factions declare that the constitution is not being properly observed, while the navy demands immediate advance of money for warship construction and the appointment of a sailor as minister of marine.

The elder statesmen, whom the newspapers call "a still surviving remnant of old Japan," were again summoned to the imperial palace to confer with the Emperor today.

GUILLOTINE FOR REBELS' ENEMIES

Retaliation for Alleged Federal Cruelties Is Planned

JUAREZ, Mex., April 7.—The policy of expelling Spaniards from Mexico is a settled thing with the rebel [illegible] day.

Assuming that the revolutionists will continue their victorious march southward Spaniards in all new territory taken will be expelled as were those from Torreon.

The policy is not new, but was perfectly understood between General Carranza and General Villa at the outset of the campaign.

JUAREZ, Mex., April 7.—A report officially given out here today states that General Caballero was fighting in the streets of Tampico yesterday and expected t capture the city soon Caballero's report was sent to General Pablo Gonzales, who forwarded it from Matamoros last night.

JUAREZ, Mex., April 7.—The guillotine has made its appearance in Mexico and a new form of execution confronts the enemies of the constitutionalists in the state of San Luis Potosi, it was learned today.

At Concepion Del Oro, a home-made guillotine has been erected. It was built by rebel mechanics in the corps commanded by General Eulalio Gutierrez who is now in this city conferring with Carranza.

Already the new instrument has been tested, and, as the general says, "it works splendidly." The test was made with a lamb as the victim.

Desire for revenge is responsible for the appearance of the guillotine in Mexico. General Gutierrez's brother-in-law, Jose Morales, was killed some time ago in battle against the federals near Saltillo. The family of Morales, including an infant daughter and Gutierrez's sister, were living in Saltillo.

The federal commander arrested the relatives of Gutierrez, placed them aboard a troop train and sent them to San San Luis Potosi. The baby died of exposure on the way and nothing is known of the fate of other members of the family.

WOMEN SOLDIERS' PAWNS.

From stories told by rebels this is only one of the many instances where the women and children of rebel officers have been taken from Saltillo by the federals and sent to supposedly horrible fates. It is said that in some cases the women have been given to the federal soldiers.

General Gutierrez says he will leave Juarez in two or three days to resume his campaign against San Luis Potosi.

"My outposts are within eight kilometers of the capital of the state and I expect to capture the place this time. Fourteen thousand men are under arms in the state and I can send them all against the city. And when I have taken it, I hope to find my sister and her family. If they have been mistreated the guillotine is ready for action."

DENY CITY'S CAPTURE.

MEXICO CITY, April 7.—All the newspapers in Mexico City published today a Washington dispatch stating that Rear Admiral Frank Fletcher has advised the State Department that the news circulated of the fall of the city of Torreon is false. The dispatch also states that the rear admiral advised Washington on Saturday at Torreon of General Joaquin Maas and General de Moure, the federal commanders.

ORDER AT TORREON.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Dispatches from Consular Agent Carothers at Torreon were summarized today at the State Department as follows:

"Information received at the State Department covering conditions in Torreon and Gonzez Palacio indicate that efforts are being made by the forces under General Villa to restore order and a normal condition. Excellent order is being maintained and no sacking or pillaging has been permitted. Under penalty of fine, orders were issued for the cleansing and watering of the city. Light and water service is in operation, railway and telegraphic service with Durango was resumed on April 3, and the street car lines are in operation. No foreigners have been hurt or killed."

The Cabinet discussed the Mexican situation. Confidential reports from official sources in Mexico were received saying the Huerta forces were concentrating for an attack to retake Torreon. No details were given but officials here look for another battle soon, in which the constitutionalists will be confronted with the task of keeping the fruits of their hard fought victory.

Funeral Is Held

Masons Mourn

BERNHARD MEVES.

The funeral of the late Bernard Meves, a prominent business man of this city, who died Thursday at his home, 670 [illegible] terday afternoon from Alcatraz hall, under the auspices of Alcatraz lodge No. [illegible] attended.

Deceased had been ill for some time, and his death had not been unexpected. He was a native of Montreal, Canada, and came to Oakland many years ago, engaging in jewelry business. He was an honored member of Alcatraz lodge No. 244, F. and A. M., Oakland Verein, Eintracht and Oakland lodge of Moose No. 824.

He was 67 years of age and leaves a widow, Mrs. Verona Meves, and three children, Mrs. Ellora Franke, Bernard A. and Hazel Meves. He was the brother of Emil Meves of Santa Cruz, Mrs. Charlotte Wolf of Del Monte, Theo. Meves of this city and Mrs. Alvina Hoffman of San Francisco.

Interment was made in Mountain View cemetery.

ARREST U. S. TARS

Complaint Made Against the Peace Authorities at Sausalito.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—Blue jackets of the revenue cutter service who spend most of their monthly stipend in Sausalito are not getting a square deal by representatives of the law, whose fees depend on the number of arrests they make and the fines imposed by the police [illegible] "graft."

The matter was called officially to the attention of United States Attorney John W. Preston today in a communication from H. R. Searles, executive officer of the revenue cutter Manning.

The case which has caused the present eruption is that of a sailor lad who, off duty, was carousing Master-at-Arms H. C. Hermann, of the Manning, was detailed to bring him back to the ship. Herman attempted to carry out his instructions when the town marshal seized him and took him to the lockup for disturbing the peace.

He was told by the officer that he had no right to interfere and that it was the marshal's business to arrest unruly sailors. Both he and his prisoner came [illegible] before the magistrate today but their case was continued until tomorrow in order to give Attorney Preston an opportunity to intervene.

Motorcycle Victim Dies in Hospital

Peter Hansen, 504 East Twelfth street, who was struck last Thursday night by a motorcyclist, who made his escape afterward before his identity was learned, died early this morning at the Merritt Hospital, from a fracture of the skull. Inspectors Green and Gallagher have been detailed to investigate the case and find the motorcyclist, if possible, so that a charge of manslaughter may be lodged against him.

Hansen, who was a saloonkeeper, was riding home Thursday night on his bicycle. As he passed the boulevard, riding in East Twelfth street, a motorcyclist crossed his path and ran him down. Hansen sustained a fracture of the skull and internal injuries. The man on the motorcycle succeeded in recovering after the impact, and continued on his way, without attempting to aid his victim.

AIDS SALE OF OIL

Secretary Lane Preparing Bill to Relieve California Situation.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—To relieve a situation in the oil producing territory of California which affects the industry in that state and elsewhere, Secretary Lane, after conferring with members of the House lands committee, is preparing a bill which would enable independent producers to market their oil. Considerable oil is being produced from public lands in California, but it is represented to the officials that the Standard Oil Company declines to buy it because the producers' titles to the oil are in dispute, and fears having to pay the government for oil for which it also would pay private producers. The producers have located their wells, but in some instances their titles to the land and oil still lie in the ground.

The new bill will contain provisions for the leasing of the lands for oil production to the private individuals or concerns on a basis of the payment of a royalty to the government. Such an arrangement, it is believed, would enable producers to market their oil pending an adjustment of their rights to the lands under the law.

NEW PORTUGUESE BANK TO BE OPENED JULY 1

The New Portuguese bank, founded by a number of local Portuguese capitalists will be ready for business on or about July 1, according to the board of directors of the institution, at which time it is expected that the new Odd Fellows' building, Eleventh and Franklin streets, will have been completed. The new bank has signed a lease, it is announced, for the lower floor of the structure, where the new bank will be operated.

Work on this floor will be rushed and the bank will probably be in operation before the remainder of the building is finished. The exact date will be set as soon as the building progress can be determined. Officers of the bank refused to make public the terms of the lease.

ALLEGED ENTICER OF WOMAN HALED TO COURT

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7. — Leon N. Fricke, son of J. W. Fricke, wealthy furniture dealer, accused by Mrs. Elsie Murray, a laundry worker, of having enticed her into his father's home, 705 Tenth avenue, appeared before Police Judge Crist today.

The case was continued one week as Mrs. Murray is still very ill at her home, 776 Fifth avenue. She is suffering from injuries received through jumping out of a [illegible] in an alleged effort to get away from Fricke.

House Labor Group To Confer Tonight

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Preparations were completed today for the conference tonight of the members of the House labor group. It was expected that favorable reports would be received from the committee instructed by the group to urge the passage of the Bartlett-Bacon bill to limit the injunction power of courts in labor disputes.

Representative Keating of Colorado said today it was not the intention of the labor advocates to ave members of labor unions from the consequences of criminal acts, but merely to restrict the powers of the courts to grant injunctions in cases where industrial organizations are operated for the benefit of labor rather than to obtain profit.

[illegible] steps will be taken tonight it was said, to have Congress incorporate these principles of the Bartlett-Bacon bill in the proposed administration anti-trust legislation.

To Prosecute Rev. Spurgeon Kidnapers

DENVER, April 7.—An investigation into the kidnaping of Rev. Otis L. Spurgeon from his hotel in Denver Sunday night instituted by the authorities of Adams county, where he was beaten and turned loose, today gave promise of new developments. It was intimated that the county authorities were searching for evidence that might result in the filing of criminal charges. It was said that a charge of kidnaping would be in the county to which Spurgeon was taken and that information that money had been taken from the minister if substantiated would furnish a basis for a robbery charge.

From the hospital reports were received that Rev. Spurgeon showed considerable improvement today. Dr. C. O. Hansen, his physician stated that internal hemorrhages had ceased and that unless complications arose a recovery seemed certain.

Tramp, Fed, Steals Hosts' Camp Outfit

Giving chase to a tramp who after being fed, stole their horse, wagon and supplies, several Lockwood school boys out on a camping trip near Byron yesterday effected the arrest of a man giving his name as Lesard and claiming to be a deserter from the United States navy. The man is being held by the authorities at Brentwood.

The boys had pitched camp when the man appeared, asking food, which was given him. A short time later the boys found that their wagon had gone. Starting in pursuit they tracked the wagon and securing the aid of ranchers they overtook the thief. Officers had in the meantime been called into the case and the man was arrested. The camping party was headed by M. Price.

Boy Runs in Front Of Marksman; Killed

WINTERS, April 7.—"Buddy" Sparks, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Sparks, was accidently shot and killed when he ran in front of his uncle, Thomas Manning, just as the latter fired a rifle at a target.

The accident occurred at the Sparks home, two miles south of Winters, and was witnessed by the parents of the youth and several friends.

While Manning was shooting at the [illegible] young Sparks was playing a ball. In attempting to catch the ball the youth ran in front of Manning as the latter fired.

Western Governors Hold Conference

DENVER, April 7.—What was declared to be the strongest [illegible] fort ever made to resist government reservation of the public lands of the West began today when the Western governors conference opened its annual meeting here.

With bills before Congress designed still further to extend the federal conservation policy the executives of ten or more Rocky Mountain and Pacific Coast states convened with the avowed intention of proclaiming on behalf of the states, the right of more easy settlement of the public domain within their boundaries.

Governor E. M. Ammons of Colorado said before the conference opened that the bills now under consideration before Congress, would if all were enacted, put every acre of Government land remaining in the West with the exception of precious metal land under a leasing system.

The governors present for the opening session were Tasker L. Oddie, Nevada; Joseph M. Carey, Wyoming; Ernest Lister, Washington; Oswald West, Oregon, John M. Haines, Idaho; E. M. Ammons, Colorado.

Governors William Spry of Utah and S. V. Stewart of Montana were expected during the day, while Governors J. F. A. Strong, Alaska; William C. McDonald, New Mexico, and George W. P. Hunt were expected tomorrow.

The governors planned to formulate a program bearing on the public land and irrigation problems for submission to the irrigation conference which opens Thursday. It was apparent that the object sought is to secure a program on which the western states and the federal government can agree in handling public land questions. The opening session was [illegible] organization and addresses of welcome.

Divorces Slump; New Low Records Made

A new record has been uncovered in the county clerks' office, the significance of which Deputy W. W. Crane is still surmising. For the last three days there has not been a single divorce suit filed.

"Last month there were 96 divorces filed," said Crane. "That is an average of about four complaints per day exclusive of Sundays. So far this month only five suits have been filed in six days."

Operation on King Gustave Necessary

Club to Buy Peary's Ship, 'The Roosevelt'

NEW YORK, April 7.—Members of the Explorers' Club which gave Rear Admiral Robert E. Peary a banquet and a gold medal last night at a celebration of the fifth anniversary of his discovery of the north pole, discussed a plan to purchase the Roosevelt, the ship in which Peary made his journey to the Arctic.

The Roosevelt now lies in the East river under the Brooklyn bridge. After Peary's return it was sold to a wrecking company. This plan, which was received enthusiastically last night was to purchase the Roosevelt use it for exploring purposes for some years and to retire it, in its old age, to an honorable station as a relic of a great feat.

London Real Estate Sold for $2,500,000

LONDON, April 7.—Another great London land deal has been concluded by which S. P. Dartmshire acquired the whole of Lord Howard de Walden's Regent's Park estate for more than $2,500,000.

In point of size this is said to be the largest transfer of London property that has ever taken place, for the total extent of the estate is 62½ acres. It contains 736 houses, divided among some [illegible] tenants.

OVER HALF OF ALL SICKNESS CAUSED BY CLOGGED-UP, WEAKENED KIDNEYS

Hundreds Are Suffering With Kidney Trouble and Don't Know It. Backache, Bladder Disorder and Rheumatism Are the Result.

It is a well recognized fact among physicians today that the greater part of all sickness can be avoided by keeping the kidneys working properly.

This is even more important than for the bowels to move regularly, because the kidneys and bladder are the filterers and sewers of the body. If you suffer with pains in the back or sides, bladder or urinary disorders, lumbago, rheumatism, dizziness, puffy swellings under the eyes or in the feet and ankles, nervousness, tired and worn-out feeling, or any of the many other symptoms of kidney trouble, don't neglect yourself another day and run the risk of serious complications. Secure an original package of Croxone, which costs but a trifle, take three doses a day for a few days, and you will be surprised how entirely different you will feel.

Croxone overcomes the very worst cases because it removes the cause of such troubles. It soaks right in and cleans out the kidneys and makes them filter out all the poisonous waste matter and uric acid that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; soothes and heals the bladder and quickly ends all such troubles.

It is the most wonderful remedy ever made for the purpose. You will find it entirely different from anything you have ever used. There is nothing else on earth to compare with it. It matters not how old you are or how long you have suffered, the very principle of Croxone is such that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results.

You can secure an original package of Croxone from any first-class drug store. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give the desired results the very first time you use it.

PARTY CHAOTIC, SAYS M'CORMICK

Tells How Progressives Would Deal With the Vital Issues Against Democracy.

DENVER, April 7.—"There is a rift in the Democratic lute," declared Medill McCormick, Progressive national committeeman from Illinois in an address to the conference of Colorado Progressives here last night. "The harmony which marked the passage of the currency bill through Congress is broken, and cries of treason and repudiation mark the long threatened division in the Democracy."

Mr. McCormick said the disagreement over canal tolls confirmed the meaning of the ominous silence with which the Democracy had received the president's recommendation for presidential primaries. In discussing trust legislation Mr. McCormick said the Democrats must either retreat from their position and adopt the Progressive position or they must pass legislation counter to the welfare of the country and its business, or they must pass legislation which is a hollow sham. "It is not clear to the country what course they intend to pursue," he said.

CAUSES OF TROUBLE.

"Five measures were introduced into the house which were to bring about the new freedom. All at once there was a chorus of bewilderment. At one moment, the unterrified Democracy, in shocked amazement heard that it was not only to swallow Progressive presidential primaries but also to take the Progressive plan for an interstate trade commission. Then it was assured Congress contemplated no such awful thing as the creation of a powerful administrative body but that the new commission should have power to investigate, advise and reprove, but no power to administer or compel obedience.

"What has come out of the mist of report that is intelligible to the bulk of us? That the bills were conceived with the idea trade and commerce might, by law, be forced back to channels they forsook a generation ago. Under this scheme it would be unlawful for men to unite in a union to bargain for wages or for farmers to exchange views tending to determine a proper price for their products.

THE PROGRESSIVE PROGRAM.

"The Progressive party recognizes that in all commerce and trade there exists a tendency to competition and combination. It is the purpose of the Progressive program to prevent unfair competition and oppressive combination. The Progressive party recognizes that the courts, bound by procedure and presided over by judges who, however, learned, are not experts in business administration or economics, are not competent to meet conditions.

"We would confer upon the interstate trade commission power to determine whether the alleged monopoly exists in fact and what is its basis. If it were ascertained that unfair or oppressive trade practices had caused the monopoly then [illegible] the commission prohibit those practices invoking the power of the courts if necessary. If the monopoly controls an essential factor in an industry the commission must have power to adopt its remedy to the case.

WOULD APPOINT SUPERVISORS.

"If the trust resists the orders of the commission, then, under our plan, the commission would have the authority to [illegible] the courts for the appointment of supervisors who, like receivers, would take over the conduct of the business of the trust until it was purged of the unfair practices of which it was condemned.

"Of course we would provide that business could appeal to the courts from confiscatory rulings by the commission.

"It is certain that for the peace which business men seek, legislation is necessary which is enforcible and which shall be so adopted to modern conditions as not to require constant amendment. The Republican party has no proposal to make. The Democratic party with every beneficient intention proposes reaction. The Progressive party proposes constructive legislation under which American business may thrive, the country prosper and its exports share with England and Germany, the markets of the world."

Long Tom Escapes Sentence by Novel Plea of His Height

CHICAGO, April 7—His unusual height yesterday saved Long Tom, a negro, from being sentenced to [illegible] the house of correction on a minor charge. A tape measure proved that Tom was 7 feet 11 inches tall.

"No, Judge," said Long Tom when arraigned in the morals court, "I didn't do anything wrong. I have led an honest life, because if I did anything wrong I couldn't escape if I went to the end of the world. I couldn't disguise myself."

The judge dismissed Long Tom, who said he had no other name.

FAVORS NO LIQUOR ORDER IN NAVY

Bennett Thinks It a Prudent Measure, But Others Condemn It.

MARE ISLAND, April 7.—Commandant F. M. Bennett, U. S. N., of Mare Island, after reading the latest order in reference to liquor being barred from the navy, said that to his way of thinking, it was a good order. As far as the "wine mess" was concerned, the captain said, "it has fast been disappearing on board [illegible] as the officers have too much work to attend to. Captain Bennett was formerly commander of the cruiser South Dakota and said that the wine mess on that vessel cost the officers on an average of from 50 cents to $1 per month.

NO WINE FOR OFFICERS.

The only inconvenience of barring the [illegible] able to serve wine when any foreign officers or dignitaries pay an official visit to Uncle Sam's vessels while in a foreign port.

Other yard officers do not look with favor on the order when it comes to barring liquor from navy yards and some said that they believed this section of the order would be modified before July 1. The order would work quite a hardship on all naval men and if carried out would mean that it wold not be long before the government would bar liquor from all [illegible] to order civil service employes to refrain from the use of intoxicants.

TO TAKE EXAMINATIONS.

Assistant Naval Constructor P. H. Fretz and H. Van Keuren, U. S. N., will begin examination tomorrow for promotion to the rank of naval constructor.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY COMING.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt is to spend two days at Mare Island. He is due to arrive about the 14th.

NEW OFFICERS ARRIVE.

Lieutenant Colonel H. C. Haines, U. S. M. C., also reported for duty.

CLEVELAND OFF FOR MEXICO.

Orders were received at Mare Island today to place the cruiser Cleveland in commission at once and she will proceed to Mexico in a few days. Her plans at Mare Island guardo will be taken by the naval reserve ship Marblehead for the time being and the Marblehead will be relieved by the Intrepid before the month is over.

The orders for the Cleveland to be placed in full commission have been expected for the past month and her officers and crew have all been prepared for duty in Mexican waters.

TO CONSTRUCT LEVEE.

A big dredger was moved about a quarter of a mile north of Mare Island today and will start work at once to construct [illegible] feet levee for the North American Dredging Company on "Sawyer Island," recently acquired by the government.

NEW INDUSTRY COMING.

VALLEJO, April 7.—General Manager Taylor of the pressed steel concern which is seeking a location here, expressed himself so well pleased that he will confer with the members of the Chamber of Commerce later in the week regarding a site.

DIES TAKING A BATH.

VALLEJO, April 7.—Stricken with heart failure early yesterday morning while in the act of taking a bath at his home at 414 Alameda street, Isaac G. Sharp, one of the best known residents of this city expired before medical assistance could be summoned. His death came as a decided shock to his relatives as he had been in perfect health up to the moment that the hand of death was laid upon him.

WANTS TO CARRY GUN.

VALLEJO, April 7.—Alleging that his life has been threatened by some of the Greek fishermen operating in and about Carquinez straits and in the neighborhood of South Vallejo, John Gorgas, a fisherman who resides at 614 Bay street, South Vallejo, appeared before the city council this morning in company with Attorney P. E. Lynch and asked for a permit to carry a revolver for self-protection.

EDUCATOR'S WIFE SUES FOR DIVORCE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—A long-rumored separation between Rev. Charles Hitchcock, former head of the Hitchcock Military Academy at San Rafael and his wife, Mrs. Helen Hitchcock, was confirmed yesterday with the filing in San Rafael of a suit for divorce by Mrs. Hitchcock. The papers were placed on secret file and the charges have not been made public.

[illegible]cock severed her connection with the military academy and departed for England to visit relatives, friends of the couple have been expecting the climax, which came yesterday. At the time of the separation attorneys for the former academy head denied that there had been any breach in the marital relations of the couple. They said Dr. Hitchcock would join his wife in England and later return with her to California.

The Hitchcock Military Academy, of which Dr. Hitchcock was the head, is a popular and fashionable school for boys. Its students come from all parts of the country, and on its roster are enrolled sons of some of the wealthiest families in California.

GIRL CONFESSES TO PERJURED TESTIMONY

STOCKTON, April 7.—P. Herbert Bra Me, formerly a publisher of this city, who is serving a jail sentence following conviction on the charge of having mistreated pretty 16-year-old Florence Cavander, made public today a purported letter from the girl, in which she virtually admits having perjured herself.

The letter is signed "Florence," and appears to have been written from Sacramento. It says: "I sincerely hope that the affidavit which I signed will help you out and never again under any circumstances would I perjure myself." In another place it says: "I have done you a great wrong, something I can never hope to be forgiven for." Bra Me's application for parole has just been denied.

NAVAL MILITIA CRUISE.

BREMERTON, Wash., April 7.—[illegible] Pacific reserve fleet at the Puget Sound navy yard, was selected today to take the naval militias of Washington, Oregon and California on their annual summer training cruises this year. The Washington naval militia will be the first to make a cruise, going out in June for ten days' experience at sea.

TO CONSTRUCT CANALS.

BERLIN, April 7.—The Schleswig-Holstein government has ordered that [illegible] be taken preliminary to the [illegible] and the Kaiser Wilhelm canal, of a canal between the broad part of the Schiel and Eckenforde and [illegible] harbor at Eckenforde.

BIG LAND DEAL MADE IN YOLO

Large Acreage in Basin Sold to Southern Capitalists.

Woodland, April 7. — By far the biggest real estate transaction closed here in several years was effected yesterday when B. F. Conoway and Otis A. Birch, Capitalists of Los Angeles, purchased the Chapman Land, comprising 10,112 acres, or nearly all of the Yolo Basin, for $540,000.

San Jose, April 7. — San Francisco capitalists who have taken over the interests of the San Jose Terminal Railroad Company are to have a chance to build the line, which they hope to have in operation by the opening of the Panama-Pacific exposition, taking passengers from this city direct to the exposition gates.

Santa Rosa, April 7. — A delegation representing the Santa Rosa City Union of Young People's Societies, backed by the Santa Rosa Ministerial City Union and delegations of workers from the city [illegible] day morning to ask that body to provide a chapel at the county poor farm.

Stanford University, April 7. — Chancellor J. H. Kirkham, executive head of Vanderbilt University, has accepted an invitation of President Branner of Stanford to address the university students here.

Salinas, April 7. — At the call of the Supervisors of Monterey county made yesterday afternoon a meeting to consider [illegible] state highway bonds for Monterey county will be held in the assembly room of the Palace Hotel in San Francisco on April 11.

Sacramento, April 7. — Folsom Prison will pay no more tobacco bills if the new project when Warden Smith has under way proves a success. Smith is not afraid of innovations, and his latest is the planting of a considerable field near the prison to tobacco.

Hanford, April 7. — Mrs. Nannie E. Davidson, for twelve years superintendent of schools for Kings county, announced yesterday that she would make the race at the primaries for nomination for State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

AMERICAN-BUILT SHIPS DECREASE

Report for Past Nine Months Shows 233 Less Vessels Than in 1913.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—During the nine months ending with March 31 last there were built in the United States 881 sailing, steam and unrigged vessels of 215,059 gross tons, a decrease of 233 vessels when compared with the corresponding period of 1913, according to the department of commerce today.

Of the total vessels built 479 were constructed on the Atlantic and gulf coasts, 229 on the Pacific, 84 on the Great Lakes, 83 on western rivers and three each in Porto Rico and Hawaii. During March last 101 vessels were built.

GENERAL YOUNGHUSBAND SAN FRANCISCIO VISITOR

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—General Sir Francis Younghusband, whose highest military achievement during his twenty-seven years' service in the British army was the successful leadership of the Lhassa expedition into Thibet, is visiting San Francisco for the first time and is staying at the Fairmont Hotel.

The general retired from active military service four years ago and has made London his home since. He has just completed his first trip [illegible] the United States, and after a stay here of five days he purposes returning to England by way of Nevada.

VINCENT ASTOR PAYS DAMAGES TO VICTIM

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., April 7.—The $10,000 suit of Charles E. Palmer, a telephone fireman, against Vincent Astor for injuries caused by Astor's automobile was settled yesterday without the jury's aid. Palmer's attorney announced he had agreed to settle for $3100.

CANDIDACY ANNOUNCED.

PHILADELPHIA, April 8.—Henry Budd of this city last night announced that he will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator in opposition to Congressman A. Mitchell Palmer.

Drug Clerk Tells How To Cure Indigestion

Recommends to Sufferers the Best Stomach Remedy in Oakland Today.

"It is a wonder some of us have stomachs left," remarked a well-known drug clerk recently. "While all drug stores sell a score or more of stomach remedies for which there is a wide demand, most of them are just pepsin pills which digest the food that is in the stomach at the time. They have no curative or strengthening effect on the stomach at all, and of course do not reach or cure the cause. So the same people keep on coming here and buying and using them until they are real chronic dyspeptics. When anyone really asks my advice, I swear by and recommend ordinary bisurated magnesia, which doesn't digest the food at all but just acts as an antacid and sweetens the sour, fermenting contents of the stomach. That stops the pain, heartburn, sour rising, wind, bloating, fullness, etc., in just a few minutes, and the stomach digests its food [illegible] proper way.

"Doctors make mistakes sometimes, too," he continued. "My own aunt had all kinds of trouble with her stomach for years. She bought and used several styles of digestive pills but got worse right along, as naturally she would. Finally she went to a doctor, who nearly scared her to death by telling her she had cancer of the stomach. She came to me with his prescription and told me what he said. I thought it was nonsense. I sent her to another doctor whom I knew very well and he didn't tell her anything, but just gave her this same thing, bisurated magnesia. She took it two weeks and never has had any stomach trouble since and that's three years ago. She's my own aunt and I know this for a [illegible] is sold in Oakland. All the druggists have it, I suppose, and all you take is a teaspoonful after every meal. It's all right."

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Look young! Nobody can tell if you use Grandmother's simple recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops failing hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is mussy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.—Advertisement.

CAUGHT IN ATTEMPT TO PASS BAD CHECK

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—James O'Meara, who was out on probation from Superior Judge Lawlor's court for passing a fictitious check, was arrested this morning for a similar offense after he had attempted to mulct the Oeon Cafe out of $7.50. Had it not been that the manager, J. H. Le Claire, was well acquainted with the cashier of the Market street branch of the Bank of Italy, O'Meara might now be at liberty, instead of occupying a cell in the top floor of the Hall of Justice. O'Meara, who posed as a member of the Brown-Murray Construction Copany, requested Le Claire to cash the check.

"Certainly," said the manager. "Just wait a moment while I open the safe. He stepped into an inner office, quietly called up the cashier and found that J. Edwards, the man who had signed the check, had no account at the bank. Patrolman John J. Nash was summoned and told O'Meara that the check was a forgery and that he had done the same trick before.

HOTEL MEN IN COURT ON ARSON CHARGES

SANTA CRUZ, April 7.—Ellsworth Beeson, realty dealer of Fresno, and C. A. Cooper, director of the First National Bank of Sanger, proprietors of the Ben Lomond Hotel, and W. E. Curran, a farmer of Pine Flat, were arraigned yesterday before Justice of the Peace Harry Bias on charges of arson in connection with the destruction of the hotel March 5. April 23 was set as the date of the preliminary examination.

Beeson and Cooper, shortly after their arrest in Fresno, were released on furnishing $15,000 bonds each. Curran's attorney arrived today with $10,000 bail for him and he was released.

GROTESQUE FASHIONS MAKE WOMEN POOR

CHAMPAGNE, Ill., April 7.—Designers of grotesque fashions for women are depleting the pocketbooks of the American people, declared Dean Davenport of the College of Agriculture of the University of Illinois in an address last night.

He said grotesque fashions were responsible in large part for the increased cost of living.

"No relief can be expected in the cost of food," he said. "Food prices will go still higher. People must cut down on clothes, amusements and housing."

"ON TO ATLANTA" PLANS PERFECTED

Shriners' Committees Hold a Joint Meeting for National Conclave Move.

Plans for the great "On to Atlanta" movement were perfected yesterday and Saturday by the joint meeting of committeemen from the four temples of the Mystic Shrine in California, meeting in Los Angeles. Potentates of Al Malikah Temple, Los Angeles, Aahmes Temple, Oakland, Al Bahr Temple, San Diego and Islam Temple, San Francisco, gathered with their committees at the Los Angeles Temple. Past Potentates F. W. Bilger, accompanied the Oakland committee, which returned home today.

Flocking to the standard of the Panama-Pacific Exposition, the Shriners outlined plans for raising of a fund of $15,000 to complete the $50,000 fund with which the great booster's trip, with the object of bringing to San Francisco in 1915 the great National Conclave of the Shrine, will be made. Special trains will carry the great crowd of boosters, with massed bands and patrols, to Atlanta, Georgia, for the Imperial Council this year, where the fight for San Francisco will be waged.

The great band will include 120 pieces, according to the plans of the boosters, and the Californians plan to take the city by storm. All the party will be in full regalia of the order.

WILL BE ROYAL BOOSTER.

To ... will be an executive committee consisting of H. E. Huntington, Marco H. Hellman and James W. Jump. No effort will be spared, according to the committee to raise the big fund for the trip, which the Shriners are taking, not as members of the order but as boosters for California. The boosters while abroad will visit St. Louis, Kansas City, Detroit, Buffalo, Albany, Rochester, and other cities. California literature will be distributed ... will also be distributed.

The Oakland contingent promised the other committees all possible co-operation. The meeting was one of several being held to complete plans. The one before this took place at Aahmes Temple, in the Hotel Oakland. Each city where a Shrine temple exists in California will probably see one of the sessions before the boosters are ready to start out.

KNOWLAND SPEECH STILL DISTURBS ADMINISTRATION

Masterly Arraignment, Which Broke President's Silence, Ringing Around World

THE TRIBUNE has received a copy of the speech of Congressman Knowland, delivered on the floor of the House of Representatives, March 28, which speech caused President Wilson to break his silence, and induced Sir Edward Grey, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs of Great Britain, to make a statement in the House of Commons. It also brought a rejoinder from Hon Shirley Benn, member of Parliament, who, in replying, practically acknowledged everything which Knowland had stated. Outside of the speech of Speaker Clark, Knowland's has proved the most disturbing to the administration delivered during the contest.

SPEECH OF HON JOSEPH R KNOWLAND OF CALIFORNIA

The House had under consideration the bill (H. R. 14385) to amend section 5 of "An act to provide for the opening, maintenance, protection and operation of the Panama canal and proved August 24, 1912.

Mr. J. R. Knowland. Mr Speaker, I yield to myself twenty minutes. (Applause.)

I have listened with great interest to my colleague on the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce from the State of Minnesota (Mr Stevens). I have a very high personal regard for him, and there is no more valuable member of this body. Upon this very vital and important question, however, we have agreed to disagree.

In opening his address, the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. Stevens) declared that the free tolls exemption was not a plank in the platform of the [illegible] party. That is true but it was the policy of a Republican President, for whom I have the greatest respect. (Applause.) It was the policy of a Republican Senate. It was unnecessary for the Republican party to have in its platform any declaration to compel that great party, in a crisis such as this, to uphold the American position. An overwhelming majority of Republicans in this House are sustaining the historic policy of the party in favor of an American-controlled canal. (Applause.)

QUOTES SENATOR LODGE.

The gentleman has quoted Senator Davis as being opposed to the exemption; and I want to bring to the attention of the House the remarks made by Senator Lodge, who voted against exemption and who, I believe is going to vote against exemption again in the Senate. Senator Lodge stated on the floor of the Senate on July 20, 1912:

I voted against the Bard amendment. I voted against it in the belief that it was unnecessary, that the right to fix tolls, if we built the canal or it was built under our auspices, was undoubted. I know that was the view taken by the then Senator from Minnesota, Mr. Davis, who was at that time chairman of the committee. I certainly so stated on the floor. * * *

Now let us quote from Senator Davis himself.

Mr. Gardner. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. J. R. Knowland. Owing to the shortness of my time I cannot yield unless the gentleman desires to state that his colleague on the committee made that statement.

Mr. Gardner. I propose to read part of a debate in which my father-in-law participated, if the gentleman will allow me.

Mr J. R. Knowland. The gentleman will read it in his own time. The state-

Mr Gardner. I shall read from the Congressional Record of July 17, 1912, three days earlier than the Congressional Record to which the gentleman refers.

Mr J. R. Knowland. Then mine was the last.

Mr Gardner. His memory had been refreshed.

Mr J. R. Knowland. Yes, his memory is generally refreshed toward the English view. (Applause and laughter.)

Mr Gardner. Three days before the time of which you speak he said he did not remember the question having been raised.

Mr. J. R. Knowland. Well, he remembered it afterward. His memory may have changed recently.

Mr. Gardner. You have quoted his statements made twelve years after the vote of which he was speaking.

Mr. J. R. Knowland. It was some years since our friend Stevens talked to him, also. (Applause and laughter.)

Let us read from Senator Davis' report, which has been quoted on the floor with such apparent force.

This sweeping modification of article 1 of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, as to all its restrictions upon the right of the United States, under its auspices, to construct the canal and to have and enjoy all the rights—such as ownership—incident to its construction, as well as the exclusive right of providing for its management and regulation, leaves no ground, substantial or conjectural, on which Great Britain could hereafter contend for any of the restrictions contained in that article as remaining in force against the United States. (Applause.)

NOW ASKED TO SURRENDER.

The gentleman has quoted the Canadian treaty, known as the Washington treaty of 1871, relative to the use of canals and channels of the Great Lakes. We are now asked by Great Britain to surrender by repealing the free toll provision of the canal act "because we are violating a treaty." When we asked Great Britain to surrender in the controversy, the English government refused, and only did so (when) because we had retaliated against her, but in the official correspondence declared that she still adhered to her interpretation of the treaty. She was not generous enough at that time to give way to our contention, although we had a stronger case by far. (Applause.)

The gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. Stevens) becomes greatly alarmed because he fears that the Canadians will retaliate against us, but as an American citizen and a member of Congress I will not consent to surrender an important American right because of the threats of action by any foreign nation. (Applause.) This question must be settled upon its merits, and not because of fear. There has been too much of that kind of talk in this controversy. (Applause.)

ADMITTED CONTENTION WRONG.

The gentleman admitted upon the floor of this House that one of the British contentions was wrong, namely, Sir Edward Grey's contention that we can not pass the ships of the Republic of Panama without the payment of tolls, as provided by our treaty with Panama, and when he admits that Great Britain is wrong in this case, he is doubting all her contentions. Great Britain states specifically in her protest that we can not pass a vessel of the United States through this canal free of tolls, irrespective of any treaty rights, and argues as he will that Great Britain is wrong, the fact nevertheless remains that Great Britain in her note specifically states that the provision which allows us to pass our ships and other government vessels free is in direct contravention of the treaty we made with her. We cannot get around that proposition.

There were ship owners who testified before the committee that the [illegible] president of the Hawaiian Steamship Company testified, and in his testimony he said he and other ship owners were indifferent as to whether we imposed tolls upon American coastwise ships. And why? Because the consumer, he declared, not the steamship company, would pay the tolls. (Applause.)

The gentleman also declared that the rate of toll is so insignificant as to make no difference. He says it is only 50 or 60 cents per ton. Any one who has had any experience in transportation matters knows that a few cents makes a vast difference in reaching a market, a difference of great importance to the people of the interior of this country, who hope to benefit through the opening of the canal by a reduction in freight rates.

DISCUSSES CERTAIN PHASES.

Mr. Speaker, owing to the limit fixed under the special rule for debate, it is my purpose to consume but little time. Having expressed my views at some length in the minority report recently submitted I feel that it is only fair to other members of the House that they [illegible] opportunity to do what I do desire, however, to very briefly discuss at this time certain phases of the pending question.

The government of the United States, speaking through Congress, a President and State Department, takes a positive position touching the interpretation of a disputed treaty, and a succeeding administration a month and [illegible] that this former position and accept the foreign interpretation of the treaty, an action with no parallel in American history.

Disguise the situation or behold the issue as you may, there is no escaping from the naked truth that for the first time the people of this great nation are urged to surrender under foreign pressure.

What is the excuse for this unprecedented action? Diligently seeking information I have brought to light certain facts which I shall now disclose, permitting the [illegible] to draw their own conclusions and make their own deductions. The circumstances I shall relate are highly significant in their bearing upon the question at issue.

PRIVATE SECRETARY PAYS VISIT.

On November 7, 1913, Sir Edward Tyrrell secretary to Sir Edward Gray, visited the President and had a private interview. On November 20 he was again received at the White House and granted another interview. November 20 was a Sunday. It is not the practice of the President to discuss official affairs on Sunday with anyone except members of his cabinet and with them only on important occasions.

A third visit was made to the President on the morning of Thanksgiving Day, November 27. This visit was also rather unusual. That the matters discussed must have been of the utmost importance is evidenced by the fact that on two of these occasions Sir Edward Grey's private secretary was received upon days not usually given to the transaction of official business—Sunday and Thanksgiving Day. On November 28 the day following the visit of Sir Edward Tyrrell Hon Robert L Borden, the Canadian premier held a conference with the President and the Secretary of State. Borden, it will be remembered, was the man who visited London in June, 1912, and, according to the Canadian papers as well as the London Times and other British publications, made the original protest against the canal act on behalf of the Canadian railroads. A few days after Borden visited London the first British protest was received by the United States. Following this up, the Canadian premier confers with the President of the United States. Things apparently were coming the British way and they were pressing their opportunities to the fullest extent.

ANNOUNCES PRESIDENT'S POSITION.

Sir Edward Tyrrell is said to be the first and last word in authority in the British foreign office. I am ignorant of what was said. The papers said the Mexican situation—a question clearly related, so we are informed, with Panama tolls.

Hon Shirley Benn, of England, member of Parliament, honorary secretary of the British Peace Committee, and personal friend of Andrew Carnegie, paid two visits to the United States. The first in May, 1913, and the second in October, 1913. On his last visit to America he accompanied Andrew Carnegie, arriving in New York on October 17 on the Mauretania. Hon Shirley Benn, after his return to London, declared at the Mansion House peace centenary meeting—and I have in my possession positive proofs of his statements—that he had seen the President and there was not the slightest doubt that the peace appropriation and tolls repeal would be put through both the Senate and House "as the President had pledged himself to carry out these proposals to the satisfaction of the British government."

So delighted was this member of the British Parliament over the situation as he found it in the United States that shortly after his return he dined Ambassador Page in the House of Commons [illegible] dor, but then our American ambassador has been saying and doing unusual things of late. Apparently banquets are his long suit.

POINTS TO SIGNIFICANCE.

Keep in mind that this was before the President had taken the American people into his confidence. It is unfortunately significant that the day of the visit of Sir Lionel Carden to the White House announcement should be made of the President's intention to send to Congress a message urging repeal, although tolls were not discussed, we are told. That mystery surrounds all these negotiations and private interviews is the fault of no one but the Chief Executive, because of his lack of frankness. Has there been a trade? Is the Panama Canal the price for the elimination of Huerta?

That the situation may be made more clear, certain facts should be recalled.

Great Britain, prior to the final enactment of the canal legislation by the American Congress in 1912, sent word that the action we contemplated taking did not meet with the approval of His Majesty's government. The views of Great Britain were communicated to Congress before the Senate took final action, but that body, after giving the protest that respectful consideration to which it was entitled, decided by an overwhelming vote that this government was acting clearly within its rights.

BRITAIN'S SECOND PROTEST.

The canal bill then went to conference, again came before this House, was agreed to, and after approval by the President of the United States became a law.

A second protest was made by Great Britain, and our then Secretary of State, speaking for the American people, upheld the position of the Congress of the United States, a Congress Democratic in one branch and Republican in the other.

The Record shows that a majority of Democrats in Congress favored free tolls when the canal bill was passed. In the Senate of the United States not a single Democrat voted against the free toll provision and a roll call was had on the free toll amendment. In the House there was a slight Democratic majority against free tolls but in the Senate and House together the amendment for the exemption of coastwise ships received a Democratic majority of six votes. The Record is somewhat in conflict with the statement recently issued from the White House.

In the interim a new administration is ushered into office, elected on a platform [illegible] favored the legislation in question, and the presidential candidate, prior to election, gave out to the farmers of the country in a [illegible] speech the advantages of the controverted law, and so well chosen were his words and so valuable as a campaign document were they regarded that an excerpt from this speech containing the particular reference to the toll exemption was placed in the Democratic campaign textbook.

PRESIDENT'S SUBSEQUENT SPEECH.

I entertain a high regard for the President of the United States. His patriotism and honesty of purpose I would not attempt to question. However, like all members of the human race, he is apt to err. In this instance an apparent error in judgment in handling the Mexican [illegible] grove, at least his message so hints. The most charitable thing to say is that he has been imposed upon.

The date of the President's Washington Park speech, which I inserted in the Congressional Record of February 28, is significant. It was delivered on August 15, 1912. This was over a month after the first British protest was received, proving that the presidential candidate was not ignorant of Great Britain's attitude when he stood squarely on the Democratic platform.

Should a high sense of honor not have prompted him to have declared then that in his opinion the law he spoke of in such laudatory terms was in plain contravention of the treaty with Great Britain, would it not have given the American people greater confidence in his sincerity had he taken this position prior to election and the frequent visits of English diplomats and announced then [illegible] the free toll plank, since Great Britain had lodged a protest against the law? (Applause.) Instead of pursuing this course he announced to the farmers of Washington Park on that memorable occasion "Our platform is not molasses to catch flies. It means business. It means what it says." Throughout the Pacific coast, and, I presume, elsewhere, the free toll plank was frequently quoted by Democratic [illegible].

ARBITRATION NOT ATTEMPTED.

Why, then, this unusual and unprecedented action on the part of our government? With the many questions involved, why are diplomatic negotiations dropped? Why is arbitration, as suggested by Sir Edward Grey in his note of November 14, 1912, not considered? In that note he declared that His Majesty's government—

Recognized that many persons of note in the United States whose opinions are entitled to great weight, hold that the provisions of the act do not infringe the conventional obligations [illegible] the United States is bound, (His Majesty's government) desire to state their perfect readiness to submit the question to arbitration.

A year ago I was informed, upon the most reliable authority, that the time of the famous Root speech in the Senate there was every prospect of an amicable adjustment of the whole difficulty—an adjustment without the sacrifice of every American right. The Senate speech was made without consultation with the President or State Department and resulted in the dropping of negotiations.

In joint session we listened most attentively and respectfully to the reading by the President of his special message.

Mr. Gardner. Will the gentleman yield?

Mr. J. R. Knowland. No, Mr. Speaker; I have not the time.

LIKE ORACLE OF DELPHI.

Mr. J. R. Knowland. Like the oracle of Delphi, the language of this remarkable message has been interpreted a hundred ways to suit the necessities of the occasion in converting doubting members.

In the diplomatic gallery on that historic day sat the secretary of State. Perhaps he understood. At least he appeared [illegible] bowing and smiling he applauded his chief as he urged an abandonment of the American position in favor of the English contention. Has there ever been such a spectacle in American history.

As I watched him sitting in yonder gallery unable to suppress his gratification there came to my mind a speech he delivered, not at Washington Park, but before the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania on May 13, 1913. An account of that speech I hold in my hand. Accompanying the article is a newspaper halftone.

The Speaker. The gentleman has consumed twenty minutes.

Mr. J. R. Knowland. I ask unanimous consent for five minutes more. With this newspaper article there is a picture of our Secretary of State. Beside him stands our honored colleague, Mr. A. Mitchell Palmer, who yesterday declared to the House, anticipating, no doubt, the quotation from this speech, that what the Secretary of State really meant wha that he stood for every plank in the platform unless it had some relation to foreign affairs. (Applause.)

If that be so, are those of us who represent the Pacific Coast States to understand that secretary Bryan repudiated the platform he ran upon on two occasions declaring for Japanese exclusion? Probably the only plank in the platform which he insists upon is that plank which provides "that we favor a single presidential term." (Laughter.)

QUOTES SECRETARY BRYAN.

Now let us quote Secretary Bryan on the sacredness of a platform declaration. He said:

The fact that we not only have platforms, but that the platform is becoming more specified year after year is conclusive proof that the people believe in the Democratic theory, and they write their platforms because they believe, and those who run upon them lead the voters to believe, that they believe a platform is binding upon those who stand upon it.

(Laughter and applause.)

In this statement he agrees with his chief that a platform is not molasses to catch flies. (Laughter.) Continuing he declared:

As a believer in the Democratic theory of representative government I desire to announce it as a settled principle not to be questioned in this country, that a platform is binding upon every honest man who runs upon that platform. I have heard it said by men after an election that they could not conscientiously support something in their platform, and it raises a very important question that any man elected to any office should as an official do a thing that his conscience condemns. But does that mean that he should violate his whether a man should violate his conscience should commence to work before the election and not hibernate until after the election.

(Laughter.)

This statement of the Secretary of State now seems almost prophetic in view of the Washington Park address. Let me repeat it in order that we may fully appreciate its present significance:

But does this mean—

that he should violate his platform? No, it seems that his conscience should commence to work before the election, and not hibernate until after the election.

(Laughter.)

BRYAN'S IMPASSIONED COMMENT.

And finally, to make his meaning so clear that no one might mistake his attitude toward platform breaking, he declared, with a burst of impassioned oratory for which he is famed.

I lay it down as a proposition, and [illegible] that the representative who secures office upon a platform and then holds the office and betrays the people who elected him is a criminal worse than the man who embezzled money intrusted to him.

(Renewed laughter.)

Does this account for the discreet silence on the part of Secretary Bryan—a silence unusual and unprecedented? Has he in mind the part he took in the framing of the Baltimore platform and of this particular plank?

BRITAIN'S BRILLIANT DIPLOMACY.

I question if in the history of the world so brilliant diplomacy as that displayed by the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs of Great Britain. On the floor of the American Congress I salute Sir Edward Grey and acknowledge him to be the keenest diplomat of the age. Foreign nations are enjoying the situation.

When one seriously considers the tremendous importance of the issue as now presented and its bearing upon the future history of this nation, vitally affecting, as it does, the welfare of generations yet unborn, the economic phases of the question become insignificant.

COUNTRY ABOVE PARTISANSHIP.

The American people are going to hold us to a strict accounting for the action we take. I am in a sense a partisan. It is but natural, perhaps, that one party should seek to take advantage of the mistakes of the party to which it is opposed, but I would a thousand times rather that no partisan advantage be gained in the present controversy than that a single American right be sacrificed.

The far-reaching consequences of our votes upon this question will endure after we are all dead and gone. My long service in this House has convinced me that neither side of the dividing aisle has a monopoly upon patriotism. We are all striving to render faithful service to our country.

If, with your controlling majority and the exercise of Executive pressure, you obtain the votes to repeal this provision, I appeal to you as American citizens to accompany that action with a legislative declaration, unequivocal and unmistakable as to its meaning, than in following the commands of the President you do not accept the foreign power's interpretation of the treaty which would clearly mean the sacrifice of important and vital American rights affecting this nation commercially, politically and strategically, now and for all future time.

Unless we specifically reserve the [illegible] contended for a generation in our efforts to construct an [illegible] canal under American control and management we will be paying too dear a price for the elimination of Huerta. (Loud applause.)

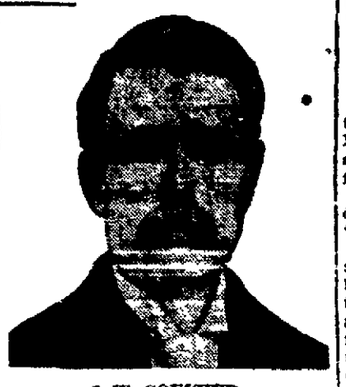
Eats Freely But Has No Dyspepsia

A Little Pepsin in a Mild Laxative Promptly Corrected a Bad Indigestion.



J. W. GOUCHER

Fortunate is the one who can eat "anything" without suffering the tortures of dyspepsia, but as few are so fortunate, care should be taken in the matter of diet. Eating slowly, masticating the food thoroughly and taking a short walk after the heavy meal of the day will do much towards assisting digestion. Any grown-up person ought to know the peculiar foods that do not agree, and these should be avoided.

When these common-sense aids fail, the next thing to do is to take a mild digestive tonic with laxative properties, and there is none better than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains the greatest of all aids to digestion, good pepsin. It has other ingredients that act mildly on the bowels, which together form a combination for the relief of dyspepsia or indigestion that is unsurpassed.

Its action is to tone and strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles so that they can again do their work naturally without outside aid, and medicine can be dispensed with. It is the best remedy obtainable for any disorder of the stomach, liver and bowels, for dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness, headaches, drowsiness after eating, gas on the stomach, etc. Thousands of users will testify to this, among them Mr. J. W. Goucher, Stites, Idaho, who for several years had all the worst symptoms of chronic dyspepsia. Since taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin these have all gone, and although Mr. Goucher says he is 64, he does not look more than 40.

Syrup Pepsin is sure in its results and a vast improvement over chewing or swallowing tablets and pints, or taking cathartics, salts, etc., all of which are harsh and nauseous and at best only relieve temporarily. You can obtain Syrup Pepsin at any drug store for fifty cents or one dollar a bottle. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

ATLANTA PREPARES TO DEFEND ITSELF

Organizes League to Combat Wrong Impression Regarding Penal Standing.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 7.—Declaring that this city, so far as the matter of vice, morals and control of the liquor traffic is concerned, is one of the best regulated in the United States, and that to agitate a movement seeking to spread the impression that such is not the case is an injury, a powerful Citizen's League has been organized to combat the impression threatened by organizations and which, business men feared, would do great injury to Atlanta. The new league has started out by challenging sweeping assertions of vice, criminal laxity and law breaking published about the city in bulletins which the business men say tend to libel the city. By this league the issue is joined with the Men and Religion Forward Movement.

The issue took shape when the latter organization, publishing weekly bulletins, described alleged conditions which the league members declare cannot be allowed to further malign the city. A spirited battle between the business men and the other organization will result. The officers of the league declare that they will fight hard for Atlanta's reputation, and will defend the city officials who have so far made this city second to none as a well regulated community.

THE CAUSE OF DISPUTE.

The dispute started when Colonel F. J. Paxon and Forest Adair, two prominent Atlanta citizens, took issue with the statement made in the bulletin of the Men and Religion movement.

The League states:

"Atlanta was built by a spirit which was united, free, progressive, just and tolerant, and entirely free from fanaticism.

"Recently elements have appeared which whether intended to do so or not have tended to disrupt and destroy the city.

"The Citizens' League of Atlanta is formed with the purpose of uniting the same, conservative citizens in a common effort to prevent further injury. Its objects are the restoration of sanity, conservatism, tolerance and a just recognition of the rights of all."

Under this declaration the league, with a compact business-like organization will fight to a finish the bulletins and the organization which, behind it, promises a prohibition struggle founded on these publications.

HYPNOTIST AWAKES BOY WHO DROPS IN STREET

SANTA ROSA, April 7.—Responding to a telegraphic request of Chief of Police J. M. Boyes, Professor Henry George Lorenz, the hypnotic entertainer who spent last week here giving exhibitions at a local theater, returned at noon yesterday from Vallejo and released George Berry from a sleep into which he fell last night while out with a young lady.

Berry had been one of Professor Lorenz's assistants on his tour of entertainments and while here last week was hypnotized on the stage each evening and each afternoon was put in a store window on exhibition after being hypnotized and set at some task, as of typewriting or riding a bicycle. Friday night he was paid off and given money to return to San Francisco and the professor left town.

Young Berry remained here and last night was out with a young lady for a walk. They were discussing hypnotism and he was telling her of the methods employed, when he began to feel the spell coming over him. Telling the girl to go for assistance as he was falling under the influence of hypnotic suggestion, he sank unconscious.

MISS MORGAN OUTLINES NATION'S HOPE

NEW YORK, April 7.—"The class of girls in our city that means more to us than any other class because they are the future mothers the girls with imagination, ideals, impulse and a need for recreation, rest, amusement—are the wage-earning girls who get from $15 to $25 a week. The very poor—the $6 to $8 a week girls—either work into the $15 to $25 class later, else there are many philanthropies and societies who aid them. The girl I am speaking of, with her independence of mind and economies has been neglected as a social factor. She needs all the sympathy and genuine encouragement that we can give her."

The foregoing is the way Miss Anne Morgan talks. This afternoon in the beautiful library of her home in Madison avenue the daughter of the late J. Pierpont Morgan talked of what has led her into the vacation committee work and what plans she has to give to wider scope and interest.

WILL EMPTY PRISON, DECLARES GOVERNOR

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 7.—Governor Blease yesterday released fourteen prisoners, among whom were eight men convicted of manslaughter, three of larceny, two of arson and one of practicing dentistry without a license.

This makes 1190 convicts to whom Governor Blease has extended clemency since he assumed office in January, 1911. There were more than 1300 prisoners in the State penitentiary when Blease became governor, but there are only 186 left, and they will leave before long, as the governor told a committee of the legislature that he proposed to empty the penitentiary by August 1.

ARRAIGNS PARDEE'S WATER CONSERVATION ARGUMENTS

W. H. Metson Joins Issue With Governor, Criticizing Facts and Logic

EDITOR TRIBUNE: I note in an article in a San Francisco newspaper of March 21, 1914, an article headed "Wetson Replies to Pardee." The article follows.

Editor Star: I note in your paper of date March 21, 1914, an article headed "Pardee on Conservation."

Conservation of natural and other resources should be fostered to the utmost but Governor Pardee is incomprehensible to me when he says, "We have already given away into private ownership the right to use water that will produce nearly one-tenth of the total, or about 450,000 horsepower of electricity. That which we have given away is worth $45,000,000—will soon be worth $90,000,000. That which we have not yet given away is, or very soon will be, worth $500,000,000—ultimately will be worth one, two, three, four or even more billions of dollars."

The Constitution of this State says:

"The use of all water now appropriated, or that may hereafter be appropriated, for sale, rental or distribution, is hereby declared to be a public use, and the State in the manner to be prescribed by law."

In view of his inability to reform the Constitution, how have we "already given away" anything?

Why does Governor Pardee stoop to such absurdly false statements?

ANOTHER STATEMENT QUOTED.

These assertions are on a par with another declaration of Governor Pardee's, that "One power company in this State—they are all alike—is capitalized for $20,000,000. Of this sum $6,000,000 represents money actually invested. The [illegible] which the corporation puts on the water rights it has. These water rights the people gave for nothing, yet the people are compelled to pay the company rates which will bring it returns on these $14,000,000."

Why this falsehood?

We all know the company to which he refers and that Governor Pardee appointed the vice-president and manager of that corporation that he now condemns a regent of our State university. It is also known that this man is the peer of any citizen in this State and that Progressive Governor Hiram Johnson has just re-appointed this same vice-president and manager to the office of regent. If the path of this latter statement of Governor Pardee's had but a little of truth in it, would this man, the manager of a so-called soulless corporation, be for a moment tolerated in an office where part of his duties are to teach the rising idea how to shoot? If Governor Pardee's charges were at all true, such appointment and re-appointment would not have been made.

RAILROAD COMMISSION'S POWERS.

Under our Constitution we have a railroad commission which controls the rates to be charged by all power and water companies except the servants of municipalities, and these latter regulate the rates of those serving them.

Therefore, the State has the water under a public use and the income to be derived by a public service water company therefrom is regulated by State and other officers and never according to a stock issue. As to this corporation mentioned by Governor Pardee, its rate, as well as all others, have been so regulated. The basis is upon the present fair value of the physical property devoted to a public use. This basis was determined under the law of the San Diego case and of the Wells Fargo case, both no doubt well known to Governor Pardee.

Why should those who already have these gifts from the State encourage life gifts to others so that the latter may become their competitors?

Whoever heard of Governor Pardee's investing any money along constructive lines, or lines beneficial to the State or country? He, like that other Don Quixote, Gifford Pinchot, inherited a fortune and is rich, and they both know how to keep their wealth and to count the interest. They know also how to block the progress of a State city or individual.

DEMAGOGUES BLOCK PROGRESS.

Who in this State of the many that have been investing in its upbuilding, has any money today? For instance, the Sloss Brothers, who, in the effort to exploit and develop certain sections of this State placed all their ready money, running into the millions, in public utility extensions, but because they could not foresee the blockade of progress and the locking up of capital caused by demagogues, are now forced to do what in normal, sane times would be unnecessary.

They recently, willingly put up all their additional many millions' worth of property in order to back up their honesty and their business reputation, standing and integrity in this community. They, to protect their friends and others who went in because they were in, are now, with every dollar they possess, cheerfully insuring the investments of their friends.

And why should this condition exist? Solely because the era of reform, with its new commission and various "isms" of which we have heard so much since the year 1910, has added to the wealth of those who merely calculate interest, but by frightening capital has destroyed those who legitimately endeavored to exploit and benefit the State.

WHY OBSTRUCT CONSTRUCTION.

Why should great constructive statesmanship be put in motion to obstruct the employment of labor? The opening up of new industries, the putting of water upon land theretofore arid, the erection of dams to impound water to save it during the flood season to be utilized to irrigate during the summer's heat.

To whose interests is it to obstruct the building of new power plants, except those who do not want competition?

Is the State forthwith going to install the uninstalled water powers? Does the State want more rights than to regulate these companies who are in the saddle? How better to compete with those companies now in the saddle than to encourage competition, and what is becoming of this year's water, and what will become of next year's water, while all this talk, talk, talk, is going on?

The water that goes down the hill unharnessed is gone forever. Last year's water might have added to the wealth of the nation. Waste will go on while the talk fest continues.

Who can complain about the rates now being charged? They are made by the State.

The rates at which this hydro-electric power has been sold enabled crops to be harvested off great heretofore unproducing areas in the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys and in the southern part of this State.

Have the harvesters thereof scolded about the rates?

WHEREIN THE INJURY?

Certainly the assessed value of assets was increased, and $3,000,000 was paid in taxes by 16 different power corporations doing business in this State during 1913. About one-fortieth of the horsepower that can be installed is now being generated in the State from water. Would the workers, the merchants, the farmers, the unemployed, or the tax collectors, be injured if the other thirty-nine-fortieths were all now installed?

It has been the boast of Governor Pardee and his clan that since 1903, through the manipulation of Federal bureaus, they have been able to practically obstruct the building of any new power plants; that what they could not do under the State laws they had accomplished by manipulation at Washington and is that to their credit? Who gained? The water ran away without benefit to any one. The masses lost the wages they would have earned in installing and operating during this obstruction period. We have hard times and the unemployed are clubbed from one county to another. The water, if used, would have exhausted [illegible] have made additional crops and paid further taxes, and so would the newly installed companies have paid taxes.

LARGE CONCERN MIGRATED.

One large concern about to go into the business of making nitrogenous fertilizers from the air, tried to get the use of a water power site here, but it was denied them, so they went to Europe and installed their plant in Norway.

Here are the figures on that: Our farmers in 1913 bought over $40,000,000 worth of this product from Norway [illegible] quantity, for the reason that acre for acre cultivated, we only produce one-half as much grain as Europe and that is because we do not use as much fertilizer per acre here as in Europe.

If horse sense were used, would we not be selling Europe this product instead of buying?

It is certain that large numbers of employes of these hydro-electric companies, must be earning a living, none of which could exist if the views of Dr. Pardee were to be followed. Is it not a crime that more did not exist so that our people could be employed and the State could receive more taxes from them?

FACTS FOR COMPARISON.

Contrast the difference between business men and fanatics by considering the following facts:

When it was determined that we should have a Civic Center, the fact that private property within the site selected was needed did not delay the project a moment. The municipality brought condemnation proceedings and bought and own it. The Civic Center is being builded and the wages therefrom are feeding the workers and their families.

It was concluded a short time ago that the best interests of the city of San Francisco could be forwarded by an exposition. Business men wavered not for a moment. They selected a site. That it was wholly or in part owned by private persons with a disposition to obstruct was not the matter of a moment. Did the exposition directors listen to the idle vaporings of politicians? No, they went to the legislature and got the right to condemn, if necessary, and pay for all the property about which there was any dispute.

Millions are being spent there by them, and the wage earners and the material men are and have been profiting by it. In fact, it is provable that the exposition is the one thing that saved the city and the State from a panic that new-fangled laws and theories would otherwise have produced.

If our State should ever want any of these power plants, the road to State ownership is just as sure, and certain as in the case of the Civic Center and our big fair, and until the State does want them, why waste the water?

PARDEE CRITICISES LAW.

In Governor Pardee's article, criticism is made of the riparian doctrine which is called "courtmade law." That is untrue as riparian doctrine was adopted by the legislature of this State. And it is wonderful that we should have done anything because of what he calls "unjust, court-made, progress-hampering law" of the use of water. Will the judgments of commissions be more virtuous and moral than those of courts?

Are the political morals, experience and mental attainments of Governor Pardee such that he is in a position to condemn our court decisions or the judges who made them? What judgment has he that is more Solomon-like than those given by the judges of the superior court who live in the locality where the dispute exists? These judges are probably years' residence and have actual knowledge of conditions in their counties and know the lakes, streams and watersheds. They usually are well grounded in water law and aware of the necessities in their particular locality.

No law in this State has been better settled than that with reference to water.

TITLE IN BENEFICIAL USE.

There is no title to water save in the use thereof for a beneficial purpose, and when and if not used it could be at once taken by any one else desiring it for a beneficial use. No waste was allowed and no one except Governor Pardee would have the temerity to make the statements he has made. Section 1411 of our Civil Code was adopted in 1872, and it says appropriation only for a beneficial purpose, and when use ceases the right ceases. Any one appropriating the water had to apply it by working on his diversion continually until completion and riparian rights were limited to a minimum and having been once fixed as all have in the State, no commission can take them away.

Whatever rights have vested cannot be taken away except under the Constitution, and it is idle to discuss it on any other basis.

Governor Pardee has always lived in Alameda county where there is no water save for drinking purposes, and had that been good his gray matter would have worked differently. There have been but few water cases tried there. Yet without experience, either directly or indirectly, he becomes the oracle of condemnation of all our courts.

WHY FOLLOW VAGARIES?

Is Governor Pardee's political genius so great that, backing his kindergarten experience, an investor will bank upon his untried theories being a success? Why go from settled propositions to the vagaries of a man whose desire is to conduct business according to his untried suppositions?

Governor Pardee says the water commission expense in Oregon is but $10 per case and there has been no appeal there to the courts, and suggests that the same would follow here. He knows better. He knows that under the law now in force here, there can be no appeal to a court, and he knows that an application to appropriate water cannot be even prepared for filing without an expense of hundreds of dollars, that witnesses and lawyers cannot be brought here and fees paid without costs running into thousands of dollars in some cases, and heavy expense in all cases. In the Clear Lake case it cost each side in excess of $10,000, besides bringing dozens of witnesses from their homes to San Francisco.

Who pays the salaries of the commissioners, their attorneys and secretaries and office expenses? The taxpayers, of course. The litigants formerly carried that burden.

NO KISSING BY FAVOR.

Governor Pardee advocates that we turn over to a commission sitting in [illegible] on San Francisco, far from the site of the water in dispute, the right to its regulation — this commission in the exercise of a discretion, in a secret chamber to direct the running of this water in this direction, that water in that direction and the other water in the other direction, and to dictate by whom it should be diverted.

Now, Mr. Editor, we do not think it is wise to have this "kissing go by favor" rule in this State. The Constitution of this State long ago declared that the courts should give their opinions in writing, stating the reasons therefor. The people of the State thought that if a judge had an opinion he should state things in a fair, sane way, protect them in their honest endeavors.

We can make no mistake in that. Later, if the State is richer and wants to operate what it cannot now install it can, without wronging any one, do as the exposition people have done and take them.

Away with all these new and expensive commissions. There is no excuse for any of them, save the railroad commission, and no one objects to that. Away with blockades. Let's build and build bigger, and so big that we will become the leading State in this great Union.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS WON'T BE INVESTIGATED

SEATTLE, Wash., April 7.—The nine superior judges of King county in conference decided that no showing has been made to justify the calling of a grand jury to investigate the official conduct of the county commissioners and denied Commissioner M. F. Hamilton's request that a grand jury be called to investigate charges which have been made against him by two daily newspapers and several civic organizations. A grand jury last summer exonerated Commissioner Hamilton of charges against him, but last winter the attack on him was renewed and two weeks ago he requested Presiding Judge A. W. Frater to call a special grand jury so that he might either be indicted and be given a chance to combat these charges in court or be given a clean bill of health by the inquisitorial body.

STUDENT DUEL IS COURAGE TEST

German 'Mensur' Still in Vogue Throughout War Kaiser's Universities.

BERLIN, April 7.—"Germany is ruled by heroes, men, by men of the University fighting corps, men who have felt cold steel under circumstances which taught them self-control, and unflinchingly to give and take blows. The duels of the University fighting corps are to German University men what your boxing art is to Americans. Both are manly with the difference that traditionally we consider cold steel the test of nerves and you prefer padded gloves. You cannot understand the aggressive spirit of modern Germany unless you see from whence it comes. Come and see."

With this invitation, a special correspondent had the honor of being present and the guest at a "Mensur" as the student duels are called. Then came a "Beleidigungs duel," that is, a duel with heavy swords which is the result of a challenge for insult, or "honor duel." It is fought with the usual protection of regalia, but dangerous sabres replace the "schlaeger" swords. The men were stripped to the waist. Only neck, heart and eyes were protected.

In the second round one man received a terrific clip on the head. The blood flowed down his face until his bare shoulder and breast were crimson. Evidently not serious. The doctor and referee say "Go on." In the fiftieth round the second of one of the opponents suddenly struck up the sabres. He charged the wounded man with flinching and with [illegible] avoid the onslaught of the other man. The referee refused to allow the charge. Three more rounds followed, the wounded man, now weakened, confined himself to brilliant parrying against the violent onslaughts of his adversary. Again the wounded man was charged with flinching. The referee allowed it. The fight was at an end. The correspondent was told that the offending man would be suspended for six weeks by his corps. Upon examination by the surgeon it was found that the wounded student's skull had been splintered where his opponent's sabre had nicked him.

It is estimated that not less than 1000 "student duels" have been fought in Berlin alone during the University year now nearing its close. Taking the German universities into consideration, each of which has its fighting corps, several thousand duels are fought annually.

Differ as Americans must and will in regard to the German dueling, one cannot but have admiration for the self-control, nerve and grit of the man who can thus stand [illegible] steel." It is the German school of manhood. The [illegible] headway in Germany as long as the viewpoint that blood, to raise and honor are bound up in each other, is not changed in the rising generation of university men who will rule [illegible] years and who are [illegible] today.

MADELINE BROCKHOFF.

Dancing before professionals is not unusual for pretty little Madeline Brockhoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Brockhoff of 5208 Lawton avenue. The talented nine-year-old girl recently appeared before Alice Lloyd, whom the prodigy charmed with her interpretations of Miss Lloyd's songs and dances. The juvenile has received many offers for vaudeville engagements, but owing to her youth her parents have not permitted her to accept. She is at present a pupil in the third grade of the Emerson school of this city.

When Madeline was three years of age she was awarded a beauty prize [illegible] a Californian, having been born in San Francisco. Madeline is a blonde with dark brown eyes.

Aside from her beauty she has been [illegible] an advocate of outdoor life and may often be seen riding within the city limits on her pony. She has been called by her pals the "movie girl."

CLUB ISSUES NEW BOOKLET EDITION

Official Organ Is Printed; Election Planned by Boys.

The Easter edition of the "Quercull," the official paper of Quercull Club was distributed among the members of the society several days ago and the pamphlet has caused much favorable comment inside and outside of the clubrooms. It contains articles pertaining to the club activities and the stories are interspersed with original anecdotes, which were penned by the boys.

The editorial staff is composed of Elmer Croudace, editor-in-chief; Robert Peterson business manager, Ralph Sturgeon staff artist, Alfred Solomon and Melvin Solomon staff correspondents.

Next month the Quercull Club election will be held and according to present indications there will be much rivalry between the two factions known as "The Progressive and the Betterment" parties. The candidates are as follows:

Progressive—President, Ralph Sturgeon; vice-president, Alfred Solomon, secretary, Zena Pinkham; guard, N. Croudace.

Seven Policemen Surround Man Caught Peering Into Window.

It required a posse of seven policemen to surround and capture Clifford W. Smart, 2429 East Twenty-first street, a young man who disturbed the peace of Mrs. Charles White, 2461 East Twenty-first street, as she was retiring last evening. According to Mrs White's story to the police, she was preparing to go to bed when she heard a sound at the window. The shade had not been pulled to the edge of the window ledge and Mrs. White screamed with fright when she saw a portion of a man's face pressed against the glass of the lower part of the window pane.

A. H. Steves, a neighbor living at 2006 Twenty-fourth avenue, got his revolver and went to Mrs. White's assistance. She had hastily thrown a kimono about her shoulders and told Steves of the trouble. He found a man lurking in the yard and gave chase, but the fellow escaped. Sergeant Ahern and a posse composed of Bossick and Hughes searched the neighborhood and finally arrested Smart. When captured the youth was in a greatly agitated condition. He has been placed in the city prison, but as yet no formal charge has been lodged against him.

SAN DOMINGO IS SCENE OF BATTLE

Uprising Results From Change in Governors of the Province.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The latest Dominican uprising, fanned into flame by General Arias' resentment of the attempt by President Bordas to make a change of governors in Santiago province, has resulted in some sharp fighting in Santiago City, according to a belated report received today from Commander Bostwick of the American gunboat Nashville at Puerto Plata.

Under date of April 4, Commander Bostwick reported that "insurrectionists still held the castle and part of the town. The governor of Puerto Plata has sent all aid possible and has requested further aid from San Domingo be sent. Telegraph has been cut in interior no direct communication with San Domingo."

BEGIN HOSTILITIES.

Commander Pierce, on the gunboat Wheeling, in Southern Dominican waters, reporting under date of April 4, said:

"Hostilities began at Laveca and Santiago March 30. Arias states that he does not want war, but he objects to change of provincial governor and will sacrifice himself rather than accept ridicule. President Bordas, through Minister Loyston, has notified the governors that Bordas is, under the constitution, president until another is elected."

Bring New Indictments Against Siegel Heads

NEW YORK, April 7.—Fourteen new indictments against Henry Siegel and Frank E. Vogel, heads of the bankrupt Siegel enterprises, were handed in today in connection with the failure of the Henry Siegel & Co., private bank and the bankrupt department stores which had been controlled by them. The indictments charge grand larceny and violations of the state banking laws. The grand larceny charges deal with $625,000 alleged to have been obtained by means of false statements. Those for violations of the state banking law charge that the men accepted deposits for the bank after insolvency.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MAY INCLUDE SUBURBANITES

Albany business men will be eligible to full resident membership in the Oakland Commercial Club, if the amendment, to be voted on tomorrow at the noon members' meeting, carries and is placed in the club institution. This amendment, asked by several members so that Albany may be on a par with Piedmont, Emeryville and the other cities about the bay, will allow resident memberships in the club from all cities skirting the east side of the bay.

The election to decide on the amendment will be held in the grill room following an informal luncheon, which will take place at 12.30 o'clock. A number of informal speeches and reports of officers and committees will be heard. The meeting is one of the regular membership meeting provided for in the club constitution.

"INDUSTRIAL ZONE" IS FILED IN ORDINANCE

Mayor Frank K. Mott introduced today the "industrial zone" ordinance filed yesterday by the Oakland center of California Civic as Commissioner John Forrest, who has been asked to do so, refused to present the ordinance. It was given its initial reading, and continued indefinitely for a public hearing, when the boundaries of the zones will be discussed. Wilbur Walker of the Merchants' Exchange, requested that he be notified of the hearing.

"NAKED BRAIN," PRESS AGENT, AD MEN'S TALKER

Courtney R. Cooper, otherwise known as "Naked Brain the Press Agent," was the speaker before the Oakland Advertising Association at its luncheon today. Cooper spoke of his work as advance agent for the Sells Floto Circus, his topic being "Ahead of the Big Tent."

Cooper derives his nickname from the fact that he is bald. He is famous as one of the greatest circus press agents in the United States, and spoke on circus advertising. J. A. Arnold also spoke. Fred L. Hall was toastmaster.

J. J. GLASSEN FOUND GUILTY OF ASSAULT

John J. Glassen, who was charged with an attempt to rob C. M. Peck on College avenue in Berkeley on March 12, was found guilty of assault by a jury in Superior Judge Wells' court last evening after deliberating 5 hours. Glassen was represented by Attorney Henry E. Skinner, who pleaded that there was no real

WESTERN PACIFIC GETS MORE TIME

Council Grants Extension in View of Proposed Syndicate Deal.

Extension of time for sixty days was granted the Western Pacific Company in the matter of the franchise that has been before the council for several months. The extension was granted to give time for further negotiations pending between the Western Pacific Company, the Josephs syndicate of London and local agents of the London concern, as it is desired to make a deal by which a subfranchise right may be given the Josephs concern for the construction of wharves and docks under the rights to be granted the Western Pacific. The extension of time was granted at the request of C. E. Snook, counsel for the railroad, and O. E. Hotle, chairman of the harbor committee of the Commercial Club.

The time extension was granted on exactly the same terms as the original 90-day extension provided and will terminate the result of the negotiations with the Josephs syndicate, as it is anticipated that Josephs, an English capitalist who has been considering financing the harbor project under a sub-lease from the Western Pacific Company, will be in Oakland by that time.

PROMISE BIG EXPENDITURE.

Snook and Hotle said that the Josephs Syndicate of London, which is said to intend to expend $2,000,000 in the improve- [illegible] responded to cables sent by Mott and the railroad. Hotle said that the committee [illegible] this syndicate intended to take before proceeding with the hearing. The Commercial Club, the Chamber of Commerce, the Merchants' Exchange and other commercial organizations favor, in the main, the franchise wanted by the Western Pacific, but are not agreed as to certain of the details which will be discussed at the postponed hearing.

The Western Pacific Company will advance the arguments that the company has been unable to secure the necessary funds to make the deep water terminal improvements and requires additional time to do the work. The improvements consist of the erection of a dock, bulkheading and equipment necessary to handling freight and passenger traffic to and from deep water vessels. The railroad was also required to dredge a fairway in front of the dock and between the dock and the present mole. This work has not yet been done.

Boy Shot at Folsom In Serious Condition

SACRAMENTO, April 7.—Percy Barnes, the young Florin boy who was wounded by the guards when he attempted to break out of Folsom prison Saturday afternoon, is not yet out of danger. Barnes carries an ugly wound through the lungs and the crisis in his condition has not yet come.

Daily, since the fatal break his parents at Florin have called up the prison by telephone to learn the condition of their boy, whom they had not seen nor heard of for two years, until they read of his participation in the break.

The eight remaining incorrigibles who participated in the break are still doing "solitary" on bread and water in the cells they tried to break from.

Auto Struck; Driver Has Narrow Escape

J. Mathison, driver for the Moore-Watson Dry goods Company of San Francisco, narrowly escaped death today when the auto delivery wagon he was driving was struck by a College avenue car at Thirteenth and Franklin streets and overturned, imprisoning him beneath it. By good luck Mathison was protected in his fall and was not caught by any part of the machine.

A crowd gathered and with the aid of the street car crew, succeeded in lifting the automobile and releasing the imprisoned driver.

The automobile was damaged but Mathison received only slight bruises. C. L. Fisher was the motorman of the car.

GRAND JURY PROBING DEATH OF MRS. SIMPSON

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 7.—Additional facts regarding the death of Mrs. Laura Wilder Simpson, wife of Lawrence Simpson, wealthy young planter, were to be placed before the special grand jury today by Prosecutor John R. Allen. Mrs. Simpson was found in her home several weeks ago by her husband, with a bullet hole in her temple. It was announced she had been handling a revolver and met her death accidentally. A coroner's jury rendered the peculiar verdict that the woman's death "was not accidental." The husband asked for a grand jury investigation.

'MERRITT HAD A LITTLE LAMB,' ETC.

It Followed Him to Jail One Day, Which Was--" But Read the Story.

Mary and her justly famous little lamb had nothing on Dr. C. Howard Merritt, prominent dentist with offices in the Union Savings Bank building. In place of a lamb, which could not be one-half so persistent, Dr. Merritt had one of his employes follow him. The employe Alfred H. Bowers—was like a shadow. So faithful was he as a follower that he followed his employer into jail.

Bowers claims that he is the one who is really abused. He came to Oakland yesterday from Inyo county to collect $75 which he claims Dr. Merritt owes him on a note a year old. He was refused the coin.

"If you don't give me that money I'll follow you every place you go," declared Bowers. Dr. Merritt snorted and shooed him out of his offices. When he left to go to lunch an hour later Bowers fell into step behind him and followed him faithfully. Dr. Merritt, in desperation, jumped a car. Bowers caught the same car.

[illegible] sat at a table behind him. When Dr. Merritt returned to his office his shadow was just behind him. After working all afternoon Dr. Merritt went to his home at 2647 Telegraph avenue. Bowers sat on the front porch until he had finished his dinner. The dentist went to the theater last night. Bowers waited for him in the lobby.

When Dr. Merritt opened his front door this morning he stumbled over Bowers, who had spent a sleepless night on the [illegible] hit upon the happy expedient of walking into the central police station, knowing [illegible] Bowers would follow him wherever he went.

Bowers is charged with disturbing the peace and will be arraigned tomorrow morning.

Auto Hit by Train; Occupants Unhurt

ALAMEDA, April 7.—While crossing Lincoln avenue at Park street about 1 o'clock this morning an automobile owned by T. L. Rogers, whose offices are in the First National Bank building in Oakland, was struck by an eastbound Southern Pacific electric train and badly smashed. The occupants of the machine escaped unhurt. That they were not injured seriously is considered miraculous as the machine was struck heavily.

The driver of the machine was a stranger in this city and did not know of the crossings. The last train about the hour runs at considerable speed, and the autoist ran across the track before he was aware of the approach of the car.

The rear of the auto was struck and crushed in by the impact. The occupants remained in the machine and were not hurt.

Berkeley Girl Files Suit Contesting Will

Miss Edith Burne of Berkeley today filed suit through her counsel in New York, according to word received here, contesting the will of Phineas C. Kingsland, her uncle, who died February 8. The will cut her out entirely, for reasons, according to the document, "that I do not care to state here."

Kingsland also cut off his son, Channing Kingsland, for an "indiscreet marriage." The Kingsland estate is valued at $750,000. It all went to friends and relatives by the will not being contested.

Destroyer Nearly Wrecked by Explosion

NORFOLK, Va., April 7.—Filling fast, her side plates blown out, forward deck torn up, and funnels wrenched out of place, the destroyer Aylwin was towed to the navy yard here today and docked, bringing the [illegible] killed and two were seriously injured in an explosion off Diamond Shoals Lightship. Naval officers estimated the Aylwin could have kept afloat not more than five hours longer.

CENTRAL W. C. T. U. HOLDS MEETING

Oakland Central Woman's Christian Temperance Union met yesterday afternoon in a meeting of unusual interest. Mrs. C. J. S. Jump presiding. Mrs. S. J. Kennedy gave a Bible lesson, subject "Passion Week." Dr. Minora Kibbe spoke on "Keeping in Touch." She said: "That women citizens should keep in touch with the literature of the organization, with the newspapers and libraries. Attend the meetings of public officers, board of supervisors and others. Become informed on public questions, so as to be intelligent voters. Interchange of ideas in women's clubs tend to raise ideals." A discussion of interest followed. Mrs. M. McMath reported the sudden death by accident of a faithful member, Mrs. H. V. Shorkley. A board of supervisors of the membership was appointed viz: Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. S. J. Kennedy, Mrs. M. Casselton, Mrs. L. Jesmer. Committee of arrangements for the Maynard lectures, Mrs. L. Jesmer, Mrs. Parker, Miss Elsie McMath. Mrs. Reynolds was appointed vice-president from the Advent church. Mrs. S. J. Kennedy from the Fourth Congregational.

GETS $3.50 ON OLD JAIL AND BAIL GAME

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7. — "Your husband is in jail, and wants you to give me $5 to bail him out," said a stranger to Mrs. P. White of 477 Tehama street, this morning. Mrs. White was horrified, such an experience never before having befallen her spouse, but she hastily secured $3.50, all she happened to have in the house, and gave it to the caller, who promised to make up the difference. The man had hardly turned the corner when White, who is employed at night, came home for his breakfast. He was dismayed at what had happened and im- [illegible]

HALF HOUR IN CANADA CAUSE OF DEPORTATION

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Half an hour spent in Canada will cost Samuel Lewis, a Russian, his lifetime in the United States. The Supreme Court so held yesterday in a decision which may affect many immigration cases.

Lewis came to the United States in 1904, and after living in New York for a while, went to Detroit. On November 17, 1910, he crossed to Windsor, Ontario, returning with a woman, whom it was charged he brought for illegal purposes. He contended his return to the United States was not an "entry" within the meaning of the law. The Supreme Court held it was, and he will be deported.

COLORED BAPTISTS MAY CONVENE HERE

Rev. William Beckham, D. D., of Nashville, Tenn., field secretary National Baptist convention, visited the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. Dr. Beckham is one of the leaders of the Colored Baptists, who are numerically the largest religious denomination in the South. He has been looking over the field with regard to the proposition of holding the national convention in 1915 in Oakland.

It is estimated that there are between four and five thousand colored people in Oakland and they are looking forward to the entertainment of their friends from the South in 1915. If the convention is held here it is expected that there will be from fifteen to twenty thousand visitors.

A feature of the convention will be a great chorus of 500 voices.

Mrs. Bruguiere's U. C. Suit.

Suit has been filed in the newspapers by attorneys for Mrs. Josephine Bruguiere, Newport society matron traveling in Europe and reported in financial difficulties owing to attachments for debts levied on her somewhat palatial home at the famous resort, to recover property deeded to the University of California by the late Mrs. Jane Sather, plaintiff's stepmother.

Under the terms of Mrs. Sather's will, this property, located at Fourteenth street and Broadway, and transferred fourteen years ago, was to be sold by the university authorities and the proceeds of the sale used in endowing a chair of history. Originally valued at $60,000, it has increased until now it is worth $700,000, and the university naturally desires to turn it into money for the use specified.

Mrs. Sather purchased the land from money derived from the sale of a part of the estate of her late husband. She transferred it in good faith, and not until this late day, when its value has increased more than tenfold, has there been any intention manifested of violating the intentions of the testator.

the youth of California, of assisting the young men and women of the state to fit themselves for the future, but if Mrs. Bruguiere files the action and should win, the proceeds will no doubt be used in repairing a damaged fortune and in the high life of a resort where education is at a discount.

Should she win, the effect of the judgment would be little short of a calamity. Not only would the university be deprived of this money which, in the circumstances, rightly belongs to property of the institution, but heirs of others who have donated might be tempted by stress of circumstances to attempt similar action, which would mean endless litigation for this great college.

President Benjamin Ide Wheeler and his associates have made of the university a great educational enterprise, and to be hampered by an act such as is proposed—in the papers—by Mrs. Bruguiere would be a brake on the wheels of progress.

Candidly speaking, we do not think Mrs. Bruguiere will win if she does transfer her papers from the front page to the clerk's office. The principle of justice appears to lack the necessary evidence.

In the light of a recent happening it is apparent that Jonah, or any of the ancient prophets for that matter, would fare unhappily in Richmond. A forecaster of future events who declared that the town would be rocked by a temblor, swept by a tidal wave and otherwise disturbed on a certain date in fulfillment of ancient prediction was promptly arrested and sent to the hospital for the insane.

Why Not the Home Product?

One of the railroads traversing Mississippi announces that 500,000,000 pounds of cotton seed will be exported from that state to Denmark to be fed to Danish cows, in exchange for which Danish butter will be shipped back to Mississippi for consumption by the cotton growers.

While this means an increase in exports and imports for both countries, it is a positive loss to Mississippi. Why not feed the cotton seed to Mississippi cows and use home-made butter, thus avoiding the transportation charges both ways, which must be added to the cost of the butter?

But while we are finding the mote in the eye of our neighbor, let us not omit any defect in our own economic vision. This state produces approximately 7,000,000 bushels of oats, 2,000,000 bushels of corn and 12,000,000 bushels of wheat annually, yet it imports immense quantities of manufactured breakfast foods at a cost of hundreds of thousands of dollars. The prices are higher here than east of the Rocky range, because a higher freight rate must be added and the ultimate consumer pays the freight. It is a matter of mistaken economy to refrain from establishing factories for the preparation of these foods on the coast. They would make money, keep money at home and by affording an enlarged market for home-grown grain would add to the income of the farmer and the development of grain raising.

The idea is worthy of more extended thought than has been given it in the past.

Comes now a dentist, who shall be anonymous for obvious reasons, with the suggestion that the ladies dye their teeth to match their green wigs and gowns. Sure, why not? Do not stop at that either. Keep up the good work and let the dear things paint their faces to match or in contrast. If we are going to have freak make-ups why not go the limit?

Kiyoura's Task in Japan.

Viscount Kiyoura, one of the Elder Statesmen of Japan, in assuming the premiership is confronted with many problems, including the naval scandal. Japan having progressed to an extent that she has scandals in government like other civilized nations.

But the new premier faces other questions of more critical character. Settlement of differences between Japan and the United States, which are looked upon in our own country as academic are not so regarded across the Pacific. Negotiations with the State Department will call for careful observation by the American people, especially those of the Pacific Coast, the most interested part of the population.

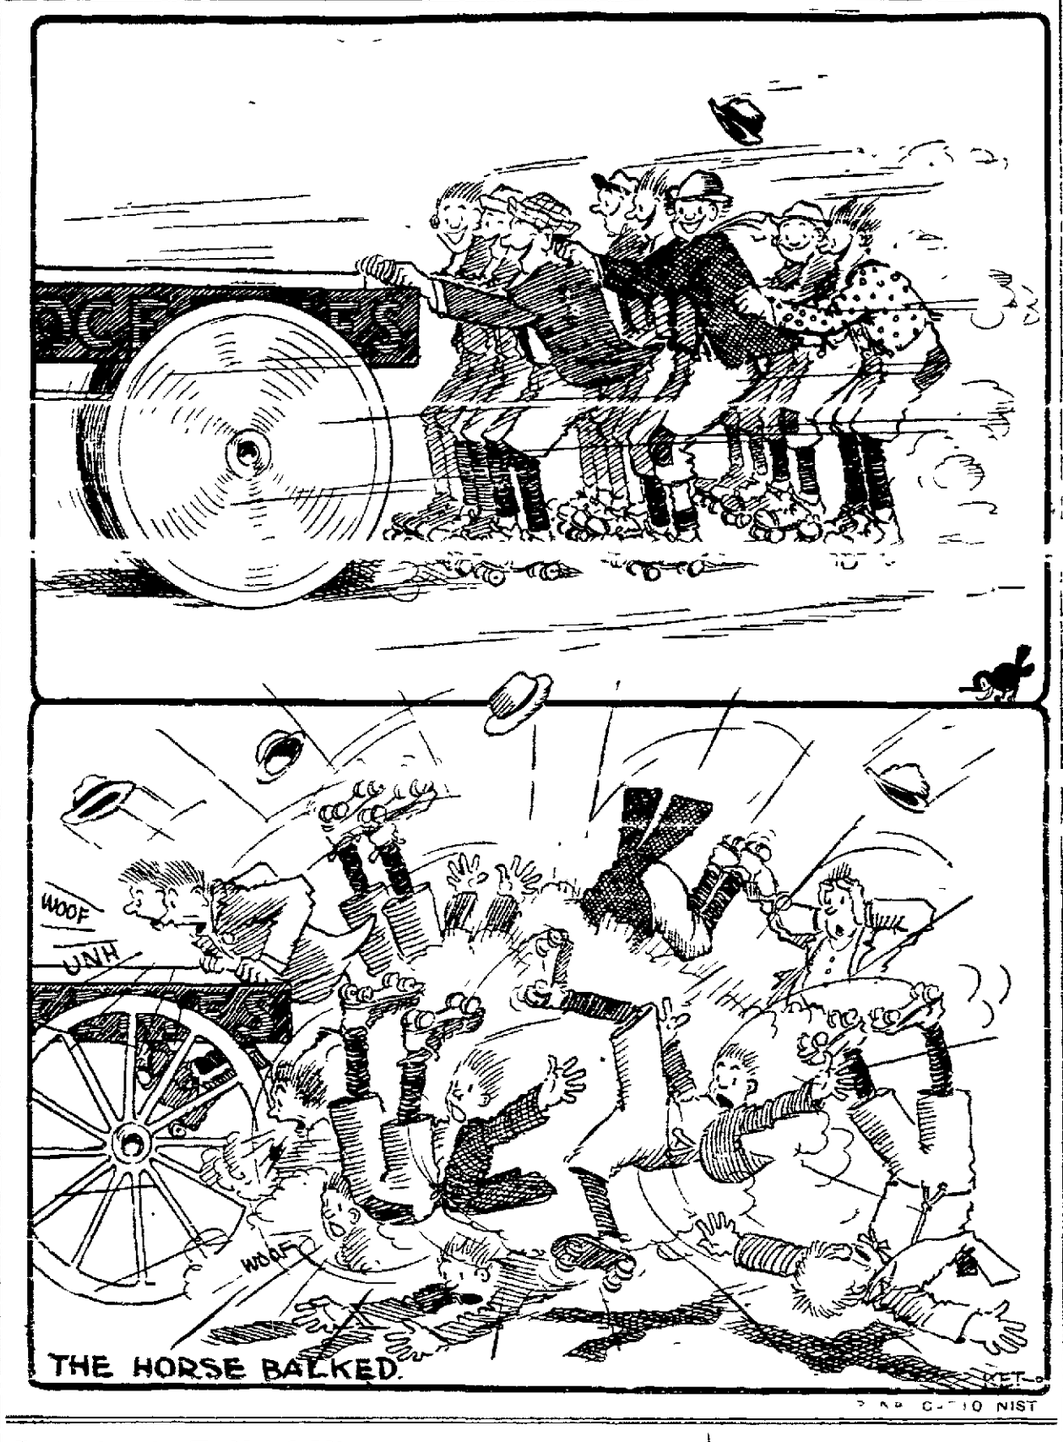
The economic phase also has its importance, for hard times and limited resources have left their mark upon Japan and a great portion of her people live on the hand to mouth principle. The disappearance of the feudal system affords the demagogues opportunity to comment on all conditions with little restriction and consequent agitation preceding too often a lack of confidence.

However, the new premier is a man of ability and integrity and regarded with esteem and confidence throughout the nation. It may be confidently predicted that his assumption of authority will aid materially in the decision of the grave questions.

Commenting upon the advent of April the Colusa Herald says "the cherry blooms will calmly burst upon the view." That may be the case in Colusa, but down in this section we expect a perfect riot of blossoms.

"Germs multiply fast in warm water," announces the Mail of Woodland. This being true the title of "The Great Unwashed" seems a misnomer of exaggeration.

BUT JUST THEN—



Aviation's Toll of Victims.

For the first three months of 1913, thirty-eight aviators lost their lives in all parts of the world, France leading with ten, followed by Germany with eight, Great Britain seven, the United States five, Turkey three, and Chile, Spain, Argentine, Switzerland and Italy one each. Since Lieut. Thomas H. Selfridge, the first man killed as the result of an experiment with heavier-than-air flying machines, met his end at Fort Myer September 17, 1906, it is related that 462 aviators have been killed.

While this total is appalling it is only an incident in the march of science. New discoveries, and many old ones, claim their victims. Physicians seeking the eradication of epidemic diseases have died martyrs in an effort to save others and few great works are carried on without loss of life. Great constructive enterprises are paid for in part by blood; the sinking of the caisson for the mighty piers of a wonderful bridge is marked with deaths, railroad tunnels through the hills usually leave a sad record, disasters in mines have filled the hearts and homes of thousands of widows and orphans with misery and it is related that for each story in the mighty sky scrapers of the cities one life is demanded.

We are living at a fast pace in a fast age and all the things mentioned are but accessories to speed. For that which the world demands it must pay the price, no matter how many regrets may be caused in wiping out the obligation.

Mme. Sarah Bernhardt announces another farewell tour of the United States. Let's see, what will be the number of this one?

Without desiring to be considered as giving advice we suggest that if the Oaks will defeat the Senators at Sacramento today it will be a change in the monotony of the last few games.

A Kansas paper makes the following announcement: "We shall see calves higher this spring." Goodness gracious! To what is the man alluding, veal or fashions?

Canvassing for employes among the jobless army infesting Oroville Deputy Sheriff Milton Webber proffered work at $1.25 a day and board with farmers who wanted help in plowing. The answer was: "We can make more than that bumming." No wonder the army of "General" Kelly has found such a lack of sympathy in the north.

Secretary Bryan's brother, Charles W., wants to be governor of Nebraska. With Bryan at the head of the cabinet, Associate Editor Metcalfe of the Commoner enjoying a $14,000 a year situation in the canal zone and Brother Charles state executive at least one newspaper staff could be considered well provided for.

Carranza's general-in-chief has ordered about 600 Spanish dons, who have lost their fortunes during the numerous rebellions, deported to the United States. Villa does not appear to have any use for a man who lacks money.

With splendid, sunny days following a warm, generous rain it is small wonder that the face of California and its agricultural, horticultural and viticultural inhabitants are wreathed in the smiles that do not come off.

Walnut Creek has a rancher who has improved his lettuce plants to an extent that heads grow to a diameter of seventeen inches, larger than the average cabbage, firm and crisp as the choicest varieties now marketed. The salad days of California have much of promise as a result.

Twenty Years Ago Today

The Noblett-Barnett nuptials were celebrated in the Church of the Immaculate Conception. The bride was Nellie C. Barnett, daughter of officer John Barnett and the groom was Edward B. TO SAVE EYES

Is the Object of This Free Prescription---Try It If Your Eyes Give You Trouble.

Thousands of people suffer from eye troubles, believe they do not know what to do. They know some good home remedy for every other minor ailment, but none for their eye troubles. They neglect their eyes because the trouble is not sufficient to drive them to an eye specialist who charges them a heavy fee. As a last resort they go to an optician or to the five and ten-cent store and oftentimes get glasses they do not need, or which after being used two or three months, do their eyes more injury than good. Here is a simple prescription that every one should use:

5 grains Optona (1 Tablet)
2 ounces Water.

Use three or four times a day to bathe the eyes. This prescription keeps the eyes clean and quickly overcomes inflammation and irritation. Weak, watery, worn, strained eyes, granular lids and other similar troubles are greatly benefited and oftentimes cured by its use. Many who wear glasses have discarded them after using it for a few weeks. It is good for the eyes and will not injure the most delicate eye. The Owl Drug Co., or any other druggist can fill this prescription promptly. Try it and know for once what real eye comfort is.

Service Corporations Win Victory.

The United States Supreme Court, deciding a California case, has invalidated an amendment to the state constitution. The action was carried up from Los Angeles, where the Economic Gas Company resisted an order prohibiting extensions of mains without first securing an additional franchise. The city of Los Angeles maintained that the corporation was limited to the use of streets covered by a franchise granted previous to 1911, when the amendment became effective. The company claimed if it could not make extensions it would lose money and would be compelled to go out of business.

In announcing the judgment the court stated that the rights of the gas concern were co-extensive with the duties; that its duty was to serve all the people, hence it had the right to serve all.

While only a syllabus of the decision has been sent over the wires, it is apparent that water and light companies doing business in 1911 have the right to make extensions within corporate limits covered by their franchises at the time the amendment designed to prevent private concerns from expanding was adopted, and that the movement designed by municipalities to thwart expansion by such corporations has been defeated.

The decision appears to be sweeping in detail and so plain as to admit of no misconstruction.

Underwood has defeated Hobson for the Alabama Senatorship, and predictions of war with Japan will still be confined to the lower house of Congress.

FROHMAN IS NOW MOVIE KING

Immense Studio Being Built, and Successes Will Be Produced.

(By MYRON C. FAGAN.)

NEW YORK, April 7.—Broadway is still chattering about Charles Frohman's plunge into the motion picture industry. Though it has been rumored for weeks that the Frohman successes were to be released for the screen, not even the wise ones on Broadway dared predict that the austere Frohman himself would enter the "small change" game. All doubts have been set at rest by authoritive information from the Frohman offices to the effect that Mr. Frohman has formed an alliance with Adolph Zukor of the Famous Players Film Company.

Through this alliance the Famous Players Company secures for film purposes all the famous Frohman successes.

Work has been started on an immense new studio in Long Island City. This studio will be devoted exclusively to the Frohman productions, and a special subsidiary company is being organized by the Famous Players Company to handle these films, which will be controlled by the parent company continuing its present methods of distribution. In addition to the new studio at Long Island City, and the present studios in this city and Los Angeles, the Famous Players Company will send Hugh Ford, recently engaged, to London, where another studio is to be erected. The various European successors will then be produced in England and on the continent.

BIG DEAL CONSUMMATED.

The passing of the Sullivan and Considine circuit to Marcus Loew and Aaron Jones of Chicago occurred in Kansas City this week. The deal was consummated for $6,000,000. The contract for tor the transfer was agreed to after a conference of several days between the principals of the two intedests.

The new purchase will give the Loew and Jones syndicate control of more than two hundred popular priced vaudeville playhouses, the most extensive chain of vaudeville theaters controlled by a single organization.

This deal should greatly affect the film industry, as both Loew and Jones have always booked many feature films. This policy will be applied to their new holdings, thus creating an added market for feature photo-plays.

Adolph Zukor of the Famous Players Film Company, a stockholder in the original Loew organization, has not taken a financial interest in the amalgamation of the Loew and Sullivan-Considine interests.

BILLIE BURKE PAJAMA GIRL.

Despite poor plays, despite poor attendance, in fact, despite everything in general, theatrical Broadway seems to be inclined to optimism. Despite the fact that Lent generally makes a dent in theatrical activity productions are being made as fast as actors can be rehearsed in new plays. Bad plays, good plays—but mostly bad plays are being hurried helter kelter on the stage, and as a result your professional playgoer has been having a busy week of it.

At the Lyceum Billie Burke is taking a cropper in a silly mess called "Jerry." Seeing Miss Burke in pink pajamas makes it rather hard to say unkind things of this so-called comedy. Any man who is not susceptible to the reductiveness of the adorable Billie and the pink pajamas is prima facie a churl, a wearer of red neckties, a disturber of happy thoughts, and probably a Prohibitionist into the bargain. Therefore I hasten with the assurance that I am more than merely susceptible to the charms of Miss Burke. Indeed, clad in those hymenical pajamas Billie could win the heart of an Anthony Comstock. But otherwise the evening is barren of joy. For "Jerry" is a bad play in every sense of the word. It's as bad a play as "Help Wanted," and that is saying a whole lot.

As Jerry Miss Burke is supposed to be a fascinating tomboy who sets her cap for a man considerably older than herself who has been engaged for a generation to her Aunt Joan. Her efforts to win the man, the difficulties she gets herself into and her final success make three acts of drivel.

Miss Burke worked hard—no one could truthfully deny that; but something was wrong. It did not seem to be the same Miss Burke who was seen earlier in the season in "The Land of Promise." She seemed to throw restraint to the winds and over-acted and over-reached herself as she has never done before.

With Miss Burke in this sorry spectacle are Miss Gladys Hanson, Allan Pollock, Miss Alice John and Lumsden Hare. They all struggle manfully or womanfully, as the case may be with but little success.

PETROVA A LEGITIMATE STAR.

Olga Petrova's debut into legitimate drama was made under auspicious circumstances. She appeared at the Booth Theater in "Panthea." This play is the work of Monckton Hoffe, whose earlier dramatic effort, "The Little Damozel," dealing with Bohemian life in London and elsewhere, met with early demise here several seasons ago.

While Panthea is not a great play it is crowded with incidents of wide diversity, not always pleasing nor plausible, but always exciting. The play opens in the home of the Mordaunts, an old English household on the coast of Northumberland. Hither for shelter comes Panthea, a political refugee from Russia, who has just been rescued from a wreck in the stormy waters of the North Sea. Here she meets Gerard Mordaunt, a younger son, when it becomes necessary for her to continue her flight she and Gerard, mutual in their love, leave together.

Two years later finds them domiciled in Paris. They are quite happy, but Gerard is sinking under the strain of non-success. He has written an opera, but he has neither the money for the influence that leads to a production. Panthea's acquaintance with Baron Duis-tort enables her to help Gerard to have his opera produced, but at a sorry cost to herself. Her lover learns what has happened and casts her off. It is then that she turns upon the baron and kills him.

In the last act the scene is once more Gerard's apartment. Gerard has learned that it was his welfare that prompted Panthea's sacrifice. There is reconciliation then, and the two meet death together.

Olga Petrova, who has been a headliner in vaudeville, where she was wont to imitate cats and birds, stepped into emotional drama as the lady of many adventures, from whose name the play derives its title.

George Nash occupies the role of the contemptible person who wants the love of Panthea, and Morton Selten is seen as the Panthea's youthful lover.

Why Endure Foot Torture? Here Is Easy, Positive Cure

The following is absolutely the surest and quickest cure known to science for all foot ailments: "Dissolve two tablespoonfuls of Calocide compound in a basin of warm water. Soak the feet in this for fully fifteen minutes, gently rubbing the sore parts." The effect is really wonderful. All soreness goes instantly, and the feet feel delightful. Corns and callouses can be peeled right off. It gives immediate relief for sore bunions, sweaty, smelly and aching feet. A twenty-five cent box of Calocide is said to be sufficient to cure the worst feet. It works through the pores and removes the cause of the trouble. Don't waste time on uncertain remedies. Any druggist has Calocide compound in stock or he can get it in a few hours from his wholesale house. Prepared only by Medical Lab, Ohio.

EXPECT DEBATE ON WATER PLAN

Acquirement of Local Supply to Come Before Civic Body.

The plan by which it is proposed that the city of Oakland shall secure an option to purchase the holdings of the Peoples Water company, need for a local water supply, recently announced by the executive committee of the Civic Association, will come before the membership of that body Thursday night when, at their membership meeting the entire report will be taken up. A spirited argument is expected over the plan, and the project will be gone into from all its angles.

The executive committee report was placed before the water supply committee last week before it was gone to the membership of the association, this according to C. F. Gorman being done to gain time. The water supply committee laid over the matter for a month, in order to have a report back from the association membership.

SEASON NEARING FOR DECIDUOUS FRUITS

SACRAMENTO, April 7. — The official opening of the deciduous fruit season is less than two weeks away, is the general opinion among local fruit shippers. The season officially is opened with the shipment of the first box of cherries to Eastern markets.

It is believed the first box of cherries will not make its appearance before April 15th and not by that time unless the clouds give way to more direct sunshine. The first box was shipped last year on April 22d, but this is an earlier season than last.

CIVIC CENTER TO POSTPONE MEET

Joint Gathering Will Be Held on Saturday, Owing to Good Friday.

On account of the regular meeting day of the Oakland Civic Center falling on Good Friday, it has been decided to postpone the meeting until the following day, Saturday, April 11, at 3 p. m., when it will be held in the ballroom of the Hotel Oakland, and will be as usual open to the public. A short business meeting for members will convene at 2:30 p. m.

The Oakland Teachers' Club and the School Women's Club will join with the Oakland center in the presentation of the program which will be a departure from the usual civic themes presented by the center and will treat of recreation

Through the activities of Miss Mabel Moore and Miss Annie Florence Brown, the center has been able to secure Archibald D. Flower as speaker of the day. Mr. Flower is president of the board of directors of the Shakespeare Memorial Theater of England, and is on the coast with the Stratford-on-Avon players, who are soon to appear at a local theater.

In the opinion of Mr. Flower, California has a splendid destiny in out-of-door drama and festivals and he is delighted at the public interest in the recreation movement. His subject on Saturday will be "Open Air Dramatics and Pageants."

ROUTINE STREET WORK DIRECTED BY COUNCIL

Routine street matters were transacted by the city council today as follows:

Directing the superintendent of streets to extend the time 60 days for E. H. Sundberg to complete the paving, curbing, guttering, etc., of Atwell avenue between Lynde street and Boma street.

Adopting plans and specifications for the improvement of Eightieth avenue between East Fourteenth street and the Western Pacific Railroad and recommending passage of resolution of intention for same.

Directing the city engineer to prepare resolution of intention for opening and extending Broadway southwesterly to Awarding contract to Don Lee for furnishing one five-passenger automobile for the health department of the city of Oakland.

Fixing the salary of H. J. Sams, draftsman in the department of streets.

TO FORM UTAH CLUB FOR SOCIAL PURPOSES

There will be a meeting of all former residents of Utah on Thursday evening, April 9, in the West Trust building, for the purpose of organizing a "Utah Club." Following permanent organization, officers will be elected. The aims of the club will be to promote social friendship and renew acquaintances of former neighbors and friends. It is announced that nothing of a religious or political nature will enter into the organization and it will be purely a social affair. Dr. P. P. Shearer is temporary chairman.

Society

—Fraser Photo.

Society is going to be an inspired source for hostesses. So many unconventional parties. Possibly an influence of Lent. No one is supposed to give the usual formal affairs. Anyway entertainments are delightfully different.

There have been mid-Victorian parties, old-fashioned country dances, and on the 16th the Charles Hutchinsons are giving a calico ball.

Over at the St. Francis Mrs. Rosenfeld recently gave a dinner dance that was unique. It was a sort of Bohemian cabaret effect with dancing between courses and entertainers between dances. There were eighty guests in the white and gold room and dinner lasted from 7 o'clock until 1. Very much of an improvement, everyone agreed, on a dinner en bloc, so to speak, with dancing afterward.

At Mrs. Harry Wright's dance at the Claremont Country Club the other night there were a lot of surprises. For decoration a huge Japanese umbrella almost covered the ceiling. From it hung toy balloons, small aeroplanes and butterfly kites. As soon as dancing began beneath them the stir of the air set balloons, kites and aeroplanes flying and they lighted and whirled in a most diverting merry-go-round.

Just before supper the men vanished, presently to reappear as a procession of chefs and waiters led by the host. They wore white coats and caps and proceeded to serve supper, balancing plates with professional skill. The bon bons held paper hats for the women and there were gorgeous paper corsage flowers to add to the effect of the party, that was altogether gay and original.

Another Country Club dance planned for later in the spring will be an "outing party," with the men in white flannels and maids and matrons in white duck skirts and middy blouses. And there was the rather splendid purple and gold card party at the Hotel Oakland last week, with jeweled prizes repeating the colors in amber and amethyst. Truly a season of new ideas.

LUNCHEON AT BURLINGAME.

Miss Constance Davis, whose marriage to Arthur Ford will take place on the 14th, motored down to Burlingame Sunday where she shared honors with Miss Margaret Belden, the fiancee of Sydney Ford, at a luncheon given by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ford. Later the party enjoyed the polo games on the field of the San Mateo Club.

On Friday of last week Mrs. C. O. G. Miller gave a luncheon in San Francisco for the two attractive brides-elect. Among the guests on this occasion were Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Alfred Ford, Mrs. Christian Miller, Mrs. Du Val Moore, Miss Agnes Tillman and Miss Ernestine McNear.

MISS PHELPS ENTERTAINS.

In honor of Miss Lytie Ament, a charming Southern girl who is visiting Oakland from her home in Alabama, Miss Lillian Phelps was hostess at a tea this afternoon at her home in Elmwood Park. Miss Ament is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Hugh Beverly Hill of Oakland, who shared honors at the tea. About 100 guests were entertained and assisting the hostess were her mother, Mrs. Frank Phelps, Miss Ethel Hill, Miss Justine Rennie, Miss Kathryn Watson, Miss Ethel Watson and Miss Edith Fish.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

One of the prettiest of children's parties was given yesterday by Mrs. Harry Bishop, in honor of the first birthday anniversary of her little daughter, Beverly Elizabeth Bishop. There were sixteen small guests, most of them accompanied by their mothers, and they were a very interesting and eminently well behaved company of charming youngsters, few of whom were older than the small guest of honor. Refreshments were served at a table laden with fascinating Easter favors. There were fluffy rabbits and chickens and bright colored Easter eggs, and a Jack Horner pie filled with toys. During the afternoon Mrs. Bishop had arranged for a photographer to take pictures of the party, that will be interesting souvenirs of the affair.

The guests were Miss Margery Austin, Miss Marion Austin, Miss Marie Maison, Miss Margaret Lea, Miss Jane Hall, Miss Margaret Miller, Miss Dorothy White, Miss Ruth Satterwhite, Miss June Cortelyou, Miss Clarice Elizabeth Jackson, Wadsworth White, Dalton Bishop, Phil Heuer, Tommy Wilkinson and John Wilkinson.

Among the other guests were Mrs. Norman Miller, Mrs. Leon Maison, Mrs. Albert Wilkinson, Mrs. Phil Heuer, Mrs. Satterwhite, Mrs. Runyon, Mrs. Francis Merriman Thomas, Mrs. H. P. Brown, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, Mrs. F. E. Jackson, Miss Amy Ellis Jackson, Miss Zellie Gloor and Elsie, Walter and Lester Bishop.

MRS. FARNUM A HOSTESS.

Mrs. Frederick Farnum was hostess at a tea for Miss Luliette Mauvais this afternoon that proved a surprise to the popular guest of honor, who was "showered" with two dozen dainty handkerchiefs by those invited to meet her. The guests were members of a card club that has met for two or three seasons, and several other intimate friends of the hostess and

RETURN FROM SOUTH.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith Crowder have returned from Southern California, where they spent several weeks at Coronado and the other resorts. They were among those who entertained guests at the Claremont Country Club dance last Saturday.

EASTER WEDDING.

One of the important weddings of Easter week will be that of Miss Mildred Boyne and Charles Kutz on the 15th. It will be maid of honor and another sister, Mrs. Oscar Comper of San Francisco, will be matron of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Mildred Jones and Miss Nina Boyle. Lloyd English will be best man. Following the ceremony there will be a small reception at the home of the bride's parents, Captain and Mrs. E. F. Taylor.

Among recent affairs given for Miss Boyne was a dinner at which her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Mathews, was hostess on Saturday evening, at her home on Oak street.

BRUGUIERES IN PARIS.

Mrs. Emile A. Bruguiere and her son, Louis Bruguiere, are in Paris, where they are looking for an apartment for the season. They will probably spend the summer on the continent instead of returning to Newport, as has been the custom.

MRS. COWING ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. Joseph Cowing was hostess at an informal tea at her home in Telegraph avenue this afternoon in honor of Miss Kathryn Culver, the fiancee of Rev. Dwight Bradley. The guests were a coterie of Miss Culver's intimate friends and numbered less than a score.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Howard left Saturday for New York and are spending a few days at the Grand Canyon en route East. They will be in New York a month, returning to California over the Canadian Pacific in May.

FOR MISS BARNARD.

Miss Mildred Knox was hostess at a pretty luncheon today in honor of Miss Lillian Barnard, who will be one of the Easter brides. The table decorations were an effective arrangement of spring flowers, and among the guests were Miss Eleanor Barnard, Miss Fannie Whitman, Miss Helen Acker and Miss Mildred Porter, who will be bridesmaids at the Barnard-Haven wedding.

Politeness and Friendship

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

There would be no excuse for an article calling attention to the difference between ordinary politeness and friendship were it not for the fact that many people mistake one for the other, and are led to bursts of confidence or too frequent visits or into conversation which is regarded as presumptuous by the person who is misunderstood.

Politeness is a virtue, and it abounds in all countries. Friendship is a jewel, and is very rare. That is the difference.

With some people politeness is carefully cultivated until it becomes a quality which develops admiration. With others politeness is a mask, to serve some selfish purpose. It might be said right here, though, that true politeness is of a quality which, to the discerning, is easily and quickly distinguished from the false or deceiving brand, which may be termed a veneer. But politeness—that is, a smiling, courteous, gracious and considerate manner—should not, after long [illegible] be regarded as an evidence of friendliness or friendship. It is a presumption to mistake it for such.

People should not, on short acquaintance, take up topics of conversation which are justifiable only between close friends. A cordial manner should not be accepted as an invitation to inquire into or to discuss matters which are not one's concern. It is not the signal that criticism of others in a circle of acquaintance is either invited or desired.

There is an instinct which identifies friendship, whereas politeness and cordiality are qualities which are recognized through the exercise of observance. A polite reception is not an indication that your host expects you to drop in for a chat or a cup of tea every time you happen to be in the neighborhood. Such a privilege is reserved for close friends.

Remember: The person who mistakes politeness and a gracious manner for friendship is prone to suffer by the axiom that familiarity breeds contempt.

NEBRASKA—The rolling exercise will reduce the flesh on the hips. To do it to the best advantage put on a heavy wool union suit and spread a rug on the floor. Stretch out upon it, lying flat on your back with your arms clasped lightly across your breast. Roll completely over three times, rest, taking a long, deep breath; then roll back three times. At first you will find that this exercise will make you slightly dizzy, but as soon as you have that feeling close your eyes and rest a moment. Do this twenty-five times each way, increasing as you strengthen your flabby muscles up to 100 times. Do not become discouraged if you are sore at first; this is an indication that the work is effective.

Society Women Are Called Upon for Fresno Jury Duty

FRESNO, April 7.—Fresno county will impanel its first woman jury today, when six women will be selected to hear evidence in the case of Mrs. M. Surabian against Sarkees Krekorian, charged with battery. Mrs. Surabian alleged Krekorian struck her with a shovel and threw her into an irrigation ditch. The society women subpoenaed are: Mrs. Chester H. Rowell, Mrs. Truman G. Hart, Mrs. Henry Hawson, Mrs. Maude Elliott, Mrs. Sig Wormser, Mrs. Frank McMahon, Mrs. Frank E. Cook, Miss Kate Huffman, Mrs. Regina Donahue, Mrs. W. B. Holland, Mrs. P. M. Conklin, Mrs. George H. Aikens, Mrs. H. H. Alexander and Mrs. Alfred Braveman.

SOCIETY MAID'S ELOPEMENT STOPPED

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—Cupid and motherly love were matched yesterday in a race that ended in partial honors to both, when Miss Geraldine Wickman, the 19-year-old daughter of the late Dr. W. J. With heavy hearts the young couple came back to this city with Mrs. Wickman. Guirola to return to his commercial studies at a local business college, and pretty Miss Wickman to her San Rafael home and the care of her mother.

SACRAMENTO WOMAN HURT IN AUTO WRECK

AUBURN, April 7.—Mrs. E. F. Frazer of Sacramento was seriously hurt when the automobile in which she was riding with her son and daughter-in-law was struck by a light engine of the Southern Pacific Company running west near Applegate a few miles above here.

The engine struck the front of the machine, turning it upside down and pinning those in it to the ground. None of the occupants were hurt except Mrs. Frazer, who was brought to Auburn on the engine and taken thence to her home by automobile.

FINDING HARD WORK FOR GOTHAM WIFE-DESERTERS

(By BETTY MARTIN.)

There are two hundred able-bodied wife deserters in New York city's penitentiary. Poor, lazy specimens of humanity, with the sense of responsibility dormant or only half existent. Miss Davis, Commissioner of Correction, and Mr. F. J. H. Kracke, Bridge Commissioner, joined in a request to Mayor Mitchell that the city of New York establish a plant for making creosoted wood paving blocks for use by the authorities, Miss Davis suggesting furthermore that the men be paid fifty cents a day for their labor, this money decent wages so that families will not be dependent upon charity?

THEY BAR MILITANCY.

The working girls of Blackpool, Ireland, employed at the flax mills, are not in sympathy with the militant suffragettes, but they are well-qualified to meet them on the common ground of might making right. That they are ably fitted to cope bodily, however, was demonstrated in the battle between the two factions—the flax workers, minding their own business, and the militant suffragettes, representing the business of other women as well as their own.

The flax workers beat up their proselyting sisters, one of them being so badly battered as to necessitate hospital aid. At this, even, old-fashioned men hold to the theory that voting—the mere act of depositing a ballot—is too strenuous for women!

CALIFORNIA DAY.

The Alta Vista Club of this city is distinctively literary in its aims, also markedly loyal. Once every year these ladies observe California Day with appropriate exercises. Such a day was celebrated last week and the program, better than any description, shows the extent of club achievement and knowledge concerning this State. This program is given largely as an inspiration to other clubs working along similar lines, and to whom a hint is often enough.

The program:

Music by the Misses Mauser, violin and piano; "California Literature," Mrs. G. Rheinhardt; "California Art," Mrs. Howard Herrington; "California Trees," Mrs. A. A. Earl; reading from Joaquin Miller, Mrs. R. P. M. Greely; "Romantic California," Mrs. Jno. F. Hanlon; "Hetch-Hetchy," Mrs. W. D West; "San Francisco and Oakland in '49," Mrs Emeline North Whitcomb; "Prosperous California," Mrs. Seward Dodge.

California Day was observed at the residence of Mrs. George Armstrong, 112 Bonita avenue, with Mrs. John F. Hanlon of San Francisco occupying the chair.

Interesting in connection with the Alta Mira Club is the circumstance that a majority of the ladies belonging originally lived in Oakland, but now have homes in the sister city across the bay.

Every day some new ground of divorce is heard of. A Chicago woman adds the latest to the category. That the divorce should be granted no sane woman will deny, for this woman's husband is an inventive genius in the cruelty line. To be sure, if he repented and was always willing to purchase new gowns—but that's another story, with an unlikely ending in a divorce court.

TRAGEDY OF THE ICE.

Most heart-rending of all sad events of the current year was the fate of the men on the doomed sealer, the Southern Cross, men in the prime of manhood, rejoicing in brawn and muscles. It is a sad fact that dependent upon those so suddenly taken are one thousand women and children, for whom some provision will have to be made.

Moralizing, at such times, can do little good. Substantial proof of man's humanity is needed. Deeds, not words, should now add lustre to philanthropic fame.

The men who go to "sea in deep ships" are not men of means. They are seldom insured against accident or death. Their women folk usually stay at home, engaged in the duties of mother and housewife.

The head of the family gone, what remains for these women, upon whom are now dependent for their very existence so many little ones?

Now is the time for a helping hand. More than all else is bread and butter needed for the stricken, also some scheme of life insurance within the means of working people should be obligatory upon all assuming the duties of parenthood.

MRS. WILSON'S PAINTINGS PRAISED

NEW YORK, April 7.—Neither one of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson's new landscapes captured a prize in the twenty-third annual exhibition of the Association of Women Painters and Sculptors, which opened yesterday, but both received enough praise to satisfy any artist.

The two pictures have not been given titles. Both are similar in character—meadows that end in rolling hills in the distance, with clumps of foreground trees.

PIONEER AUBURN WOMAN PASSES AWAY

AUBURN, April 7.—Mrs. Emma Ridgeway Hogue, one of the oldest women of Placer county, died here in her 97th year. She was born in Mississippi and came to California in 1864. She has lived in Auburn since 1874. She leaves a son, C. R. Hogue, and a niece, Mrs. J. W. Bass, of this place.

FAIR EVELYN REFORMED? SOCIETY DEBUT PLANNED

MISS EVELYN NESBEITH, WHO IS TO BE NEW YORK SOCIETY MEMBER UNDER NEW NAME.

LOS ANGELES, April 7.—Beautiful Evelyn Nesbeith, heroine of many thrilling adventures on "the great white way," is to become a member of exclusive New York society under a new name and a new identity.

A ward of the juvenile court, her case has been removed from the calendar and she has been placed temporarily in the care of her mother, a New Yorker of wealth and social prominence, who has taken her daughter from Los Angeles and is now en route to the eastern metropolis with her.

The fascinations of gilded society are to be used by the mother as a weapon to combat the lure of the primrose path.

Behind the youthful beauty, who is but 20 years old, stretches a trail of popping corks, champagne suppers and wild joy rides.

LATEST REFORM EXPERIMENT.

For two years local authorities have made every effort to reform her and win her from "the great white way."

Her proposed society debut is the latest experiment in social reform.

A year ago she made a sensational escape from Juvenile hall when, with another girl and two men, she fled from probation officers in a high powered automobile, camping by night in the Arroyo Seco. She returned to Los Angeles to hide in the heart of the city and eluded the police, according to her own statements, by smiling innocently at them as she made her way openly along the streets when she wished to be outdoors.

Later, after being captured in Santa Barbara, she was returned to this city and placed in the Home of the Good Shepherd. She was there until a few weeks ago, when ill health caused her to be taken to the county hospital.

LURE OF PRIMROSE PATH.

Her mother, hearing of her plight, came from New York to claim her. She pleaded for the right to have her, and declared that she believed the pleasures and interests to be found in New York society would hold the girl from the glitter of the primrose path.

Miss Nesbeith's record for the past year has been good, officers say, and the request was granted as an experiment in social reform.

Her case has not been dismissed and can be brought up again by the juvenile authorities at any time that Miss Nesbeith returns to Los Angeles and breaks away from the security of society into the field of high adventure.

DOG IS HIS HEIR; WILL HAVE LIFE INCOME

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—"To my dog Fannie I bequeath $25 a month for the remainder of her natural life."

Thus reads the will of Dr. Francisco Delmont, which was filed for probate yesterday. It provides that the executor keep open the administration of the estate, which is valued at $16,000, until "Fannie" dies.

JUDGE MURPHEY CANDIDATE FOR JUSTICE OF THE SUPREME COURT

SUPPORTERS OF JURIST ARE MANY

Aspirant Has Presided With Distinction in Various Counties.

The determination of Chief Justice Beatty of the Supreme Court of this state not to become a candidate for re-election, and the announcement of Associate Justice Angelloti that he will become a candidate for the position of Chief Justice, leaves one of the positions of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court without an incumbent candidate seeking re-election therefor. For this place Judge John D. Murphey, judge of the Superior Court of Mono county, has announced himself as a candidate, and the announcement has drawn forth the active and energetic support of his friends throughout the state of California.

Judge Murphey is a native son of this state, his parents being among California's very early pioneers. He started as a wage earner when but sixteen years old and by habits of industry and saving, and practically through his own efforts he worked his way through the University of California, having been graduated therefrom in the class of 1857, and among his most enthusiastic supporters at the present time are many of those who first came to know him in his college days.

HELD COUNTY OFFICES.

The best estimate of a man's worth is gained from his own neighbors. In Mono county practically every inhabitant knew John D. Murphey as a boy, and they have watched him grow to manhood, admiring his early struggles and his indomitable courage. They elected him county clerk and recorder and then district attorney and finally in the year 1902 he became a candidate for superior judge of that county, was elected by an overwhelming majority and has held that position ever since.

But Judge Murphey's energies were not destined to be confined to Mono county alone. The litigation in that county has been such that he found that the duties of his office did not require all of his time, and his early acquired habits of industry and activity caused him to allow it to become known that he was glad to give his services to other counties in the trial of Superior Court cases, the law of this state allowing a Superior Judge to sit in any county. He had been on the bench but a short time when he became noted for his ability, and he commenced receiving requests from all parts of the state to act as judge in important litigation. He has continued this practice until he now occupies the unique position of probably having held more sessions of the Superior Court in different counties of the State of California, than any other judge who has ever been on the bench. His work in this regard has been very widely and favorably commented on throughout the state.

AIDS LARGER COUNTIES.

During the last few years he has sat as a superior judge in the counties of Alameda, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Marin, Sacramento, Contra Costa, San Mateo, Yolo, Butte, Fresno, Inyo and Lassen. In fact so successful has been Judge Murphey's experience in connection with holding court in other counties, that at the present time it has grown into quite a common custom for judges of counties, where the litigation is not large, to give their services to the larger counties in order to relieve congested calendars. In addition to receiving invitations from other judges, Judge Murphey has also been designated by the governor, at various times, to sit in important cases, and by reason of his knowledge of the law, his honesty, integrity and fairness, both lawyers and litigants throughout the state have always been ready to have their cases tried before Judge Murphey, knowing that they would receive the benefit of a well trained and balanced mind and an absolutely fair and impartial decision.

HAS HOME SUPPORTER.

In giving his services to other counties the Judge has ever been careful to in no wise neglect his duties in Mono county. He has always kept in touch with the needs and requirements there, so that his home county should in no wise suffer by reason of his work elsewhere. This fact is especially shown by the desire of practically all of the electors of Mono county to be allowed to sign Judge Murphey's nomination petition.

He has sat in recent years so often in Alameda county that he has practically come to be regarded by the bench and bar here as one of their own number, and the vote that he will receive in this county would not be any larger if he had been in fact a judge of this county.

Judge Murphey has not only been honored by invitations from other judges and by selection of the Governor to sit as Superior Judge, but last year was designated by the Supreme Court of this state to sit for a three months' session of the District Court of Appeals of the State of California for the First Appellate district.

WRITES OPINIONS.

While acting in this capacity his written opinions attracted attention throughout the state for their depth of judicial learning, fairness and well balanced judgment. The most active support that Judge Murphey is receiving in his present candidacy comes from members of the Appellate bench, superior judges in counties where he has sat, and from lawyers and litigants who have all come in actual contact with him and have come to know and recognize his ability and learning.

The custom followed by Judge Murphey of holding court in so many different counties, has given him a breadth of experience that peculiarly fits him to sit as a judge of the Supreme Court, which is the final court of appeal of all litigation in this state. The constant change of the locality of his activities has entirely prevented him from becoming in any way provincial. He has presided over litigation dealing with agricultural and mining affairs, so common in the interior counties, and has also had to deal in counties where the larger cities are located with the problems of the business and commercial world.

PERSONALITY AN ASSET.

In addition to the opportunities that Judge Murphey has had he possesses a personality that will greatly aid him in the performance of the duties of the position to which he aspires. He is a man of uniformly kindly disposition, and has not allowed his work in the law to narrow his views regarding the actual practical problems of every-day life.

Judge Murphey is not quite 50 years of age; is married and is the father of six children. In addition to all that he has accomplished in public life he has found time to devote some of his energies to the bettering of human conditions. He is at the present time grand master of the Masons of the State of California, this being the highest position that can be bestowed by that order in this state, and he has also been for some years a member of the committee of appeals of the grand lodge of Odd Fellows. In every capacity in which he has acted he has proven his ability, citizenship and sterling manhood.

'DYNAMITE IN GOSPEL,' SAYS VAN HORN

Little Giant Thrills Congregation With His Epigrammatic Utterances.

How much it means to a city to have a place of prayer where people are wont to resort!

Old Martin Luther said long ago that the devil was not only afraid of a praying church, but he was even more afraid of a singing church.

I believe in the higher criticism of the Bible; I believe it has given us a more understandable book than we have had before.

An apologetic church is a losing church * * * and an apologetic Christian is a man who will never be able to win the man next to him.

We have today the social gospel. Ought we not to preach that?

The very essence of the gospel is to get into all kinds of things and overturn and overturn until the right things have gone down and the good things have come up.—Epigrams of Rev. Francis J. Van Horn, "The Little Giant of the New Church," and new pastor of Oakland's First Congregational church.

"The Little Giant of the New Church" is coming to Oakland in the person of Dr. Francis J. Van Horn, newly chosen pastor of the First Congregational church, although, when the pastoral committee and congregation voted him the call they little knew it. It was not until at the Unity Evangelical services of the First Methodist church in Seattle, where the divine was called upon to speak, even his Portland congregation, or the world at large knew it. Before the big meeting Dr. Van Horn preached a sermon declared one of the most revolutionary and one of the most remarkable ever heard from a pulpit.

The congregation was brought up with a start under the epigrammatic utterances of the pastor, his startling interpretations, his lightning-like logic and his crystalline handling of issues heretofore only hinted at.

"The gospel is loaded with dynamite," declared the pastor. "Ours is a revolutionary gospel, a gospel that has disturbed every city to which it has gone. It has overturned every nation with which it has had its way. It is doing it still. It is bound to do so until the end of time."

Possessed of a splendidly sympathetic voice, the pastor swayed the people to his will and gave new interest to the big meeting.

"The gospel has got to shake our city!" he declared. "It has got to overturn the city. It cannot be otherwise with the gospel, and it is doing it and will do it until the end of time. It will do it until little business and big business has been brought to the subjection of Jesus Christ. That's the kind of gospel to preach!"

Heretofore Dr. Van Horn carried a note of orthodoxy in his sermons. Comment was made that his former Christianity was not a spiritual message for the evangelist. Addressing the great crowd he revealed a new—the greatest side of his abilities, a stern understanding and a thrilling, compelling and humanity serving capacity for the exposition of human foibles that made church history in Seattle.

MILITANT CHRISTIANITY.

Choosing Nicodemus' cry, "What shall I do to be saved?" as his text, about it the pastor sounded a cry of militant Christianity, compelling gospel, and stern facts of the irresistible gospel that, he said, marched ever on, over cities and countries, which it overthrew as the natural force of an earthquake might wreck a continent.

Besides the stirring utterances quoted he told of the human derelict whose once marvelous voice brought the tears to the eyes of police court habitues. As he talked the figure of the prisoner dwarfed into obscurity and the vital figure of Nicodemus with his query, "What must I do to be saved?" stood forth prominently. Something in the speaker's voice or attitude visualized the picture of the sinner of old, asking the one great question in the humility of the repentant confessor of sin.

Probably one of the most thrilling passages in the sermon was contained in the following interpolation:

"These meetings—these meetings! Oh, I wonder if we have come to them; I wonder if we have come to this moment trusting in anything else than that power which is from without, which alone can do the work?

"I wonder if it can be that we have been trusting to the advertising, trusting to the prayers, trusting just to the ongoing life in these churches; trusting to the preaching of four men, trusting to anything except the working of God's spirit in His own mighty and marvelous fashion. God help us to wait and look, and look and wait until He shall work."

The earthquake that wrecked the Philippi prison; the astonishment of the prison's governor and the quiet self-possession of the disciple-prisoners were all told pulsatingly, leading up to the cry of the troubled one, "Oh, what must I do to be saved?"

Dr. Van Horn closed his address with a fervent appeal for the general turning toward the better life and a gratifying response in the matter of signatures to the resolution cards was had.

MOTHERHOOD PLEA IS IGNORED

Despite Pathetic Appeal Baby is Torn From Palmer Girl's Arms.

LOS ANGELES, April 7.—Fourteen-year-old Lillian Palmer, central figure in the maze of happenings that surrounds the birth of her child, the arrest of Philip Kilfoil on a charge of murder, and the peculiar mystery that grows daily, has cast a new complication into the case.

The baby, which, it is declared, Kilfoil is the father of. The girl's family declare that it will never know its mother's shame. The child-mother, with her newly-awakened instinct of maternity, refuses to permit this. Daily she begs that the baby be brought to her bed in the hospital. The hospital authorities are keeping them apart, in the hope of stifling the love of the little mother in the beginning, but so far this seems impossible.

The girl cares nothing of Kilfoil's statement that she, and not he, poisoned his sister, the crime for which he has been arrested.

It is not the question of how to refute Phillip Kilfoil's story that their daughter poisoned Mary Kilfoil, or to prove that Kilfoil himself is responsible for the crime.

It is to determine whether the child's love for her baby or the demands of society shall prevail.

SOCIETY'S HARSH DEMAND.

Day by day the love ties between the "child mother" and the little "rosebud baby" are forging more inviolably, despite every precaution of scientific care.

But to remove the stigma from the child society demands that the baby shall be taken from its mother's arms and brought up away from associations that might breathe reproach and shame to it in later years.

Lillian Palmer's parents say that at all costs the child must be taken away.

And a treatment of the "child mother" and the baby at the hospital has been adopted to prevent the growth of a maternal and a filial love that no science can break.

But in spite of this the 14-year-old mother is beginning to show a determination to keep her baby.

BOUNDLESS MOTHER LOVE.

She is wistfully trying to persuade some one of her family to keep the little mite close in the family home.

Mrs. P. L. Elaine, Lillian Palmer's mother, who came from her daughter's bedside yesterday to make a new statement to Assistant District Attorney Fort, today told the story of the undeclared war between cold science and the demands of society and the warm mother love to which the "child mother" is awakening with intensity.

"We have determined that for the sake of the baby, and for Lillian's sake, the child must be taken away," Mrs. Elaine said, her eyes filled with tears. "To this end we have granted all our care and treatment of my daughter.

"If it were not the best thing for them, no power in the world could take that little baby from me. I would love and bring it up like my own—only it would be doubly dear because it is Lillian's.

CHILD'S PATHETIC PLEA.

"In her mind I am sure she is pondering its future fate. And she so often says—apropos of nothing—

"'Don't take the baby away or do anything with it till you speak to Frances (her sister). She's going to be married and perhaps she'll take the baby and bring it up.'

"Or again, speaking of her stepfather, she'll say:

"'Papa hasn't any little child all his own to call him "Papa." Don't you think he'd like to keep my baby for his very, very own?'

"Many times a day she'll call for the baby and ask that it be laid on the bed by her side, 'just for a minute.' But this is denied by the nurses, who tell her it's against hospital rules to [illegible], but if we can."

TWO DAYS OF REST! RAH FOR MAYOR HEYWOOD

BERKELEY, April 7.—Two rest days in the week is what there ought to be, in the opinion of Mayor Charles P. Heywood. Because Sunday is now the only rest day he believes its use as a day of worship is impaired by those who seek this only chance for recreation and amusement. In an address at the Dr. Henry Ostrom revival meetings here the mayor declared:

"Our Sundays are becoming commercialized. If I were assured of the proper backing I would seek to have Saturday all day, declared a business holiday. There would then be no excuse for Sunday baseball games and other pastimes where financial profit is made the object. We have made some progress already in this direction with the Saturday half holiday, and I think the plan should be extended to include the whole day."

PRISON FOR CROOKS

Fraud Agents Who Made Millions Get Heavy Jail Sentences.

NEW YORK, April 7. — Seven former officers and agents of the Sterling Debenture Co., today received prison sentences of from three to six years for using the United States mails to defraud investors in the stock of enterprises promoted by their corporation.

In sending them to the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Federal Judge Anderson declared that although the defendants maintained that they were penniless they had in fact made millions at the expense of thousands of victims throughout the country.

The heaviest sentences, six years were imposed on George H. Middleton of Chicago, first vice-president; Frank Shumaker, a former president and Henry H. H. Platt, a minor officer.

Benjamin Mudge, president of the Oxford Linen Mills of North Brookfield, Mass., was given a four year term. He was a chemist and inventor, whose alleged discovery of a process to make flax yarn from flax straw at an enormous saving was duly advertised in the company's campaign for the sale of the Oxford Linen Mills stock.

Three-year sentences were imposed on Wilbur M. Stone, a patent expert; Elwyn A. Barron, a prospectus writer, and W. S. Edwards.

The seven were convicted last night in Federal District Court after a long trial, at which they tried to prove that Mudge's process was all they had claimed for it and that they were engaged in a bona fide stock selling campaign.

Bryan's Cold Much Better; to Dine Out

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Secretary Bryan, who has been detained at home by a heavy cold for several days, was much improved today, and said he would dine out tonight.

ARMED, MAKES RIOTOUS CALL ON WIFE

Him, But Father-in-Law Did.

When E. [illegible] went to the home of his mother-in-law, armed with a revolver and a large dirk and determined to see his wife, from whom he has been separated, he anticipated that success would crown his efforts, but he reckoned without taking the mother-in-law, William F. Beck, into consideration. A [illegible] Beck home, 1224 East Fifteenth street, in which young Christensen was worsted and his [illegible] taken away from him. Christensen was later arrested on a charge of exhibiting a deadly weapon in a rude and threatening manner in the presence of his mother-in-law.

Young Christensen, who lives with his parents at 2220 East Fourteenth street, went to the home of his wife's parents yesterday afternoon and took his little daughter out for a walk. When he returned last evening with the child he met Mrs. Beck at the door.

"I want to see my wife!" he demanded, "and I'm going to see her if I have to break into the house."

"She doesn't want to see you, Gene," answered Mrs. Beck, "and you can't come in."

DRAWS REVOLVER.

"I can't, eh," answered Christensen, at the same time drawing his revolver. "Well, we'll see about that."

Mrs. Beck screamed and her husband, who is a mechanic in the Southern Pacific car department ran to her assistance. [illegible] Beck landed a straight left to Christensen's jaw. The young man went down under the blow and Beck leaped upon him, at the same time knocking the revolver from his hands. Beck handed the revolver to his wife and she fired a shot into the air with it. A brief struggle took place but Christensen managed to get away. He was captured by Inspector Moore and Special Policeman Hughes as he was running down the street. A knife also was found in his possession.

Detail Policewomen To Railway Stations

CHICAGO, April 7.—Beginning today women and girls who come to Chicago or who pass through the city to other destinations will have the protection and assistance of policewomen at the railroad station.

Ten of the city's twelve policewomen, who were given a special course of instruction last week, were assigned to the railroad stations under an order issued yesterday.

During the winter months the policewomen were assigned to duty at the city's public dance halls. Last summer and fall they patroled the downtown streets in an effort to eliminate flirting.

SATHER SUIT NO PROBLEM AT U. C.

College Will Fight for Rights When Mrs. Bruguiere Really Begins Action.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 7. — Until the well advertised suit of Mrs. Josephine Sather Bruguiere to recover moneys given the university by her mother, Mrs Jane K. Sather, assumes more definite form, the university authorities refuse to let it worry them. So it is announced that work on the Sather Campanile, the giant shaft which is being erected on the campus through Mrs Sather's munificence will not tarry.

The president's and controller's offices have received no notice to date of any legal action taken by Mrs. Bruguiere to [illegible] provisions for the establishment of a chair in history, the erection of the Campanile, a chair in classics and other smaller bequests.

When the cases really come into court the university will proceed to press its rights in the premises

The bequests are stated to have been in good order, and the whole matter was reviewed at the time they were made by the attorneys for the university. In case there is a legal fight made by Mrs. Bruguiere, Darren Olney Jr., attorney [illegible] versity.

LARGE CROWDS ATTEND RELIGIOUS SERVICES

BERKELEY, April 7 — One of the greatest religious services ever held in Berkeley was the meeting for young people last night in the big tabernacle in the United Christian campaign, which the federated churches are conducting under Dr. Ostrom's leadership

Dr. Ostrom's address was on "Getting Where You Fit." At the close of the address when he called for all who were willing to devote their lives to Christian service either as preachers or missionaries if the way opened, there were 219 arose, a third of this number being young men apparently between the ages of 20 and 2[illegible] years

After a few words of instruction from Dr Ostrom each of the pastors present made encouraging remarks to the young people and congratulated them upon taking this important step.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock the "Tribute to the Aged" was held and a great throng of old people were brought in carriages and automobiles to the service

Several had passed the 90 mark and the majority of them had passed the allotted time of "three score years and ten." Dr Ostrom's sermon was one of good cheer throughout and when the aged friends were taken back to their homes they went with the feeling that their best days were now on and that life was still worth living.

Tonight at 7:30 Dr. Ostrom will give his great address on "The Meaning and Mystery of Human Sorrow"

Tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in all the churches federating in the movement a special service will be held for church members. Tomorrow night in the tabernacle the address will be "The Eternal Cross" and men who have heard Dr. Ostrom give this address say it is his greatest sermon

Thursday will be the [illegible] day of the campaign.

"PLAYGROUNDS AND PARKS FOR PEOPLE"

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA April 7. — How all the schools and all the playgrounds and parks may be used by all the people will be discussed by Geo. W. Dickie, city superintendent of recreation of Oakland, in a public lecture at the University of California at 8 o'clock this evening on "Playgrounds and Recreation Facilities, Outdoor and Indoor." The lecture which is in the "City Planning" course, will be in 101 California hall. It will be illustrated with the stereopticon.

Dickie has made himself one of the leading American figures in the field of playgrounds and public recreation facilities. Under his leadership Oakland has built up a splendid system of municipal playgrounds. All the school facilities of Oakland have now been made part of this public recreation equipment. Every school playground is to be a public playground the whole year through, for [illegible]

The school houses are to be thrown open for public use, for all manner of civic, social, athletic, educational and neighborhood purposes. Some of the playgrounds are to be lighted at night, so that people employed throughout the day may have evening opportunity for outdoor exercise and recreation.

TO SING 'STABAT MATER' AT THE GREEK THEATER

YVONNE DE TREVILLE (TOP) AND MISS FERANDA PRATT, WHO WILL BE HEARD IN STABAT MATER.

Preparations Complete for Notable Good Friday Event

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 7. — Well known principals, a chorus of over 200 voices and an orchestra of 60 pieces have about finished preparations for the annual Good Friday presentation of Rossini's beautiful "Stabat Mater" this week at the Hearst Greek theater Rehearsals have been proceeding for several weeks under the direction of Paul Steindorff, chief [illegible] of the university, and a most finished production of the oratorio is expected.

Mme. Yvonne de Treville, a coloratura soprano with a wide reputation, has been secured to sing the leading soprano role, and is expected to do full credit to her task. Miss Feranda Pratt will have the contralto part, Thomas C Barr the tenor and Charles P Robinson the bass. The chorus has been selected from the membership of the Berkeley Oratorio society, Treble Clef, Oakland Choral society and San Francisco clubs

The presentation of the Stabat Mater one of the most admired works in the oratorio repertoire, has been an annual production for several years on Good Friday at the Hearst Greek theater. In the past Mme. Luisa Tetrazzini and other well known vocalists have appeared.

This year a concert is expected to live up to the reputation of its predecessors. A concert program has been arranged to follow the singing of the oratorio.

PRINKLE WINS BOUT AFTER HARD FIGHT

Conquers La Grave in Thirteenth Round With a Knockout.

VALLEJO, April 7.—Vallejo has another champion scrapper in Sammy Trinkle, the former pride of the cruiser Maryland. Trinkle last night beat Antone La Grave, the San Francisco welterweight boxer, in thirteen rounds at the Flosden arena near here. Trinkle proved to his Vallejo friends that he has developed a knockout punch and he put up one of the best exhibitions ever staged at Flosden

The end came in the second minute of the thirteenth round. La Grave was the most surprised man in Vallejo after the fight, as he figured that his opponent was nothing but an ex-sailor. Trinkle was on the short end, the wise ones betting 10 to 8 on the victor. Trinkle is now in line for some good bouts in San Francisco and Oakland as the result of his victory.

THE PRELIMINARIES.

In the preliminaries "Kid" Kelley of the U. S. S. Marblehead and Ed Knox of the Maryland put up the best of the four-round bouts. Referee Sol Levison awarded the bout to Kiser.

Young Ritchie of Vallejo and "Kid" Reddy of Napa, two old rivals, also engaged [illegible] for four rounds. Fer[illegible]ese Grande awarded the bout to the Napa boxer.

"Sailor" Bill Schaffer of Vallejo proved Jack Sibert's master and after boxing a round and a half, finished his man. Sibert showed his gameness and refused to be counted out until knocked down five times.

SUSPECT W. S. DE GRANGE BEAT WAY FROM BENICIA

The police last night arrested Warren E. DeGrange at the Sixteenth street Southern Pacific depot. DeGrange, who is said to be an ex-convict, had several [illegible] held pending an investigation. He had, according to his story, beaten his way to Oakland from Benicia.

BERKELEY GIRL IS NOW CITIZEN

Miss Elizabeth Baillie First to Get Papers in Federal Court.

BERKELEY, April 7. — Miss Elizabeth Baillie, junior student at the university, is a citizen of the United States. She became so yesterday, the first woman to obtain naturalization papers in the Federal district court here.

Miss Baillie's inclination toward woman's suffrage and the fact that her own country, Great Britain, refused the ballot to its women, decided her to secure naturalization the moment she became of age. Her twenty-first birthday occurred this year and she filed her papers in time to take advantage thereof. At the university, Miss Baillie is a student in medicine, her mother, Mrs. Effie Baillie, being also a physician

A sister, Miss Florence, is registered in the university also and a second sister, Miss Victoria, in the Berkeley high school.

Papers were granted to Miss Baillie yesterday giving her the right to register and vote just the same as a native born Californian. Her witnesses were Alfred I. Worley and F. B. Worley.

Miss Baillie, who resides at 1455 Ashby avenue, said:

"I was born in China and lived there a part of my life, but I have spent enough time in the United States and California to look upon this as my real home. I am sure that I like California better than any other place I have ever seen."

STATE BANK OFFICIAL GIVES FINE ADDRESS

ALAMEDA, April 7. — W. R. Williams, state superintendent of banks, and former State treasurer, gave an enlightening talk on the "Blue Sky Law" passed at the last legislature to regulate the sale of stocks and bonds and for the protection of the public from unscrupulous promoters. The talk was given before the members of the Alameda center of the California Civic league and a number of prominent citizens, who are interested in preventing the repeal of the law, for which the referendum was used to prevent its going into action, before August 10.

The speaker explained the formation of the commission of corporations and the impossibility of having the corporation law restricted as it would be if governed by the banking law

Mrs J. G. Kearney, president of the center, thanked the speaker for his talk and announced the coming social feature, which is to be a dansant on April 29, to take the place of the regular business meeting and lecture.

MISS CLARA SERRALUNGA DIES AFTER ILLNESS

ALAMEDA, April 7. — Death Sunday morning summoned Miss Clara Maria Serralunga following an extended illness. She was 14 years of age and a native of Alameda.

Deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Serralunga of 1014 Regent street, and sister of Louise and Josie Serralunga and Mrs. Emma Ferro and Mrs Rose Ratto.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the late residence, thence to St. Mary's cemetery, where interment will take place.

GIVEN FINE OF $50.

ALAMEDA, April 7. — S. M. Walker, who was charged with battery by Ed M. Petry, was found guilty by Police Judge Robert Edgar in [illegible] and fined $50. Petry charged that Walker, a former employe, struck him following words over his discharge.

WOMEN AND BOSS RIVALS AT POLLS

Suffragette Candidates Oppose "Bath House John"

Fate of 3000 Saloons Outside of Chicago to Be Decided

CHICAGO, April 7.—It is "Bathhouse John" Coughlin against the women of Chicago today in this city, where suffrage is getting its first test at the polls Aldermanic contests have brought out [illegible] ballots in great crowds, more than [illegible] women being qualified. The number of men registered is 457,853. Seven women candidates are seeking seats on the board of aldermen.

At least two of these, Miss Marion H. Drake, combating the notorious "Bathhouse John" Coughlin in the First ward, and Miss Harriet E. Vittum, running on a non-partisan ticket in the Seventeenth ward, are believed to have a fighting chance to win. They have the support of non-partisan and Progressive organizations and of practically every woman's club in the city.

AUTOS FOR WOMEN VOTERS.

Hundreds of automobiles enlisted by suffrage organizations scurried about the city early today engaged in "getting out the women voters." In the First ward, where the hottest fight of his career is being waged against "Bathhouse John" by Miss Drake's adherents, a determined effort was made to send every registered woman to the polls Troops of women in the stockyards district on the West Side voted, urged by their church heads not to neglect their duties at the polls. Along the fashionable North Shore boulevards, limousines and electrics whirled early in the day, carrying society women to the polls, in some instances maids accompanying their employers to the polling places Heads of several factories and mercantile establishments employing women and in sympathy with the suffrage movement, added encouragement. Everywhere the cry seemed to be: "Get out the women vote."

LIQUOR ISSUE.

On the votes today of the newly enfranchised women depended the fate of more than 3000 saloons in Illinois outside of Chicago. In 324 townships in 67 counties they went to the polls and officially expressed their attitude toward the liquor traffic.

For fear that any of the women might spoil their ballots in casting their first vote nearly a half-million extra ballots were distributed.

One of the propositions voted on today provides for the building of a comprehensive subway system at a cost of $130,000,000.

NO CHANGE IN LEADERSHIP.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Oscar Underwood's selection for the Senate from Alabama will not change the Democratic House leadership before March 4, 1915. Meantime Representative Kitchen of North Carolina has procured more than enough pledges, he says, to assure him the Democratic leadership in succession to Underwood and the chairmanship of the ways and means committee, if the Democrats [illegible] next Congress.

The Alabama primary election marks the passing of Representative Hobson and the coming of William B. Bankhead in his place. Bankhead is the son of Senator Bankhead and made the speech that placed Underwood in nomination for the presidency at the Baltimore convention.

HOBSON ADMITS DEFEAT.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 7.—L. B. Musgrove, campaign manager for Congressman Richmond Pearson Hobson, conceded Oscar W. Underwood's nomination to the United States Senate in a statement made at 11:30 o'clock this morning. Hobson left Birmingham today for Washington.

Incomplete returns today from practically all of the sixty-seven counties in the state apparently substantiated early predictions that Underwood had defeated Hobson for nomination to the Alabama long term in the United States Senate.

State returns showed a close race between Ray Rushton of Montgomery and Frank S. White of Birmingham for the short term nomination to the United States Senate.

The gubernatorial contest was one of the closest in the list. Former Governor B. B. Comer maintained a slight plurality early in the day. R. F. Colb of Montgomery and Charles Henderson of Troy were running a close race for second place.

If none of the candidates receives a majority a second primary between the two leading candidates will be held May 1, at which time similar contests between other state officers will be settled and a United States Senator for the short term will be formally settled.

Indications are that Representative G. W. Taylor of the First district had lost to C. L. Gray of Choctaw county. George Suddleston of Jefferson county leads his three opponents in the Ninth district to succeed Representative Underwood. It was generally believed that William B. Bankhead, son of the United States Senator from Alabama, had won in the Sixth to succeed Representative Hobson.

[illegible] county seemed to be a winner in the Eighth over three other candidates to succeed the late Representative William Richardson.

Present members of the national house of representatives whose nomination appeared certain are: S. Herbert Dent of the Second, Henry D. Clayton of the Third, Fred L. Blackmon of the Fourth, and John L. Burnett of the Seventh. John W. Abercombie from the state at large and J. T. Heflin of the Fifth were unop[illegible]

HOLD CITY ELECTIONS.

LINCOLN, April 7.—A majority of Nebraska cities, not including those of the first class, held elections of municipal officers today and voters decided local issues.

LIGHT VOTE AT BOSTON.

BOSTON, April 7.—Voting was light Twelfth Congressional district to choose a successor to James M. Curley, Democrat, who resigned after his election as mayor. The candidates today were James A. Gallivan, Democrat, James B. Connolly, Progressive, and Frank L. Brier, Republican.

REFORMS PROPOSED.

CHEYENNE, April 7.—A public utilities commission, the initiative and referendum, state loans on lands, an anti-pass law, presidential primaries and a workingmen's compensation law are among the reforms to be urged for Wyoming in the campaign next fall. Their adoption will be urged by Progressives, Republicans and independents. This course was decided upon late yesterday at a mass-meeting attended by representatives of the various factions from all but two counties in the state.

ELECTION SHOOTING.

AURORA, Ills., April 7.—John Haeger, shortly before noon today shot and wounded his wife, Helen, 28, after an argument over the election. Haeger alleges Mrs. Haeger refused to accompany him to the polls.

REPORTER ELECTED CHIEF.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., April 7.—Sterling S. Burton formerly a police reporter on a local newspaper, was elected today chief of police of Cedar Rapids by the city council

VOTE ON COMMISSION.

KANSAS CITY, April 7.—Commission government was an issue in today's election which opened with brisk voting. Mayor Henry L. Yost, Democrat, sought re-election against the non-partisan candidate, Clarence A. Burton, the Progressive candidate, Joseph P. Fontron, and the Republican candidate Harry E. Barker

Municipal elections were held today in Joplin, St. Joseph and Sedalia, Mo., as well as in many of the smaller cities of Kansas.

WILSON POLICIES, ISSUE.

PATERSON, N. J., April 7.—President Wilson's policies and socialism were the main issues in a special election held today in the Seventh New Jersey Congressional District to choose a successor to the late Robert G. Bremmer. The President endorsed James J. O'Byrne, the Democratic candidate.

SEEK TO ELECT SEIDEL.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 7.—Socialists were out in force today and cast their ballots early in an effort to elect Emil Seidel mayor over Gerhard Bading, non-partisan candidate for re-election. There were local option elections in several cities throughout the State, including Madison, the capital.

VOTE IS TIGHT.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The question of whether a convention shall be called in 1915 for the revision of the State constitution attracted but few voters to the polls today. The lack of interest in the referendum vote was due to the fact that Republicans, Democrats and Progressives declared in their platform in favor of calling a convention.

WOMEN VOTE IN RAIN.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 7.—Though rain fell in torrents the polling places were crowded with women when the booths were opened today and the battle to determine whether the state capital shall be wet or dry was begun. Before 10 o'clock half of the normal vote of the city had been cast. Long lines of voters stood in the rain waiting their turn at the polls.

SOCIALISTS ELECTED.

HELENA, Mont., April 7.—Republicans in the city election yesterday elected a mayor, city treasurer and two aldermen. In Missoula the Socialists elected two commissioners and the city was placed under Socialist rule. The Socialists were successful in Butte also, electing three councilmen, giving them nine in the council against seven of other parties. The mayor is also a Socialist. Local issues were voted on in many other cities. At Lewistown the women voted to remove hacks from the main street.

LICENSE QUESTION AT POLLS.

ST. PAUL, April 7.—The liquor license question was an issue in a score of Minnesota cities today. Under the local option law of 1913 many cities voted for the first time on the license question.

LOCAL OPTION.

QUINCY, Ill., April 7.—Quincy's first local option election is polling a record vote. It is estimated that 14,000 votes will be polled, almost half of which will be those of women. The anti-saloon campaign has been hard-fought, but almost wholly free from personalities and bitterness Quincy has two breweries and 140 saloons.

CITIES HOLD ELECTIONS.

OMAHA, April 7.—All cities and [illegible] in the State outside of Omaha, South Omaha and Lincoln which have special charters, elect officers today. The saloon license question is the principal issue. Sunday baseball is being voted on in several towns.

LOCAL OPTION VOTE HEAVY.

GALESBURG, Ill., April 7.—The local option issue brought out today the earliest and largest vote ever cast in this city. Women were the first voters and three hours after the polls opened more than a third of the registered vote had been cast.

CITY ELECTIONS.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., April 7.—Returns today from the municipal elections held in North Dakota yesterday show the following successful candidates for mayor in the larger cities. Grand Forks, James A. Dinnie; Jamestown, A. W. Kelly; Valley City, L. S. Platou; Park River, S. A. Cameron. Lidgerwood, John Nuding; Grafton, A. W. McConville; Langdon, W. A. McIntyre, Casselton, G. H. Bullard; Dickinson, Alfred White. In many cities there are no party lines.

VOTE ON SALOONS.

AURORA, Ill., April 7.—Women, taking their first opportunity to vote on the saloon question, stormed the polls today. Before noon, with 5500 votes cast, 3000 of them women's, jubilant "drys" were claiming that the saloons would be voted out of Aurora by 1500 majority. The "drys" claimed that in several precincts Chicago floaters were being voted and that they would ask for several hundred warrants.

Journalism Courses Will Be Introduced at Summer Session

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, April 7.—For the first time as an important part of the summer session journalism will be taught this year, according to the announcement of Dean C. H. Rieber. Professor Merle Thorpe, head of the department of journalism at the University of Kansas, is coming west to conduct the two courses planned, and he will be assisted by H. L. Dunn, a junior student in the university and managing editor of the student daily.

An elementary course, "The Newspaper," is designed to equip students with the elementary paraphernalia of newspaper work, while an additional course will have to do with "Editorial Theory and Practice." "The Summer Session Californian" will be issued twice a week during the school session, and will be used in the courses practice.

LEGAL STATISTICS HIT CITY CLERK

Recently Admitted to Bar, W. J. Seaborn Finds "There Are Others."

BERKELEY, April 7. — City Clerk Walter J. Seaborn, who is interested deeply in legal statistics since his recent admission to the bar, has computed that one-ninth of the population of the east bay cities must go to law every year to give the legal firms thereof one job apiece a week. Seaborn finds, by consulting the directory, that there are 210 bonafide legal firms in Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda, with a total population of the three cities of 210,000 this makes one firm to every 1000 population.

FLOWER SHOW TO BE ELABORATE

Wealth of Rare Blooms Will Be Part of San Leandro Exhibit.

SAN LEANDRO, April 7.—The enterprise shown by this city in holding a mammoth flower show April 13 and 14, and the fact that the wild flowers and cultivated blooms to be displayed come from all parts of the state has given San Leandro a wide reputation among floriculturists and horticulturists. San Leandro will be as well known as a flower city through the flower exhibition as Watsonville is through her apple fair, say well-known flower lovers and botanical experts who are enthusiastic over the prospect of great beautiful flower gardens and of the choice blooms which can be seen growing in abundance at all times of the year are also interested in the success of the show and Principal Guy C. Smith and others who are arranging the exhibits have been beseiged with offers of flowers.

A number of big nurseries will give displays. Mrs. Sachau, a prominent member of the Alameda County Floral Society, is arranging to have a special display of wild flowers in the mountains. A large table will carry a wealth of rare and choice flowers from her garden. A display will also be given of flowers from the I. W. Hellman conservatories, the arrangement being in charge of Superintendent Breen.

The contrast afforded by wild and cultivated flowers will be one of the attractive features of the display. Over 300 varieties of wild flowers from every part of the state, including the hardy Sierra plants and those from Southern and Northern California, have been gathered. The roses, daffodils, tulips, pansies, hyacinths and other garden flowers will be seen side by side with exotic blooms.

The exhibition will be an education as well as wonderful display of the state's flower life. Each variety will be named and catalogued by experts.

Six or seven thousand people from Alameda county and the bay regions are expected to visit the show as well as many from further afield.

The exhibit will be artistically arranged in the large auditorium of the grammar school and the promoters are arranging for the show to be open Monday afternoon and evening and all Tuesday. Concerts will be given by the school band and orchestra.

DANES OF STATE TO MEET SOON

Delegates Will Gather at Hayward Convention April 21 to 25.

HAYWARD, April 7.—Hayward's reputation as an ideal convention center will be upheld by local Danes in entertaining the Danish State convention here April 21 to 25. Energetic committees from the two Danish societies in town are handling the big fraternal event and the hundreds of delegates from all over California will receive a royal welcome.

An attractive display during convention week will be the exhibition of fancy drill by twelve fair daughters of the Society Valborg under the direction of Hans Lassen. The following:

Captain, Miss Sophie Nor. Christine Rasmussen, Amy Johnson, Hulda Borree, Annie Anderson, Metha Christiansen, Ina Johnson, Edna Jensen, Mrs. Geo. Hennigsen, Mrs. Otto Jorgensen, Miss Jennie Christiansen, Miss Anna Christiansen, Miss L. Bixelow, Miss Maria Vogelsang, Mabel Mosegaard, Miss Minnie Nicolaisen, Miss Christine Skovmand.

The Society Dania and the Society Valborg are in charge of the convention arrangements, and have appointed the following society Valborg:

Mrs. Caroline Christiansen, chairman; Mrs. Maria Mosegaard, Mrs. Maria Christensen, Mrs. Mary Molin, Mrs. Annie Rasmussen, Mrs. Andra Hiesel, Miss Minnie Nicholsen, Miss Cecilia Kuck, Mrs. Christine Hennigsen, Mrs. Ernestine Christensen from the Society Dania: M. Mosegaard, chairman, J. Borree, J. L. Christiansen, Jud Christiansen, Hans Christiansen, Hans Heisel, Chris Nicholsen, P. M. Nielsen, Hans C. Jorgensen, Fred Lamorecnt, George Moldt, Carl Sorensen, Hans Sorensen, Henry Sorensen and Andrew Rasmussen.

During their week's stay here the delegates will be banqueted at public functions and feted at private affairs, while among the diversions will be sight-seeing auto rides. The home of Thyra Lodge, which will house the convention, is undergoing a renovation.

BURGLARS ENTER LAYMANCE'S OFFICE

HAYWARD, April 7.—The Laymance estate office at the corner of A and Castro streets and the Cherryland estate office were found to have been entered by burglars this morning, although the thieves secured nothing of value from either place. The doors of the premises were forced in each instance and it is thought the same gang of thieves were at work in both cases.

A family who reside over the Laymance office, which has been unoccupied for some time, heard a noise about three o'clock this morning in the office, but no further attention was paid to the sounds and the burglars were left to ransack the place at their leisure. Entrance was effected by means of a rear door. No money had been left in the office and the thieves secured nothing of value for their trouble.

Groceries comprised the haul from the Cherryland office. Constable W. J. Ramage, who is investigating the burglaries, thinks petty thieves were responsible for them.

COUNTY INFIRMARY TO OBSERVE GOOD FRIDAY

SAN LEANDRO, April 7.—The inmates of the County Infirmary will join in observing Good Friday at a service which is being arranged by a number of prominent women. Sister Mary Manuel will conduct the services, which will consist of music and a sermon. Sister Manuel will be assisted by Mrs. [illegible] Miss Catherne Hogan and Mrs. F. H. Garcia.

HAYWARD MAY GET FREE MAIL DELIVERY

HAYWARD, April 7. — A postal inspector was in town yesterday in connection with the granting of free mail delivery to Hayward. The town officials and Postmaster Bradford are doing everything to meet the regulations governing free delivery and the inspector will probably have a very favorable report to make to headquarters.

HAYWARD PIONEER DEAD.

HAYWARD, April 7.—Mrs. Micaela Miranda, an old resident of Hayward who died at her home here Sunday was interred yesterday in the Catholic cemetery. Services were held in All Saints' church. Mrs. Miranda who was a native of Mexico, had lived here about 25 years. She leaves a son, Antonio Miranda.

PROTESTANT CHURCHES TO JOIN IN SERIVCE

FRUITVALE, April 7.—The five Protestant churches in Fruitvale will unite in observing Good Friday and a service will be held in St. Anthony's Episcopal church. The ministers who will take part in the service are Rev. Edville E. Roys of the Congregational church, Rev. Franklin Rhoda of the Presbyterian church, Rev. R. L. McHatton of the Christian church and Rev. Connors of the Methodist church.

A Christian Endeavor luncheon will be held Sunday evening by the Endeavor Society of Congregational church, after which members, headed by Rev. Roys, will attend a service at one of the downtown churches. Over 100 Christian Endeavor workers will be present at the luncheon, which will be held in the church armory.

MEN MAKE DRESSES FROM NEWSPAPERS

SAN LEANDRO, April 7.—San Leandro Lodge of Odd Fellows and Rose Rebekah Lodge, No. 224, have appointed delegates to attend the Santa Cruz convention in May. Claude Parrish and R. L. Clark will represent the Odd Fellows and Mrs. Nellie Morehouse the Rebekahs.

The Rebekahs held a novel dressmaking contest at a luncheon given recently. The men were the dressmakers, the material being furnished by newspapers. Weird styles in costumes were evolved from their efforts rivaling the extreme of Parisian fashion. Edward Hoerst won first prize for beautiful tango creation. R. L. Clark and William Ross ran him close for dressmaking honors.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB TO GIVE WHIST PARTY

MELROS, April 7.—The fourth of a series of monthly whist parties being given under the auspices of the Melrose Improvement Club will be held on tomorrow eevening in Souza's hall, 1450 Forty-seventh avenue.

In addition to the valuable series prizes which will be contested for by over one hundred players there will be numerous desirable prizes for the best scores of the evening and the club has made arrangements to entertain a large gathering of whist devotees who have become regular attendants at these popular affairs. The committee in charge consists of George A. Janssen, Lester Ziehn and William Souza.

FINDS COLORED MAN IN BEST BED, FAST ASLEEP

HAYWARD, April 7.—Tom Watson, a colored man, stretched himself luxuriously in a feather bed in a strange house in Castro Valley this morning and opened his eyes to find himself staring down the muzzle of a shot gun in the hands of William Le Grave, the proprietor of the house.

Before Tom could offer explanations Le Grave commanded him to hop out of bed and [illegible] The [illegible] colored man protested that his boss had given him permission to sleep in Le Grave's house, likewise that it was a cold morning, but in vain. Le Grave was irate and obdurate and with his captive marching six paces ahead, walked into Hayward, where Watson was turned over to Constable W. J. Ramage.

"Say, boss, what's all this about?" the astonished Tom asked the Constable this morning. "Didn't my master tell me I could go into that house and sleep?"

Constable Ramage elicited from Watson that he was working on a piece of ground in Castro Valley belonging to a San Francisco man who was a friend of Le Grave's and who had told him there would be no harm in sleeping in Le Grave's house, as it was unoccupied.

"That's all right," remarked Le Grave when everything was explained to him, "but he needn't have chosen the best bed in the house. I happened to come back to Castro Valley to see how things looked on my property and received a shock when I came across the coon reposing in the best bedroom." Watson was allowed to go.

WANDERLUST SEIZES 3 SAN LEANDRO JUVENILES

SAN LEANDRO, April 7 — Marshal Joseph Peralta is having his hands full chasing up runaway boys. Three young discontents disappeared from the paternal roof tree. No sooner had Peralta succeeded yesterday in locating Elliott Covey, a sixteen-year-old youth who ran away from home after a quarrel with his mother, than he was notified that Joseph Andrade, 17 years of age, and Manuel Gonsalves, 16 years, had gone off on their own account to see the world.

Covey was traced to a country place about fifteen miles out of Tracy by the marshal who brought him back to San Leandro last night and effected a conciliation between the lad and his mother.

Covey was seen in Tracy by an acquaintance of his who was on a motor tour. At the time he was discovered by the marshal the lad was working on a threshing machine engine. Covey was willing to return home, although he said he thought he could do better if he was left alone.

The other runaways will soon be laid by the heels, too, for they made no secret of their intention to work their way South. The police in the different cities have been notified to keep a lookout for the two. Marshal Peralta thinks they are located in Watsonville and that they will be returned here within a few days. The boys had $20 in their possession when they left home. Andrade is a son of Joseph Andrade of Castro street and Gonsalves is a son of Albert Gonsalves.

SAN LEANDRO MAN IS HEART ATTACK VICTIM

SAN LEANDRO, April 7.—Manuel Rose, a well-known resident of this city, died suddenly at his home on Alvarado street yesterday morning. He had been troubled with his heart and had been under the care of Dr. Charles Miller. Shortly after rising yesterday he fell dead on the floor. He is survived by a wife and family. Funeral services will be held in St. Leander's church Wednesday morning.

W. J. Crum, nightwatchman at the Hudson Lumber Company's works, died Sunday night after being ill three weeks with pneumonia. He had been in the service of the lumber company for a number of years. A wife and family survive. The funeral took place this morning at the family residence on Hayes street.

FRUITVALE MOTHERS TO BANQUET SPARTAN CLUB

FRUITVALE, April 7.—The Fruitvale Club, a boys' organization will be given a banquet and entertainment by the mothers of the district in the club rooms on the Boulevard Friday evening. A program of music and speeches is scheduled while Edward Gibson, a member of the club who has returned from a 11 years' stay in Alaska, will give an illustrated talk on his experiences in the frozen North. Over thirty boys will attend the affair. The officers of the Spartan Club, which is a social and athletic organization, are: President, Vic Hansen; secretary, Douglas Hooper; treasurer, Stewart Pocher.

A baseball team is being organized by the club and will be open to play other Oakland junior combinations. The club has been granted the use of the Hawthorne playground by the Board of Education, and is having it fitted up as a baseball ground and athletic park.

SAN LEANDRO TOWN TRUSTEES HOLD MEET

SAN LEANDRO, April 7.—The Town Trustees had an eventful session last night, and the business was disposed of in double quick time. Approval of the flower show was expressed by the Board and it was unanimously decided to grant Principal Guy C. Smith's request for $50 from the town funds for the purpose of issuing folders for the show.

The St. Johns Society and the I. D. E. S. Society were granted permission to have a firework display during their annual celebrations, which will be held here shortly.

Allen E. Pelton and Louisa C. Andrale filed deeds for street improvement, which [illegible] the trustees Wednesday evening, April 15, was fixed as the night to canvass returns on the election.

ANGLERS REPORT TROUT AS BEING PLENTIFUL

HAYWARD, April 7.—Trout are plentiful in the Livermore hills streams, according to Charles Allen, one of the Hayward anglers who has returned from a successful fishing trip to Trout Creek. The others of the party were Fred Allen, R. Reid and Leslie Reid and all report good fishing with the streams in good condition. "We met a number of big rattlesnakes in the hills," said Allen. [illegible] many deer in their tramps.

TAXPAYERS' COLUMN

All Communications to the Editor of THE TRIBUNE must bear the signature and address of the writer.

EDITOR TRIBUNE—Having read the account of the so-called "Band Boys' Strike," which was started at the last rehearsal of the 1915 Oakland Schools [illegible] I would like to put a few questions and suggestions before the public.

In the first place is it right that a few boys should be allowed to so grossly insult a gentleman of such culture and educational attainments as Mr. Wood is? It is almost unbelievable that any leader would sanction such treatment of any representative from the Board of Education. Also, I would like to ask if this is a band composed of boys from one or two schools, or is it to include boys from all the Oakland schools?

If so, why is one certain teacher given the preference over the city superintendent of music, let alone teachers that are competent to lead? If this band is to attain the number of "One Thousand" as has often been stated, do you think that any one man can teach, organize and direct it unassisted? It seems to me that such a man would have to be endowed with super-human qualities or else know but little of such an undertaking.

SOLUTION TO PROBLEM.

I would like to suggest that the Board of Education take actual management of all instrumental music in the schools, hire competent teachers and have those teachers under the direct control of the superintendent of music. That seems to me the only solution of a knotty problem and the only assurance against repetition of aforesaid disgraceful occurrence.

It will remove the heavy expense of lessons to parents of large families of musical ability. To mind comes one such family of five children. Four boys, all playing their own instruments and their father is a street car conductor.

These boys are paying 25 cents per week for a rehearsal in which but little technical instruction can possibly be given and besides, every boy is told by the leader and by at least one school principal that he should take private lessons from Mr. Smith at $1 per hour if he wishes to play in the "1915 band."

Now, if a man must pay $1.25 per week for each boy's musical instruction should anyone be allowed to tell him to whom he should pay that money, and is not that rather heavy on one man while the next one has nothing to pay, especially as this band is intended to further the commercial as well as the artistic interests of our city?

PRESENT SYSTEM UNSATISFACTORY

Would it not be right if all the taxpaying [illegible] did their share? Also if the Board of Education pays the teachers, each one would be required to pass an examination and prove himself capable to teach his special line of instruments? This thing of one man trying to teach all instruments is very unsatisfactory, because it is almost a physical impossibility for any one to play all instruments and no one can teach successfully what he himself cannot do.

It would only take six or seven teachers to properly handle all the instrumental music in our schools. Such an arrangement would insure perfect harmony in an organization of such an immense size and give each member a real knowledge of music and his instrument of which he could make practical use in later years if he should so choose.

As we have already spent a lot of money for instruments and expect to spend more in the near future it looks like being "penny wise and pound foolish" to economize in the teaching of these instruments.

I sincerely trust that the Board of Education will go to bat for Mr. Wood in whatever action he may take in this matter, and wish to assure them of the public's co-operation in his support.

PRAISES PROFESSOR SMITH.

EDITOR TRIBUNE—None of my children belong to any of the boys' bands that Professor John Smith has organized, drilled and instructed until they have reached their present high standard; neither am I acquainted with any of the children in the bands, and I have only met Professor Smith once, so there can be no personal prejudice in my mind relative to the trouble between the boys and Mr. Woods or the Board of Education.

As a private citizen of Oakland I have been very proud of the boys' bands and their achievements. The loyalty of the boys to their leader, the perfect attention they accord him, Mr. Smith's pride in the boys, his ambition to have a band of one thousand boys for the Panama-Pacific International Exposition and [illegible] of keen satisfaction to thousands of men and women in Oakland beside the par-[illegible]

All these things entitle Professor John Smith to the utmost consideration and I trust that THE TRIBUNE, which has championed the right in so many cases, will do all in its power to see that Professor Smith and his boys are justly treated.

It would be a crime to forcibly deprive him without any good reason of the fruits of his labors.

A. LINCOLN DARROW.

DEFENDS MEN WHO DID DUTY.

Alameda, April 5, 1914.

EDITOR TRIBUNE—A publication of the following article will be deeply appreciated.

Alameda has a gigantic problem to solve! It is a problem of supplying jobs for her unemployed politicians. At the present time some of them are ardently and diligently engaged in the injudicious work of supplying fuel to our contemplated recall. Talleyrand has wisely and truthfully said: "The art of putting the right men in the right places is first in the science of government, but that of finding places for the discontented is the most difficult." No truer words ever spoken.

Yes, let us spend $3500! What mortal right have these men to save $20,000 to the city? What right we ecstatically and impatiently asked. We did not put them there to do things. We put them there to supply jobs for our "mediocre" friends, those friends of ours who find it somewhat hard to earn their own salt.

CONDEMNS FAULTFINDERS.

"Mediocre" minds usually condemn what is beyond the reach of their understanding. Men commonly injure one another without cause, and simply to do something, as an idle promenader in a garden, breaks the young branches and strips off the leaves of the most beautiful flowers.

In Alameda a certain element condemns the achievements of the gentlemen who are threatened with the recall, because these men saw fit to do their "expected" duty. This maliciously attempt to discredit and belittle what these men have so splendidly accomplished. Why this opposition to efficiency? Why this opposition to a plan that means a saving to the city of Alameda? Who cares to answer?

VIEWS ON CIVIC LEAGUE.

First we see a civic league born in a night which, without hesitation or investigation unanimously endorses the so-called recall movement. Since that eventful night this mysterious civic league has lived in words only! What was it organized for? Where does it confine its activity? Who are its paid-in members? [illegible] and file your "terrible" charges there.

Thanking you for your kindness, I beg to remain,

NELSON G. WELBURN.
President Young Men's Civic League.

taxpayers of this city would like to hear answered.

"It is a beautiful state of affairs when good and honest men are subjected to indefensible vituperation and vicious misrepresentation [illegible] make these little noises in mud puddles come out into the open and fight like all honest and fearless men. But simpleton, don't you know that these men never want to engage in such unprofitable work? No, they would rather hide and hit from behind a nom de plume. It's safer.

Now you so-called recallers, stop your howling with the wolves, braying with the asses, and bleating with the sheep, and come out into God's sunshine [illegible] and file your "terrible" charges there.

Thanking you for your kindness, I beg to remain.

What Is the Worth of a Piano Guarantee?

Practically every piano sold, no matter by whom made or of what quality, bears some sort of a guarantee, verbal or written. Usually, the cheaper the piano the more emphatic is the salesman in its praise, the more forceful his explanation of its quality and of the "guarantee" under which it is sold.

Makers of the cheapest pianos, manufacturers whose workmanship, materials and finished product will not stand the closest scrutiny or the test of years of service, seek to hide their deficiencies behind "guarantees" which cover every possible contingency, but which, when closely analyzed, are as worthless and unstable as is the product which they cover.

The best recommendation for the

the best guarantee of its quality and usefulness lies in the fact that, through the great number in use in California and the West, through the many years of steady, honest service given, it has become known as the best medium-priced, the most durable and lasting piano ever offered on the Pacific Coast. There is hardly a village or hamlet in the West that has not its Ludwig Piano, and that Ludwig is the center of admiration of the entire neighborhood.

The Ludwig is a dependable piano. Dependable because its makers are conscientious, earnest and honest. It is a dependable piano because every part of wood, wire, iron, steel, brass and felt, as well as the workmanship which enters into its construction, is of the very highest quality. It is a dependable piano because it is GUARANTEED WITH A REAL GUARANTEE—one that makes good and insures its quality as a never-failing musical asset.

For nearly twenty years we have been selling Ludwig pianos because we believe them, at or near their price, to be unsurpassed, and surely we KNOW THEM WELL. Ludwig pianos may be purchased on easy payments if desired.

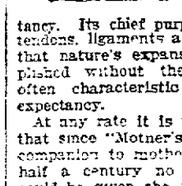
Planning for the Stork's Arrival

Among those things which all women should know of, and many of them do, is a splendid external application sold in most drug stores under the name of "Mother's Friend." [illegible] penetrating liquid and many and many a mother tells how it so wonderfully aided them through the period of expectancy. Its chief purpose is to render the tendons, ligaments and muscles so pliant that nature's expansion may be accomplished without the intense strain so often characteristic of the period of expectancy.



At any rate it is reasonable to believe that since "Mother's Friend" has been a companion to motherhood for more than half a century no more timely advice could be given the inexperienced mother than to suggest its daily use during expectancy.

Ask at any drug store for "Mother's Friend," a penetrating, external liquid of great help and value. And write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 392 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book of useful and timely information to expectant mothers. It contains many suggestions that are of interest to all women.

DEVLIN AND OAKS ARE AT SACRAMENTO FOR TODAY'S GAME

(By L. B. GROSS.)

SACRAMENTO, April 7.—Manager Arthur Devlin, of the Oaks, while on board the train headed for Sacramento, had the following to say with reference a good team despite the fact that the boys made a rather poor showing against the Los Angeles club. The Angels' pitching staff was in great shape and all the breaks were against us. In addition to that, I tried out a number of new twirlers about.

"I look for the team to make a much better showing this week against the Wolves, and if we have our share of the breaks of the game the team will have a much better standing when we return home.

"We have felt keenly the absence of Malarkey and Pruett, who are not in shape as yet, and had I been able to use these two veterans of Los Angeles things might have gone different.

"Killilay and Geyer both showed that they were in shape, while the rest of the pitching staff looks promising.

"It was rather unfortunate for us to have Alexander put out of the game so early in the season, as Mitze does not appear to be in good condition, which will leave the brunt of the work to Arbugust for a couple of weeks at least.

"In conclusion you can say for me that the boys have not lost heart, and that we will all show as much pep Tuesday afternoon at Sacramento as we did one week ago, in the opening game of the season, and will all work our heads off to get back the games we lost in the South.

Despite a rumor to the effect that "Roxy" Middleton was thinking of jumping to the Federals, the Oakland fans need have no fear.

Middleton received an offer from the Federals before he signed his Oakland contract, and he says that if he had not been satisfied with the Oakland Club's terms he would not have signed.

Jack Killilay is sure the hard luck kid. While he twirled sixteen innings of a brand of baseball good enough to win many games at Los Angeles last week, the Oakland team were held helpless by one Jack Ryan of no-hit no-run fame, only one Oak being able to reach second base in the two games. That Oak was Ness who accomplished that wonderful feat in Sunday's game.

When, a week or so ago, George Wheeler, manager of the Fresno team in the State League, remarked that there was a young player on the Los Angeles Club who was going to give "Rube" Ellis a run for his place in the out garden, it was hard to believe.

However, such proved the case last week at Los Angeles. The youngster's name is Harper, and he came to the Angels from the San Jose Club of the State League.

Harper played a most brilliant game in the field last week as well as hitting the ball on the nose, and if he can keep up this pace, Ellis is liable to decorate the bench this season.

Twirler Jack Killilay stopped off at Fresno, where he will spend a day or two with his wife and mother-in-law before joining the team at Sacramento. Jack thought he had earned a couple of days' rest and asked Devlin for the same, which was readily granted.

"Skatter" Kisserling is a rather slick young man, and has asked the boss for a leave to go to his home above Woodland [illegible] Sacramento.

The Oakland Club will make their headquarters at the Hotel Sacramento while here. Manager Wolverton of the Sacramento Club was out to meet the boys on their arrival here this morning.

The attendance at Los Angeles last week was extra good, considering the one-sided contests and the cloudy weather and rain during the latter part of the week.

The scribes of Los Angeles are of the opinion that "Rod" Murphy, the Oaks' spunky second baseman, will develop into one of the best in the league before the season is over.

Murphy's only fault is that he appears to be over-anxious, a difficulty he should overcome without much trouble.

HEINRICH SCHMIDT IS STAY-AT-HOME

NEW YORK, March 7.—W. Heinrich Schmidt, former Massachusetts golf champion, who did so well at St. Andrews last year, in a letter to a friend in this city from California states that it will be impossible for him to compete in the British amateur championship at Sandwich on account of business. Harold Weber at Inverness, who was at St. Andrews last year, will try his fortune again this season, and has sent in his entry to the Royal St. George golf club.

The American entrants in the British championship are Travers, Hereshoff, Ouimet and Lockwood, who already are in England. Henry T. Topping is on his way, while Parker W. Whittemore, Harold Webar and Frazer Hale have decided to go. Charles Evans Jr. has made no definite announcement, but it is believed in golfing circles that he will go in a couple of weeks.

VANCOUVER TAKES A DOUBLE HEADER

VANCOUVER, B. PARKER THINKS MASON WILL BE WINNER TONIGHT

WHEELMEN'S PAVILION
Tonight 8 O'clock.

TEN ROUNDS.
Frankie Burns vs. Geo. Mason.
SIX ROUNDS.
Tom Nickola vs. Johnny Soudenberg.
[illegible] vs. [illegible]
Jimmy Ross vs. "Kate" Silva.
One four-round preliminary.

(By THE TIMEKEEPER.)

Frankie Burns, the greatest little "dream champion" who ever climbed through the ropes and scraped his feet in the resin box, will try and puncture the Philadelphia mystery "George Mason" over the ten-route round in Piedmont Rink. The bout is arranged by the West Oakland Club but staged at the Wheelmen's Quarters because of the [illegible] that the card was made up quickly, the quality of the bouts offered guarantees [illegible] seen for some time.

Burns is always an immense drawing card in his home town, largely because he boxes at his best when here, and there is always the probability of a knockout when Burns is one of the men in the ring.

The speculative public, which has installed Burns such a strong favorite over this sturdy son of swat, should not overlook the fact that the astute Kid Parker, for years associated with Burns, is now allied with Mason, and will by this time have taught Bob Shan's good boy all the weak and strong points of Fearless Frankie.

"Don't let anyone tell you this bird can't hit," said Parker. "I've been too long in the game not to tell a fighter when I see one. Mason can hit as hard as any chap of his weight I have ever seen. Anyone who can knock O'Leary flat with a short arm jab, has the steam that wins contests. Frankly, I look to see Mason win tonight, particularly if he follows my instructions and I think he will."

"Burns has nothing on me," declared Mason last night, "and if I fail to beat him tonight I might as well quit the game. I know every trick that Burns will try to pull tonight and I have some of my own which he knows nothing about. They call me 'Mysterious Mason' and I am going to show them plenty of [illegible] tonight. [illegible] I am just as shifty, and as fast as Burns and I know that I can hit harder. There will surely be a new 'pride of Oakland' after tonight's contest."

And the youngster whom Bob Shand discovered on Broadway selling newspapers and sent to the front never batted an eye. He is absolutely sincere in his belief that he can win from Burns and he will be tearing into the blonde lightweight right from the jump.

Burns thinks he has a cinch. Frankie told us this morning that it was going to be a Burns' victory and that the battle would not last more than five rounds. The local lad thinks a right cross to the jaw will put the crusher on Mason's ambitions early in the fight and Frankie is going to finish matters as fast as he can. "The Mason kind never worry me," declared Frankie this morning, "and unless the newcomer has more stuff than he displayed against O'Leary I will lick him in jig time. Mason pulled a lot of fresh stuff on me after the O'Leary bout and I am going to grab plenty of revenge tonight."

The battle promises to be one of the most sensational ever seen in Oakland and indications point to a record house. The show will take place at the Wheelmen's pavilion but will be under the auspices of the West Oakland Club. The pavilion at the West End is in the hands of the carpenters but will be used again by the club next month.

Tom Nickola and Johnny Soudenberg are on edge for their six-round special event and the fur is sure to fly when this pair tangle. Nickola has been trained by Nick Peralta and looms up in the [illegible] and Willie Fitzsimmons will tangle in another six-round mill while Jimmy Ross (Racehorse Munzo) and "Kate" Silva will travel the same route. Jim Griffin will referee.

Young Shugrue, the New Jersey lightweight, is in town, and will leave today for Australia, where he is to fight for "Snowy" Baker.

The Hawthorne Club has made up its card of four-round bouts for this week. Joe Bayley, the Canadian lightweight, who made a good impression against Willie Hoppe a couple of weeks ago, will go up against Willie Robinson in the main event. The rest of the card follows:

Sally Salvadore vs. Tommy McFarland, lightweights.

Roy Moore vs. Eddie Miller, bantamweights.

Jimmy Drexal vs. Herb Brodie, lightweights.

Young Jackson vs. Charlie Givens, lightweights.

Jack Morris vs. Rufe Cameron, heavyweights.

Cy Bronson vs. Jack Burns, welterweights.

"Kid" Bertelsen vs. Eddie McFarland, bantamweights.

Charles Cochran, a London boxing promoter, is out with an offer of a $25,000 purse for a match between the winner of the Ritchie-Murphy go and Freddie Welsh, the bout to take place in London about June 30 of this year.

A game of golf yesterday was the starting point in Willie Ritchie's training work. Willie will get down to real work at Millett's camp sometime today, and figures it will be easy work getting down to 135 pounds as he weighs but 140 at the present time.

Jim Buckley, manager of Gunboat Smith has received an offer from Dick Burge of England of $20,000, as a purse for a Gunboat Smith-George Carpentier match in England next summer. Buckley will talk the matter over with Promoter James Coffroth before he replies to Burge.

KILLIFER JUMPED TO FATTER SALARY

CHICAGO, April 7.—An offer of an increase in salary of $666 a year was the reason why William Killifer, the baseball [illegible] jumped back to the Philadelphia National league club after having signed a Federal league contract, according to a statement today by James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal league.

The difference of $666 and the breaking of the Federal league contract led to the first decisive legal fight between organized baseball and the new league, which has asked the federal court at Grand Rapids, Mich., to enjoin Killifer from playing with the Philadelphia club.

Gilmore said Killifer's contract with the Federal league called for the payment of $17,500 for three years' playing. The contract Killifer signed later with the Philadelphia club called for the payment of $19,500 for a like period, a difference of $666 a year, according to Gilmore.

The Freshman crew of the University of Washington, which made the trip with the Varsity for the first time in the history of the institution, is an object of pride to the northwest school. The boat has been given the Varsity crew some hard nobs of late in practice races on Lake Washington, and is much praised by Coach Connibear.

During their stay here both Varsity and Freshman crews will stay at the [illegible] and will use the [illegible] daily for practice [illegible] suits every forenoon on the Oakland Estuary.

The shells that the Washington crews will use are both new and are very much of the same pattern as the new California shell. The boats, "Seattle Spirit I" and Seattle Spirit II," were purchased largely with funds raised by the Seattle Chamber of Commerce.

Coach Connibear is not prone to view championships with a rosy aspect. He prefers to say that the varsity crew, which will compete this year is just about as good as the one that won handily from California and Stanford last [illegible] but to make any comparisons, man for man, with the last year's crew.

Washington goes into the triangular regatta with four men who have never participated in a race before. "Rusty" Kumm, rowing at No. 2, is a sophomore and has been turning out consistently for the past two years. His work during the past three weeks got him a boost from the second boat to the first boat.

Rose, rowing No. 3, a junior, likewise has never pulled an oar in a varsity race but has shown rare form this spring. Schumacher, who made a great showing last year on the freshman eight, has made a dash for the varsity boat and will row No. 4 in the Pacific Coast regatta. Brokaw will row bow, last year rowed by former Captain Ed Taylor. Brokaw is one of the best men Washington has ever had in seat No. 1 and he has the best form of any man rowing in recent years. All the rest of the men have experience.

Despite the fact that he was called from No. 2 and selected to stroke the varsity in the forthcoming race to succeed Captain Henry Zimmerman, Jimmy Frankland has made a wonderful showing. Frankland does not pretend to be an expert pace setter, but he promises to hold up his end with any of the strokes representing the varsity. Walske, Catlin and Callow are far better than they were last year.

Billy Fitz Says, Says he:

The second week of the series begins this afternoon with Oakland playing at Sacramento, Portland at San Francisco, and Venice at Los Angeles. Next week Oakland goes to Portland, Sacramento to Venice and Los Angeles to San Francisco. Not until the fourth week and each team has met the other, will it be fair to any to begin making comparisons.

Oakland was never very successful in its operation at Sacramento, the Wolves always managing to nick the Oaks at a time when every nick hurts. This year it may be different, for the Capital City crew does not appear to have the same stride it enjoyed last year, and there has been a shuffling of pitchers on both clubs.

Across the bay this afternoon Higginbotham will probably start against Skeeter Fanning, and if the Seal is in better condition than he was opening day it should be a great battle. Higginbotham was always effective against the Seals.

Oakland fans can find little food for encouragement in the first batting records made public today. Carl Mitze leads the team with .500 and Gus Herling is next with .364. Rod Murphy and Jack Ness are each batting .333. Naylor, Quinlan, Gardner and Middleton, who were hitting like fiends right up to opening day, slumped against the effectiveness of the Angel band. Murphy, who stole three bases on opening day, could not filter any more and Lober leads with four. Ty Lober, the flashy Portland outfielder, who was a sensation last year, comes right back with the top clouting mark of .888 made in 17 trips to the plate. Schaller and Joe Tobin lead the Seals. Tobin was the run getter of the week, crossing the plate eight times. The figures:

DENVER HANGS UP A $2000 STAKE

In an effort to secure the fastest pacers in the country to compete against Braden Direct, 2:07¼, the Colorado born and bred pacing champion, as a two, three and four-year-old, President W. A. [illegible] of the Overland Park and Racing Association, which is to conduct a 19-day mixed race at Overland Park, Denver, Colo., June 13 to July 4 inclusive, has hung up a $2000 stake for the free-for-all pace. This is the largest stake ever offered for a race in the Rocky Mountain region.

In past seasons the Durfee, De Ryder, Foote, Clark and similar high class harness stables from California and the Northwest annually stopped over in Denver on their way to the grand circuit, and this year promises to be no exception.

SAN JOSE GETS PLAYER.

AUBURN, N. Y., April 7. — Chairman John Farrell of the National Board of Arbitration gave out today among others, the following baseball decision: Services of [illegible] to San Jose.

[illegible] ACCURATE

Doc White of Venice and Jack Ryan of Los Angeles jumped off in the lead of pitchers. Ryan gets the honors under President Baum's new system of figuring the pitching records. He shut out Oakland in both games, while White was responsible for the one run San Francisco scored. A number of the boys got through with perfect percentages in games won and lost, but they were hit so freely that it will make a difference in figuring their standing at the end of the season. The record follows:

CALGARY VS. U. OF C.

This afternoon the University of California baseball team will contest with the Calgary team of the Canadian League on California Field at Berkeley. The lineup which was announced for the Blue and Gold team for Saturday's game against Stanford will be seen on the field this afternoon. A game today and one tomorrow will probably close the competition for the California team prior to the second game of the Stanford-California series next Saturday.

STANFORD TO MEET ST. MARY'S.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, April 7.—Stanford is to meet St. Mary's ball players in the final practice game of the season on Wednesday. The game was arranged this afternoon by Manager R. W. Wilcox to fill in the prolonged schedule made so by the necessity of postponing the intercollegiate game with California until next Saturday. Captain Terry will have Hayes, Halm and possibly Maplo on the firing line for battery duty.

CHANCE FOR SOME OAK SLABSTER TO WIN LOVING CUP

(Special to THE TRIBUNE.)

PORTLAND, Or., April 7. — At a special meeting of the Gus C. Moser Booster club today a committee was appointed to select a solid silver cup to be presented by the club to the winning pitcher of the opening Pacific Coast League game in Portland between the Beavers and Arthur Devlin's Oaks, April 14.

Higginbotham, who won the opening already been selected as moundsman for the Beavers, while Devlin has yet to announce the Oakland pitcher.

The Gus C. Moser Booster Club is making the presentation in the hope that the opening day hoodoo may be shattered for all time and that Hig will keep the cup in Portland to top off the mantelpiece.

The committee was instructed to spend a minimum of $50 on the cup and it is probable it will cost between that sum and $75, as it is desired to obtain a solid silver loving cup, at least 10 inches in

The members of the purchasing committee are Dr. T. L. Perkins, Harry Allen and Will G. MacRae, the latter a well known sporting editor and writer and now campaign secretary for Moser's campaign for the gubernatorial nomination on the Republican ticket.

RICHMOND - VALLEJO JOIN LEAGUE

The second meeting of the team managers representing the up-country league took place at Crockett last Saturday night and the rules and regulations drawn up. It was decided that the league be known as the Industrial Intercounty League and is to be composed of the following teams: Napa, B. W. Green, manager; Vallejo, Dan Gillen; Crockett, Heine Kamerer; Benicia, W. McLain; Richmond, W. Greathouse; Suisun, M. J. Carroll; Oakland Tribune, W. R. Crosby; and Standard Gas Engine Company, Mat Mathias.

Al Earl was elected president, Heine Ramerer treasurer and M. J. Carroll secretary.

The selection of an outside man as president seems to be a very good move on the part of the managers.

The league will begin their games on April 26 and will run through July.

REACH'S 1914 GUIDE BOOK OUT

The Reach Baseball Guide for 1914 is out, containing its usual fund of information. The guide this year is larger than ever and contains many noteworthy features. The American league field is especially covered, including matters affecting noteworthy games, special pitching feats, batsmen's records and fielding records of all players in that association.

Group pictures of nearly all the teams and records of their work are given for 35 minor leagues.

The complete playing code of rules and regulations is, as usual, given fully.

JOHN J. McGRAW

"Tuxedo gives to my pipe smoking a keen enjoyment that I have experienced with no other tobacco. Supreme in mildness and fragrance is Tuxedo."

LARRY LAJOIE

"Tuxedo and I have been friends for years, and the longer I use it the better I like its mild, soothing effects."

The Favorite of Your Favorite

TEN chances to one, your favorite ballplayer smokes Tuxedo. We have scores of testimonials from the crack men of the crack nines all over the country, saying that they enjoy Tuxedo and recommending it to you.

Also—look around you the next time you pick out that soft seat in the bleachers or grandstand and see how many of your neighbors are packing their pipes with Tuxedo or rolling it into cigarettes.

Size up the men who are smoking and endorsing Tuxedo. They're real men, full of life and the joy of life.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo is in a class by itself. It has many imitators—but in the pipe it has no equal. It is made of the best selected Burley Tobacco, the finest that Kentucky grows, ripened, cured and aged until it has reached the tip-top of mildness, mellowness and sweetness. Then it is treated by the original "Tuxedo Process" which takes out all the sting so it cannot possibly bite—even if you should smoke it all day long.

You simply cannot buy better tobacco at any price. Try Tuxedo today. You will see why these men are so fond of it.

Two-base hits—Sheehan, Rudolph, Homan and Worth. Stolen bases—Ross, Tubbs, Harvey. Double plays—Williams to Sheehan to Van Dorn. Base on balls—Off Rudolph, 7; off A. Garbisi, 5. Struck out—By pitcher—Deagne and Johns by Rudolph; Merrihelli by Garbisi. Left on bases—Irvington 5, Livermore 5. Earned runs—Irvington 2, Livermore 0. Time of game—1 hour and 40 minutes.

The Ashbys won a double-header Sunday in the morning at Bay View park, they took on the Alerts and defeated them 11 to 6. They took to batting early in the game, which Fenton and Short started. This inning gave them five runs. In the afternoon they defeated St. Ambrose in a one-sided game by a score of 9 to 1. This game was at San Pablo park.

Both games were featured by the hitting of Fenton, Strobl, Karasky and Zieran. Zieran and Varley pitched the ball, striking out about nine batters each. Batteries—Ashbys: Varley, Holland, Zieran and Keane. Alerts: Lewis and Clement; St. Ambrose, Cotton, Bell and Palmgren.

KAHNS DOWN TAILORS.

The presumably unbeatable Ambrose Tailors' team met their Waterloo Sunday when they tackled the fast Kahn Bros.' team at Fitchburg. It was just by chance that these two crack teams had the opportunity of hooking up together. On account of the Ambrose Tailors-Modesto game being called off on Saturday and the Kahn-Pittsburg contest declared off on account of wet grounds, the two managers got together and staged one of the greatest games of the season. The Ambrose Tailors have defeated everything around the bay even since the Coast League and if it takes a good team to beat them, but "Lefty" Hicks, who was on the mound for the Hermanns, was equal to the occasion and pitched the game of his life against this hard-hitting aggregation, allowing but seven scattered hits. His support was great, and although the game was close until the seventh inning, not one of them [illegible]. In the seventh inning Chet Rost, who played a great game of short, sent two men across the plate on a double to left thereby tying the game for Hicks, tightened up and allowed but one hit in the remaining innings. Abrahamson was on the job with the stick and ran play and scored Crosby from second in the fifth game, one of the three runs in the fifth. Ambrose came back in the eighth when their heavy-hitting catcher, [illegible] Baldwin, connected with a drive to [illegible] that went for a homer, and then assisted Fitch Wetzel, who played a star game at third, scored on a wild throw to third by [illegible] but this ended the scoring for the Tailors. Kogler, in left field for Kahns brought the fans to their feet when he pulled off a couple of running catches that were sure [illegible] for hits and long ones at that. Fitzgerald, who opened the first each, made a great showing with the stick, he getting three good [illegible]. Pete Coddington at third had three assists and three assists without a bobble. Jimmie Joyce in the short position, which he was last able to knock down, but recovered in time to get his man at first.

"Pat" Pippo was on great form behind the bat and signed three that tried to purloin a bag. Louis Kahn was sent in to bat for Jackson in the eighth inning and laid down a perfect bunt along the first base line. Baldwin throwing the ball wild to first and Louis raced on to second, but the umps said "foul," so Louis had to try over again and grounded out to second after a hard try.

Both umpires worked to perfection and not a wrangle was brought up in the game, which shows what can be done when two good teams hook up, even if they are both fighting hard for a game. These two teams will probably play the opening game at Healdsburg on the 19th instant, when the Ambrose aggregation up there as the home club. Healdsburg could not have selected a better management to take hold of their baseball situation than Ambrose, and besides, he has a crackerjack team ready to step in and bring home the bacon for the up-country town.

Ebner, the new left fielder for Ambrose, looms up good and sure hits the ball. He landed one one for two bags which was a terrific drive. Gill Petersen also touched up one for two sacks. Next Sunday Kahns will go to Irvington and tackle the fast aggregation from that town, and it is rumored that they have some team down the county, they de-feating the crack Livermore team last Sunday; so Jimmie Joyce, hustle up those star hurlers. Below is how they did it:

The Boyle & Lawlors and the Ambrose Tailors No. 2 [illegible] Sunday on the West Oakland grounds. "Shiner" Moyles, who relieved McLaughlin in the third inning, pitched fine ball, allowing but two hits, one run, and fanned six. Lyons, on the receiving end, did good work. "Speed" Burnett was the hitter of the day, receiving a triple and [illegible], and also stealing home. Mullin, pitching for the losers, was wild, walking eight. Whittier secured a homer.

The Boyle & Lawlors will tackle "Brick" Devereaux' Calgary team at Alameda, started at 2:30. The West Oaklanders will have their regular line-up on the field and should give the "Red Log" a hard tussle for the long end of the score.

San Leandro has organized a team for the coming year. "Crabbe" Maltester, who started the season with Bertillion, has been signed to manage the team. "Iron Man" Coffey, who won seven straight for the S. J. S. Victors, will share the pitching with Murphy, who pitched for San Leandro last year. Morton, who won fame with the Olsen-Mahoney team last season, will hold down first. Jackson, a Chicago city leaguer, will cover the middle station; Vargas, the clever shortstop, will be in his old stamping grounds, and Camber will hold third. Perry Enos, H. Camber, Rodger, the Morgan Hill star, and Maltesher complete the team. Teams desiring games notify Ellery Arms booking agency.

The newly organized Egbert Bros.' team defeated the Avalons at Bushrod park Sunday afternoon by a score of 10 to 7. Zales, for the winners, allowed four hits, but was given poor support in tight places, which accounted for the [illegible] caught a clever game for the losers' team. He also broke into the hit column. Jimmie Scott had his batting eye working nicely, getting safely four out of five times at bat.

THE FAN'S SPRING SONG.

I'm going to boost as never before
(Says I to myself, says I).
When the home team is whipped I'll not holler for gore
(Says I to myself, says I).
And should we get trimmed in the next pennant race,
Or not ever garner a fourth or fifth place,
I'll not yell "A fake," but I'll smile with good grace
(Says I to myself, says I).

I'll not knock the ump—he is human, you know
(Says I to myself, says I).
And when he is right I'll admit he is so
(Says I to myself, says I).
I'll come with a will to the manager's aid
And barter my hammer and purchase a spade
With which I will bury mistakes I have made.

My coaching remarks shall be tempered with love
(Says I to myself, says I).
My language as clean as the seraphs above
(Says I to myself, says I).
I'll not ask for passes, but pay at the gate;
I'll settle my bets without cursing my fate,
And wife shan't wait, for I'll never be late
(Save I to myself, says I).

POME.

In the Spring a young man's fancy
[illegible]
Thoughts of bunts and two-base wallops,
Bleacher sets and amber brew,
Dismal thoughts of being fired,
Gloomy thoughts of leaving home.
Happy thoughts of buying Kellys,
Tasteful kellys for his dome.

Yea, it also turns to fishing
(We're discussing fancy yet)
Thoughts of golfing, boating, tennis,
Mandolining too, you bet—
Visions fair of radiant maidens,
Tripping neatly o'er the turf,
Strolling through the woodland coolness,
Splashing out to meet the surf.

In the Spring a young man's fancy
Pulls a flock of foolish tricks,
Let the Springtime fever flourish.
There's no Spring beyond the Styx.

Far be it from us to wax pessimistic, but we have finally come to the conclusion that the day is not far distant when asylums will be built for and populated solely by the sane, and that a sane man will be considered then as much of a menace to society as are the insane now. It is [illegible] because the sane outnumber the insane now that the latter are considered dangerous and jammed into private institutions where padded furniture abounds. When the nuts outnumber the squirrels the order will be reversed and the world will roll along a darn sight more smoothly, because the worth-while people can work undisturbed by the prattle of pecans.

The move to bar women from the [illegible] English, whose brick-throwing suffragettes would undoubtedly run away with all the weight events.

The English now believe the hand that rocks the cradle can also rock a house.

The California-Stanford tennis matches, which were to have been finished last [illegible] playing Saturday but it is hoped that nothing will interfere this time. The California team has already won two of the matches and need but one more out of the three yet to be played to cinch the California championship.

VARSITY TO MEET OLYMPIC CLUB.

The Olympic Club will come to Berkeley next Saturday for the final practice meet of the season. Stanford humbled the clubmen 61-43 two weeks ago, but extra forces have been recruited since then and the Olympic Club will be [illegible] Caughey, Parker, Templeton and Power will compete. The team is sure to include such men as Henry, Rose or Cox, Millard, Gish and Stolz. The meet will be arranged early in the afternoon, between the crew race and ball game.

Beginning next week St. Mary's College will start their handball players at the Wheelmen's Club. The singles tournament will be first on the program, and the entries are coming in fast to Coach Otto Ritter.

Pomona's track team returned to the South Saturday night without meeting California's runners. After a meet with Stanford a week ago last Friday, the squad came to Berkeley and have waited over a week for the California races. When the heavy rain made the track unusable Saturday, Manager Hankey gathered his forces together and went home, as the team's leave of absence from college expires this morning.

BARBOUR LIKES THIS LEAGUE

That third baseman Barbour of the Chicago White Sox would welcome the change to play in the coast league was the statement made by Clarence Smith, the pitcher obtained from the Sox by the Angels.

Smith says he is well pleased because of his transfer. He has sent for his wife and she is on her way here from her southern home.

The Oaks made an offer for Barbour, but before any definite terms had been reached for a deal the local club decided after all he was not the man they wanted for the job.

SAMMY TRINKLE PUTS LA GRAVE OUT

Sammy Trinkle beat Anton La Grave in the thirteenth round of a twenty-round bout at Vallejo last night, Referee Frank Schuller stopping it after La Grave had been knocked down three times in the thirteenth round.

In the preliminaries Murphy Tilly lost a four-round decision to Ed Kiser; Kid Perry of Napa won a four-round decision from Young Gender of Vallejo, and Bill Schaffer of Vallejo knocked out Jack Seibert of San Francisco in the second round of a scheduled four-round bout.

JAPANESE PLAYERS EN ROUTE HERE

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 7. — Fifteen Japanese baseball players, composing the team of Keio University of Japan, arrived from the Orient today on the steamship Empress of Russia and will tour the Pacific Coast, playing in Seattle, Tacoma and Corvallis, Oregon, arriving at San Francisco April 17.

LIVERMORE ATHLETES TRAINING.

The Livermore High school track team is holding daily workouts in preparation for the track and field meet to take place at Centerville in a couple of weeks between Hayward, Anderson Academy, Centerville and Livermore for the championship of the C. A. C. A. L. Captain Mehrman pins his faith to Sangmaster, Weber, Phelps, Groth, Zardella, Kelly, Poco, Henry Wagner, Fredendolph and Monhan.

KILBANE GETS VERDICT.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 7.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, was given the newspaper decision here over Gene Delmont of Memphis at the end of a rather tame eight-round bout. By agreement no decision was given by the referee.

BILLIARD NOTES

R. E. Hummel qualified for another round in the handicap tourney at 3 cushion carroms in Wright's billiard room last night by defeating L. C. Gurnsey playing 16 points to the latter's 21.

The more heavily handicapped man who won second prize in last year's series in these parlors, was not in his usual good form and only reached 16 when Hummel ran out with a double-header in the 45th inning, an average of .355. Each man made a high run of three, Guernesey, having lost two games, is now out. Tonight F. D. Hurlbut last season's champion, plays 25 to 16 by P. A. La Tourette, and having already been defeated once, must get this contest to stay in the present tournament.

SPECIAL TRAIN WILL [illegible] FOLLOW CREWS

Ticket reservations for the special train which will follow the triangular crew race between Washington, California and Stanford next Saturday began this morning.

Fraternities and clubs were personally canvassed last week, with the proposition that a promise to purchase thirty tickets would reserve a car. Already many of the organizations have taken advantage of this offer.

The committee in charge of the train is making every effort to insure the comfort of the spectators, and has made several improvements over the system as carried out last year. The special will parallel both the 'varsity and freshman races, and will give a view of nearly twice as much of the course as in past years.

For the convenience of the college public, cars will be reserved in three classes, namely, for men, for the A. W. S., and for escorts and ladies. Tickets have been numbered, so as to correspond to the cars, and thus all confusion in filling the trains will be avoided. Tickets are 75 cents each.

EASTERN BASEBALL

NEW ORLEANS, La., April 7. — With Mathewson pitching in mid-season form the New York National regulars defeated the New Orleans Southern Association team here today, 3 to 1. Marquard probably would not play until the opening of the season as he is suffering from a torn leg ligament. Score:

New York	3	3	1
New Orleans	0	4	1

Batteries — Mathewson and McLean; Styles and Higgins.

BALTIMORE, April 6. — The Brooklyn Nationals defeated the Baltimore Internationals, 3 to 2. Score:

Brooklyn	3	6	1
Baltimore	2	7	3

Batteries—Fisher, Danforth and Egan.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 7. — Timely batting combined with an error gave the Indianapolis American Association club a 4 to 3 victory over the Boston Americans. The game was called in the seventh on account of rain. Score:

Boston	3	4	1
Indianapolis	4	5	2

Batteries—Collins, Ziegler and Carrigan; Willis, Gaskill and Vann.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, April 7.—Armando Marsans, the Cuban outfielder who was ordered out of a game with Louisville last week by Manager Herzog of the Cincinnati team and who refused to play in games since then, had a long conference with Herzog and will rejoin the team today. Marsans had been quoted as saying that he would jump to the Federal League.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 7. — The Cleveland American Association team defeated Birmingham here 3 to 1.

NORMAN, Okla., April 7. — The Chicago American League first club shut out the University of Oklahoma, 7 to 0. Score:

Chicago	7	1	0
Oklahoma	0	4	2

Batteries—Walsh, Jasper and Daily; Pandler and Sweizer.

Lemke, Township Register.

REPORT OF FRANCHISE AND LICENSE COMMITTEE.

The Franchise and License Committee reported favorably on the following liquor applications, there being no protests:

Southern Pacific Company for Str. Alameda.

F. G. Duarte, Centerville.

Thereupon, on motion of Supervisor Kelley, seconded by Supervisor Bridge, appropriate resolutions were introduced and adopted granting to said Southern Pacific Company and said Duarte permits to obtain licenses for the sale of liquor for one year.

TO REPAIR MOORE CANYON ROAD.

The following resolution was introduced:

Whereas, It was deemed necessary in the judgment of this Board of Supervisors of the County of Alameda, State of California, that because of a slide occuring during the winter, a portion of County Road known as Moore Canyon Road in Palomares Road District, Eden Township, Alameda County, California, be altered, now, therefore, be it

Resolved, that the County Surveyor be and he is hereby directed to make the necessary surveys, descriptions and to prepare plans, specifications and an estimate of cost of said work.

On motion of Supervisor Bridge, seconded by Supervisor Murphy, the resolution was adopted.

VIEWERS' REPORT FOR OPENING VALLEJO STREET, ALVARADO.

The following report of viewers, together with oath, was received and ordered filed:

To the Honorable, the Board of Supervisors, County of Alameda, State of California. Gentlemen: We, the viewers appointed by order of your Honorable Body to view and survey a proposed road forty-eight (48) feet in width, as petitioned for by August May and others on February 24, 1914, said road being Vallejo street from Horner street northerly to Harlan street, being in Washington Road District, do report as follows, to-wit:

That we are disinterested citizens of the County of Alameda and are not petitioners for said proposed road.

That we have been duly sworn to discharge our duties as said viewers.

That we have laid out, surveyed and viewed said proposed road.

That the general route of the proposed road is as more particularly described.

A strip of land forty-eight (48) feet in width being twenty-four (24) feet on either side of the center line of Vallejo street, in Alvarado, from the northerly line of County Road No. 5551, to a point 283 feet northerly from the northerly line of Beard street, as said streets are delineated and so designated on that certain map entitled "Map of Alvarado" [illegible] filed in the office of the Recorder of Alameda County, California, July 21, 1860.

That the length of the proposed road, [illegible] that at this time the County of Alameda owns an easement for road purposes over the land required for said proposed road.

That the proposed road is free from fences and other obstructions or encroachments for its full width of forty-eight (48) feet throughout its entire length.

We, therefore, recommend that the prayer of the petitioners be granted, and that the hereinabove described piece or parcel of land be declared to be a County Road and public highway of the County [illegible] known as County Road No. 5551.

Respectfully submitted,

[illegible] WITTMAN,
O. J. EMERY,
Viewers.

On motion of Supervisor Murphy, seconded by Supervisor Bridge, requisite notice to non-consenting land owners was directed to be published in the Township Register, hearing being set for Monday, April 20, 1914, at 10 o'clock a. m.

HAYWARD-LIVERMORE ROAD WORK.

CITY BUYS BATCH OF HIGHWAY BONDS

Harbor Money Not Needed for Year Invested in State Securities.

RICHMOND, April 7.—The city council last evening voted to buy $2 [illegible] worth of state highway bonds bearing [illegible] per cent interest. The securities are to be supplied by E. H. Rollins & Son, of San Francisco. The money for this purchase is taken from the inner harbor fund secured by the city from the sale of its own securities.

When the money from the inner harbor and tunnel was voted it was arranged that a certain per cent of such bonds sold should go to the tunnel and a certain per cent to the inner harbor work proper. The tunnel work is now progressing and bonds have been sold from time to time, but in order to get funds for the tunnel work bonds for the harbor also were placed. Now the city finds that it has $200,000 worth of harbor money on hand and which it will not need for some time. It has been decided to invest in state highway bonds to be sold later as the harbor money is needed. The interest received from the state highway bonds will be used to pay interest on the tunnel bonds.

EXPERT IS WITNESS IN DYNAMITE TRIAL

MARTINEZ, April 7.—John Birmingham, a wellknown explosive expert, called by the [illegible] to withstand the greater part of this morning in the trial of R. P. Mooney, who is charged with having high explosives in his possession. Birmingham's evidence was admitted over the continued objection of Attorney H. L. Lester for Mooney. Birmingham stated that the fulminating caps found in Mooney's boat were of a very explosive nature. The only other two witnesses examined today were F. J. Land an explosive expert and Joseph Silverfoot of Berkeley. Silverfoot was a former employee of Mooney. [illegible] testimony was not of as much importance. It is expected that the prosecution will close its case this afternoon.

DELEGATES CHOSEN TO ATTEND EAGLE CONCLAVE

The following delegates were elected by Oakland Aerie No. 7, F. O. E., to attend the state convention of Eagles to be held at Fort Bragg in the latter part of May: Frank Barnet, Morgan A. Fitzpatrick, Sam Short, Henry Knoeckel, F. Yost, F. Brenneiser, Joseph Herbert, F. A. T. Stevens, Ike Foster.

The state convention this fall is to be a lively affair, as many important constitutional amendments will be presented for consideration as also the selection of state officers, for which there are many aspirants.

The representatives of the lodges of Alameda County will be asked to organize for the purpose of inviting the state aerie to convene at Oakland in 1915.

NEW PORCELAIN FACTORY TO LOCATE IN RICHMOND

RICHMOND, April 7.—This city can now truthfully lay claim to being the center of the porcelain manufacturing industry in the West. Three of the largest local factories are at present devoted to the manufacture of porcelain ware and today another company to make plumbers' supplies in the porcelain line was incorporated, with a capital stock of $200,000. Louis G. Bonzagni, manager of the Italian Popular Bank of Oakland; F. J. Whiting, also of Oakland; Harry Ellis, a local banker and capitalist; H. G. Schaerkoff, local hospital owner, and P. B. Macquiddy, realty operators, are the incorporators. They would not give out further information today except to state that their company represents San Francisco, Oakland and Richmond capital, and that one of the best known porcelain men in the country will have charge of the factory to be erected in the Gately ranch, north of this city.

"EFFECT OF TOLLS ON U. S. SHIPPING," TOPIC

"The Effect of the Panama Canal Tolls on American Shipping," will be the topic of an informal discussion at the noon luncheon of the Manufacturers' Committee tomorrow at the Hotel Oakland, when Professor Lincoln Hutchinson, of the University of California, who has made a close study of the problem, will lead in the consideration of all angles of this question. The original bill, and the effect of its repeal will be taken up in minute detail by the manufacturers under the direction of the expert. Resolutions voicing the decision of the gathering will probably be passed, following the discussion, according to the officers of the committee. John T. Scott, chairman, will act as toastmaster.

WEDS, JOINS COMMAND, AND NOW IS DIVORCED

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—December 24, 1907, Miss Nina Tharp was introduced to Clarence Tharp, who informed him that he was in the bakery business and [illegible]. It was a joyous occasion and with Capid hovering near, Clarence decided to wed. The next day Tharp informed his bride that he was a private in an infantry regiment which had been transferred to the north. He must join his command he said, but would write to her and send her funds to join him [illegible] since, and when she told Judge Graham today she was granted a divorce decree.

RAILWAY COMPANY TO DOUBLE TRACK

San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Company to Lay More Rails.

RICHMOND, April 7.—A permit was [illegible] by the council last evening to the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways Company to double track the lines of the company in Twenty-third street, from Ohio to Macdonald, and in Macdonald avenue from Twenty-third street to Ashland avenue. Traffic Manager Brown of Oakland, who addressed the council, stated that the expenditure would mean $200,000 and that the work would be started tomorrow morning.

The city council has been trying for two years to get the company to do this work, which also includes a considerable amount of paving, but owing to the Smith financial troubles the city has been lenient with the corporation. This work will give the company a double track from Oakland to the Santa Fe depot here and through the most thickly populated section of town.

CHARTER LEAGUE TO HOLD MEETING

Great Interest Shown in Gathering Called in Richmond This Evening.

RICHMOND, April 7.—There is great interest in the mass meeting called this evening for the auditorium of the Lincoln school in Tenth street when the voting of a new city charter on the commission or city manager plan will be set under way. The meeting has been called by the charter league which represents only a small number of citizens and some very interesting development are anticipated as it is intimated that the opponents and the champions of the commission form of government will be on hand in numbers in an effort to "capture the meeting."

That there are some needs for a change in the present charter is admitted by the practical folks who are endeavoring to keep the faction which want an expensive form of administration from controlling.

RALPH H. PEILLLION CLAIMS APRIL BRIDE

RICHMOND, April 7.—A pretty romance of a year was culminated at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon in a beautiful vine-covered church in the College City when Ralph Petillion of this city claimed Miss Florence Berry also of Richmond, in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. M. Smith and was attended by only a few intimate friends of the contracting parties.

Following the wedding ceremony the young couple returned to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. T. L. DeLong, [illegible] where a wedding dinner was served. They were made the recipients of many gifts from local friends and many in the southern part of the state who had heard of the nuptials.

Petillion is the son of W. F. Petillion of this city, chairman of the Democratic county central committee. He is a foreman in the employ of the Western Pipe and Steel Company and has scores of friends who will wish him a long and happy married life. Miss Berry is one of Richmond's sweetest young ladies and is prominent among the younger set. They will make their home in 325 Bissell avenue.

TUNNEL WORK IS PROCEEDING RAPIDLY

RICHMOND, April 7.—Nearly 100 men are employed on the construction of the municipal tunnel and the work since its beginning has been rushed with the greatest rapidity. A depth of 100 feet in each of the two lower drifts was reached yesterday afternoon and work has been started on the upper or third drift and a depth of 60 feet has been attained since Saturday morning.

A hard formation of a bluish rock has been encountered and from now on the work will be much slower. This rock is being used in filling in the low sections of Richmond avenue and the John Nichol properties and will prove an excellent material for the concrete work.

Superintendent E. J. Garrillo stated yesterday that the work on the south portal of the tunnel would begin next Monday and a number of additional men would be put to work.

LICENSES NOW DUE CITY TAX COLLECTOR

RICHMOND, April 7.—City Tax Collector Marshall has been forced to take his mind off his many other duties for the past few days to care for the issuing of store and business licenses that are due that office before April 15, by all business men. Marshall stated yesterday that he thought the license fees this year would total about $9000.

An extract from Ordinance No. 234, fixing the time and place for the payment of municipal licenses provided to be paid by this ordinance, shall be payable at the office of the tax collector and if not paid within fifteen days after the same is due, ten per cent shall be added thereto as the penalty thereof."

EAGLES CHARTER CAR FOR TOMORROW NIGHT

RICHMOND, April 7.—Point Richmond Aerie No. 354, Fraternal Order of Eagles, have chartered a special car to carry its members and their friends to Fruitvale tomorrow evening, where they will join the Eagles of that place in observing the eighth anniversary of the institution of that aerie. A feature of the occasion will be the address to be delivered by State Sec. Geo. George J. Hans on the "Aims and Purposes of the Fraternal Order of Eagles."

The special car will leave the foot of [illegible] at 7:30 p. m. and will stop at Sixth and Sixteenth streets a few minutes thereafter. The committee in charge from this city is composed of A. L. Browning, George Kennedy and Roy Patterson.

SCHOOL BONDS BRING $900 IN PREMIUMS

RICHMOND, April 7.—Nine hundred dollars in premium for the Richmond school district bond issue of $75,000 was bid yesterday by the First National Bank of Martinez. There were five other bidders and this premium proved something of a surprise on account of the quiet-

The school board will sell another $75,000 in bonds as the money is needed for the construction of the two new school buildings to be erected here this summer.

EXPLAINS LINCOLN HIGHWAY PLANS

A. P. Pardington Urges People to Support Proposed Oakland-to-New York Road.

Urging the people of California to get together as a state to support the Lincoln Highway Association, in its original plan of a road from New York to Oakland, and declaring that under no circumstances will this be changed as demanded by Los Angeles, A. P. Pardington, in an official report to State Consul Joseph E. Caine of the association, today outlined in full the plans of the organization, explaining how the money raised will be spent, and the exact status of the road plans at the present time.

The report follows notices received by Caine that many of the interior towns and cities have come liberally to the support of the road. Every certificate left in California for sale to raise funds for the road has been sold in cities along the [illegible] association officials are now working with the Nevada and Utah authorities on plans for their part of the road, the most difficult to build, and the one on which the coin raised in California will be expended.

The report of the vice-president follows a request from Caine for full particulars of the association's aims, and an accounting of the money to be spent, this Caine declaring, being a necessity in raising funds here. The vice-president also [illegible] officials have traveled over the road, "eternally knocking San Francisco."

Body of Young Man Washed Up on Beach

RICHMOND, April 7.—A badly decomposed body which had been in the water for several weeks, was found on the beach this afternoon. The body is in such condition that identification is practically impossible. It is evidently that of a young man, about 5 feet 11 inches in height, and weighing about 180 pounds. The man had brown hair and wore a gray suit of good material. Detectives Charles Walker of the Richmond police department is making an investigation.

RICHMOND CLUB HAS BUSY SESSION

RICHMOND, April 7.—Under the direction of Mrs. J. T. Conwell, an interesting afternoon was spent yesterday by the members of the Richmond Club in listening to the club's regular program devoted to civics. Since the adoption of the Woman Suffrage amendment the Richmond Club has done much valuable service to the city in the study of [illegible]

The program yesterday afternoon included as speakers several ladies who have given serious attention to the problems they presented. Municipal Franchises was the topic dealt with by Mrs. C. S. Gibson in a short talk in which she outlined the valuable features which a city should recognize in selling franchise rights. Mrs. Kate Smith presented to the club a copy of the ordinance, which she had been asked to prepare, against the closed doors in restaurants. F. G. Tait in behalf of the local merchants, asked the club members to patronize the home merchants instead of going elsewhere to trade, and the members agreed to the proposition for a period of three months.

Reports were given by the building committee, the committee appointed to place benches at Sixteenth street and Macdonald avenue and the dance committee.

COMMERCIAL CLUB TO ASK CO-OPERATION

RICHMOND, April 7.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Sequoia Commercial Club held yesterday noon at the Imperial Hotel, Secretary H. H. Turies was instructed to ask the various commercial bodies of this city that aim to do anything in civic lines to make selections of committees not to exceed three members to formulate amendments to the city charter. A joint meeting of the committee members of the various bodies will be held at an early date and the various changes and amendments drawn.

The organizations asked to co-operate with the Sequoia Commercial Club follow: West Side Improvement Club, Richmond Club, Progressive Club, Ministerial Union and the labor bodies.

DEFEAT AMENDMENT FOR HOME RULE REJECTION

LONDON, April 7.—By a majority of eleven an amendment for the rejection of the home-rule bill was defeated in the House of Commons last night, and without division the bill was given, for the third time, its second reading in the House.

The announcement of the figures evoked louder cheers from the opposition than from the Ministerialists, the opposition interpreting them as gratifying proof of a dwindling government majority. But the diminution is accounted for to some extent by the abstention from voting of the O'Brienites.

EDUCATION BOARD TO MEET.

ALAMEDA, April 7.—The Board of Education will meet in regular session this evening. Three weeks have elapsed since the last meeting and there is a large amount of routine to be transacted.

WALL STREET HAS DULLEST OF DAYS

Only 41,200 Shares Dealt in During Forenoon Session.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Trading during the morning was the slowest of any day of the year and no changes were significant. Only 41,200 shares were dealt in during the forenoon session. Holders of stocks were not affected by the prevailing depression of speculators, but the uncertainty of the outlook prevented extensive buying.

Standard shares barely moved, although firmness was shown in the grain carriers, owing to the expectation of an exceptionally strong showing in the government crop report.

Bonds were steady.

Some of the shorts manifested uneasiness after the publication of the crop figures and their buying carried another fraction upward. St. Paul, Northern Pacific, Southern Pacific, Canadian Pacific and International Harvester were the strongest issues.

The market failed to hold the speculative interest aroused by the brilliant crop report and gradually worked back into the apathetic state displayed in the morning.

The market closed steady. Selling from speculative sources weakened the general list a few points, strengthened the other tobacco shares, which rose 2 points or more.

PHYSICIAN'S WIDOW COMMITS SUICIDE

Body Found in Apartments, Note Lying Beside Remains.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—Dr. David E. Stafford of the coroner's office, this body of Mrs. Mary Taggart, widow of Dr. Harry W. Taggart of Redwood City. She was found dead last night under somewhat mysterious circumstances in her apartment at 727 O'Farrell street.

The police today gave it as their opinion as the result of an all-night investigation, that there was nothing suspicious surrounding Mrs. Taggart's suicide. The woman had evidently prepared supper Sunday night and becoming despondent tosh, a promoter, who was to have been her dinner guest on Sunday, but who was called to San Jose, broke her lying in her night apparel o nthe couch with the room choking with the fumes of illuminating gas.

Macintosh was called to San Jose Sunday and was unable to keep his appointment with Mrs. Taggart. His attempt to get her by the phone proved futile and this led to his call on her last night. He was arranging to purchase some furniture for her and declares that his relations with her were of a business nature only.

A letter found beside Mrs. Taggart's body, addressed to Macintosh, was written by another woman and had been received by him in his office. It is full of endearing terms, but how Mrs. Taggart obtained possession of it is a mystery.

The late Dr. Taggart, the woman's husband, was a Mason and prominent physician of San Mateo county. He was a member of the board of alienists there. Dr. Taggart died last December after his wife had heroically submitted to a blood transfusion in an effort to save his life.

$10,000 IN JEWELS STOLEN ON VESSEL

Wealthy Tourist Is Victim of Robbery Aboard Liner Manoa.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7. — Seeking $10,000 in jewelry, stolen on shipboard and now believed concealed on the liner Manoa, which arrived in the bay from the Orient today, detectives are today searching every nook and cranny of the vessel. The jewelry was stolen in a mysterious manner just as the ship was off Honolulu. Unless the thief took fright and threw the jewels overboard they are thought to be still on the ship and may soon be found. Mrs. Margaret H. Hunt, a wealthy tourist, was the victim.

Every night upon returning she placed her jewels and other valuables in a hand satchel, which was then placed under her pillow.

Sunday was a beautiful day at sea and owing to the late hour of retiring Mrs. Hunt slept soundly until the call for breakfast.

[illegible] awakened she looked in vain for the satchel and then reported the matter to Captain Weeden and C. Y. Wilmarth, chief steward.

The matter was kept away from the knowledge of the other passengers for a few hours while Weeden and Wilmarth conducted an investigation.

Mrs. Hunt then posted a notice of a reward and intense excitement prevailed throughout the ship.

Captain Weeden then wirelessed the story to this city and asked for instructions.

It is believed that one or more of the stewards or flunkies are responsible for the robbery.

As this is the maiden trip of the steamer, it was impossible for Wilmarth to have a picked force of stewards and deck boys.

CULPEPPER APPEARS ON INDICTMENT DEMURRER

C. P. Culpepper, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses through the medium of horse deals, consummated with various persons, in company with A. F. Gormley, his partner two years ago, appeared before Superior Judge Ogden today on a demurrer to the grand jury indictment on which he was recently brought back from St Louis under arrest. The defendant set forth that the indictment did not give the price of the animals sold by him. The matter was continued for further hearing. Last week Culpepper was released by Superior Judge Wurtz on a writ of habeas corpus on a charge of obtaining money by trick and device.

In taking up the matter today Judge Ogden immitated that the ancient rules of etiquette governing horse deals presumed that when a man bought a horse from another he knew what he was getting and was alone responsible for the bargain he obtained. In event that the demurrer is sustained it is likely that Culpepper will be freed.

ARTIST JULES PAGES RETURNS TO OAKLAND

Jules Pages, noted artist, has returned to Oakland, where he will exhibit a number of his canvases. The [illegible] to be honored with the French Legion of Honor and a director of the famed Julian Academy, is making his home at the Hotel Oakland, where he is the guest of his brother-in-law, Manager Victor Reiter.

Pages recently exhibited many of his choice canvases in Los Angeles. Among these were paintings of the Oakland estuary and other Oakland scenes, which will be shown here as soon as an exhibition can be arranged

Suffragette Freed to Undergo Operation

LONDON, April 7.—May Richardson, the militant suffragette who was sentenced to six months' imprisonment March 17 for destroying "Rokeby Venus" in the National Gallery, was released from Holloway Jail today to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

The operation had been recommended by her own doctor last autumn.

PLANNING FORMATION OF F. J. HENEY LEAGUE

Planning a "Heney League" for the support of the candidacy of Francis J. Heney of the United States Senate, a number of prominent Oakland Progressives are planning a mass meeting to be held shortly at the Hotel Oakland, at which the organization will be fully launched. The matter was started yesterday when about twenty-five men and women supporters of the attorney, gathered to outline preliminary plans.

Frank W. Trower, Heney's campaign manager in Alameda county, was in charge of yesterday's meeting, at which the plan was started and speeches were made by Dr. George C. Pardee, A. H. [illegible] Mrs. Lillian Coffin of San Francisco. Among those present were State Senator John W. Stetson, Dr. Sarah J. Shuey, Charles H. J. Truman, George W. Bunnell, G. B. Daniels and Herbert Breed.

FEW MOMENTS! NO INDIGESTION OR SICK STOMACH—PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

Digests All Food, Absorbs the Gases and Stops Fermentation at Once.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; your head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take Pape's Diapepsin, and in five minutes you will wonder what became of the indigestion and distress. Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps the stomach regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is astonishing. Please don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.

BIG SHAKE-UP MADE IN POLICE RANKS

Over 200 Officers Involved in Changes of Chief White.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—Sweeping changes of an important nature involving close to two hundred officers of the police department, will result from the retirement of three captains, five sergeants, a corporal and twenty-two patrolmen last night.

Every one of the ten police companies in this city will be effected by the transfer, a list of which is being prepared today by Chief of Police White. Although there are three vacancies in the rank of captain for the present, only two of these will be filled. Lieutenant Marcus Anderson, of Company J, which includes the exposition grounds, will be raised to a full captain and retain his present command. Lieutenant Michael Carroll of the Harbor District, will be raised to the command of captain and placed in command of that section. Captain Bernard McManus, now in charge of the harbor, will be transferred to the Park system.

Lieutenant Herbert Wright, third on the eligible list for captain, will not be given that rank as Captain Duke, retired last night, but hopes of being restored to his office within a year. Lieutenant Wright, however, will be made acting captain and placed in command of the southern district.

MATHEWSON ACTING CAPTAIN.

Lieutenant Duncan Mathewson, in charge of the traffic squad, whose methods have made that body one of the most efficient in the United States, will be relieved of his somewhat arduous duties and will be made acting captain of the Bush street district.

These changes involve the further shifting of Captain Eugene Wall from the Bush street to the Ingleside. Captain James Kelly from the Ingleside to the Southern, and Captain Harry I. O'Day from the Southern to the Richmond.

Sergeants Martin T. Cooney, and Arthur D. Lane, were promoted to the rank of lieutenant, taking the places of Lieutenant Carroll and Anderson. Sergeant Philip Fraher will be made an acting lieutenant in place of Lieutenant Wright.

Patrolmen John Ayers and William M. Proll will be promoted to the rank of corporal. There are a half-dozen vacancies among the sergeants but the eligible list has not yet been prepared by the civil service commission.

The plans of Chief White also include the shifting of 150 patrolmen.

CHARLES W. REED WILL WED AGAIN

Divorced Attorney to Claim Development Worker as His Bride.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—Charles Wesley Reed, attorney, civic reformer and president of the State Civil Service Comission, who divorced his first wife, Mrs. Ethelyne Watson Reed, against his own will in 1912, will be married after Easter to Miss Grace Elizabeth Trumbull, writer, lecturer and manager of the California Development Board.

Propinquity brought about by their mutual devotion to civic affairs was the basis upon which the romance of Reed and Miss Trumbull was founded.

Three years ago Miss Trumbull came to San Francisco from Chicago, where she was engaged in a responsible business position. She is a graduate from the University of Chicago and received special honors in scholastic work.

In the development board Miss Trumbull's work has been largely applied to immigration and economic problems that threw her into contact with the public affairs of Reed. After [illegible] will work by the side of her husband in the solution of civic problems.

The matrimonial difficulties of Reed and his first wife, which wrecked their home after thirteen years of married life, filled the divorce courts at occasional periods for nearly three years. They have five children.

In January, 1909, Mrs. Reed told her husband she loved him no longer and the following October left her home to live with her mother in Berkeley. She returned, but departed again.

Suit for divorce was begun by Mrs. Reed in January, 1910. Desertion was the simple charge preferred, but widespread attention was attracted to the case by the charges of temperamental frigidity preferred by Mrs. Reed against her husband.

An additional stir over the suit was created by a scene in court while Mrs. Reed was on the stand. Reed's [illegible] his wife's attorney, and fought off Judge Cabaniss, court attaches and bailiff until six powerful men threw him down and sat on his big frame.

The suit of Mrs. Reed for divorce was denied, but the couple remained apart until Reed in September, 1910, broke his leg and the wife hurried to his side to nurse him. Another separation followed.

In April, 1912, Reed announced that he had yielded to the repeated requests of his wife for her freedom and himself filed a suit for divorce contrary to his own desire.

"It is perfectly hopeless on my part to think that anything I might do would attract her home. My action is not prompted by resentment or anger," said Reed.

The suit was granted by Judge Graham May 17, 1912, and the final decree of separation recorded last year. One child remained with the mother and the others with the father.

Reed is a graduate of the University of California, where he was prominent as athlete and student. He captained the varsity baseball team. He was supervisor a dozen years ago. Most of his public work has been given to civil service reform.

CHAMPION RITCHIE WILL BOX HERE

Lightweight Boxer Notifies the Moose He Will Aid Thursday Night.

Lightweight Champion Willie Ritchie notified the committee in charge of the Moose boxing benefit that he would positively be on hand Thursday night at the Piedmont pavilion. The great little boxer will break into his training on that day and, accompanied by his sparring partners, manager and many followers from across the bay, will put the finishing touches on the evening's program.

Willie's opponent will also be on hand. "Harlem" Tommy Murphy who has been in training for the coming fight with the champion for the last week, will give his followers a chance to see him work.

"Pal" Lang will be there, and will [illegible] with Louis Piconi, of Oakland for the [illegible]. Many followers of the boxing game have been waiting for a long time to see the future "white hope" in action.

[illegible] go with George Mason the audience will have a chance to see the Oakland contender for the lightweight crown. Frankie contends that he will be very much alive and the possessor of another knockout on his record. George Mason also says there will be a knockout, but he does not agree that Frankie will be the one favored.

Anyway, both boys will be on hand to join hands after the combat in the entertainment of the audience that gathers for the big Moose benefit.

PATROL OF BERING SEA IS PLANNED

Assignment of Revenue Cutters to Summer Stations Announced.

SEATTLE, Wn., April 7.—Arrangements for the annual patrol of Bering Sea and adjacent waters in the far north were completed today and the assignment o frevenue cutters to their summer stations was announced. The revenue cutter Bear, which during the summer will make a cruise to Point Barros, the most northerly point of Alaska, will be the first vessel of the fleet to get away, sailing for Nome from Seattle next Thursday. The Bear will carry a large consignment of mail which has accumulated here during the winter, only a limited amount of first class matter having been taken in by dog-sled from Cordova during the closed season.

The second vessel of the patrol fleet to sail for the north will be the Unalga, which will leave San Francisco April 20 to direct for Unimak Pass, where she will be ready to render assistance to the first passenger liners steaming into Bering Sea and will follow the merchantmen into Unimak Pass, acting as a rear guard. The revenue cutter Tahoma will leave Seattle May 1 and with the Bear and Unalga will cruise in northern waters until the close of navigation.

PARENTS' AND TEACHERS' ASSN. HOLDS ELECTION

MELROSE, April 7. — Addresses by well known club women, the election of officers and reports on the membership campaign were included in a lengthy program at a meeting of the Longwood School Parents' and Teachers' Association held recently.

Miss Blanche Morse spoke on "Co-operation Between Parents and Teachers" and contrasted the school systems in other parts of the States, particularly that in Geary, Indiana, with those in Oakland. She thought the schools here could copy many things from the Indiana schools with advantage.

The following officers of the Association were re-elected: President, Mrs. F. Clazie; vice-president, Mrs. G. E. Morgan; secretary, Mrs. W. Pyritz; treasurer, Mrs. Olanie. The board directors were also elected.

The two sides in the membership contest, the Golds, captained by Mrs. G. E. Morgan, and the Purples, by Mrs. H. Dullos, report that many recruits have been enrolled. The captains and their lieutenants provided refreshments for the rest of the country, which included clubwomen from the Seminary and Harland clubs.

TWINS ARRIVE; FATHER KILLS SELF WITH GAS

WILLIMANTIC, Conn., April 7.—Twins arrived Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gustave R. Nelson, and several hours later the husband and father was found in the next room to his wife and babies with the business end of a gas tube in his mouth. Efforts to resuscitate him were futile, as he had crawled under the bed clothes and covered his head so that the gas gave its full effect. Nelson didn't enthuse much when offered congratulations on the double birth.

ACQUITTED OF DESERTING FRENCH ARMY FOR GREEK

PARIS, April 7.—"The only punishment I should like to see imposed is that he serve France as he served Greece," was the announcement today of Government Commissary Alix at the court-martial of John Corinthious, a Greek, who [illegible] for the land of his birth in the Balkan war. At the conclusion of the war he returned to [illegible] served heroically. The court agreed with the prosecutor and immediately acquitted him.

TWO NERVOUS WOMEN

Made Well By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I had a severe case of nervous prostration, with palpitation of the heart, constipation, headaches, dizziness, noise in my ears, timid, nervous, restless feelings and sleeplessness.

"I read in the paper where a young woman had been cured of the same troubles by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I threw away the medicines the doctor left me and began taking the Compound. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to sit up and in a short time I was able to do all my work. Your medicine has proved itself able to do all you say it will and I have recommended it in every household I have visited."—Mrs. MARY JOHNSTON, 210 Siegel Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Another Bad Case.

Ephrata, Pa.—"About a year ago I was down with nervous prostration. I was pale and weak and would have hysteric spells, sick headaches and a bad pain under my shoulder-blade. I was under the care of different doctors but did not improve. I was so weak I could hardly stand long enough to do my dishes.

PETALUMA HEIRESS WEDS IN OAKLAND

Miss Marie Hilmer, daughter of the late Louis Hilmer of Petaluma, was claimed as a bride by Fred Eckman yesterday at a quiet ceremony performed in Oakland. The wedding was a complete surprise to friends of the couple. The bride is one of the heirs of the great Hilmer estate of Petaluma.

ADDRESS WAS INCORRECT.

Due to wrong information newspapers yesterday gave 84 Monte Cresta avenue as the address at which two young boys were arrested for drunkenness. This was incorrect, the arrest having taken place several blocks away. The address given was that of Mrs. Frank Darwin.

Thin Folks Who Would Be Fat

Increase in Weight Ten Pounds or More.

A Physician's Advice.

"I'd certainly give most anything to be able to fat up a few pounds and stay that way," declares every excessively thin man or woman. Such a result is not impossible, despite past failures. Thin people are victims of mal-nutrition, a condition which prevents the fatty elements of food from being taken up by the blood as they are when the powers of nutrition are normal. Instead of getting into the blood, all the fat and flesh producing elements stay in the intestines until they pass from the body as waste.

To correct this condition and to produce a healthy, normal amount of fat the nutritive processes must be artificially supplied with the power which nature has denied them. This can best be accomplished by eating a Sargol tablet with every meal. Sargol is a scientific combination of six of the best strength-giving fat-producing elements known to the medical profession. Taken with meals, it mixes with the food and turns the sugars and starches into rich, ripe nourishment for the tissues and blood and its rapid effect is remarkable. Reported gains of from ten to twenty-five pounds in a single month are by no means infrequent. Yet its action is perfectly natural and absolutely harmless. Sargol is sold by the Osgood Bros. drug stores and other good druggists everywhere and every package contains a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

Sargol has produced remarkable results in the treatment of nervous indigestion and general stomach disorders. It should not, owing to its remarkable flesh producing effect, be used by those who are not willing to increase their weight ten pounds or more.

CARD PLAYER TRIES TO BRIBE POLICEMAN

Zeb D. Walker was arrested by Corporal Brock and Patrolman Drury last night on suspicion when he was found playing poker in the McLaughlin's place at Stanford and San Pablo avenue. S. Brock discovered that Walker had a clever mechanical card device up his left sleeve.

"Here is $15," Walker is alleged to have said to Brock, holding out the coin. "Let me go and it's yours."

"You come along with me," responded Brock, and marched Walker to the central police station.

Walker is being held in detinue and will probably be charged with attempting to bribe an officer. In his possession was found a pack of cards, the card device and a number of membership cards to San Diego card and sporting clubs.

35 PENNIES ONLY LOST.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—After laboriously making his way through a trap door in the basement, cutting away a board partition, and crawling through a narrow passage, a burglar was rewarded by obtaining 35 one-cent pieces from the cash register of Charles Schultz, grocer, 1101 Clay street, early this morning. Patrolman Doran found the trap door open and followed the train of the culprit only to find that he escaped through the front door.

PETTY OFFICER ROBBED.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—J. J. Collett, a petty officer on the [illegible] ship Maryland, was robbed of his watch and $16 by pickpockets on the barbary coast this morning.

FISHING IS GREAT IN THE BIG BASIN

Cadillac Man's Camp Invaded by Coons; Fish and Grub Gone.

(BY EDMUND CRINNION.)

Of particular interest at this time when so many of the local motorists are contemplating fishing trips, is the story brought back to Oakland by W. L. Webber of the local Don Lee Cadillac house, who, in company with Mrs. Webber, spent five days in the State park at Big Basin in the Santa Cruz mountains. Webber's story follows:

"To save time I decided to take the Bear Creek road, three miles out of Los Gatos over the mountains to Boulder Creek. Right now I want to tell anyone to go 150 miles around if necessary, but to keep off the Bear Creek road until after the roads have dried out. The grades are very steep and narrow and at the present time they are full of mud. I was bucking mud clear over the running boards and was compelled, in places, to use the low gear to get down hill.

"I arrived at Boulder, however, in good shape without needing a tow out. From Boulder Creek it is only 12 miles into the State park at Governor's camp, but here again, they have been scraping the roads and the grade is in very bad condition. I would not advise anyone to go in for at least a couple of weeks. The mud is in places clear to the running boards and careful driving and a strong pulling car are necessities.

"There was only one other car which had been over the road at this time and it was necessary to tow this car out with a team of horses, on Saturday, the day I went out. It rained two inches in this section Friday night and Saturday morning, making the roads just that much worse than the trip is. This road in dry weather, however, will be in very good condition.

"There are plenty of fish in all three branches of the Waddell in the park, but they are very small this year. On account of the low water last year the big fish have not penetrated so far up. Larger fish, however, can be found nearer the coast. I had a nice basket of 50 of the larger fish packed, to bring home, when they were descended on by an army of coons (four legged variety) and not only did they eat the fish but stole most of the grub in camp.

PARK IS BEAUTIFUL.

"The park at this time of the year is very beautiful and the water is high in all the streams. Berry Creek Falls are wonderful now, on account of the amount of water going over them. This section is well worth the trip of anyone and is a smaller Yosemite. The whole basin is set in the big tree section and there is a wonderful growth of exceedingly large trees, the Father of the Forest having a diameter at its base of 64 feet, which is some inches larger than the largest tree in the big tree district near Santa Cruz.

"The road from Boulder Creek to Santa Cruz is muddy at the present time but is in fairly good shape and would not make trouble for anyone. At Santa Cruz I was advised against attempting the Soquel road, which is the one commonly followed, from Santa Cruz to Los Gatos. It was also impossible to take the Chittenden cutoff as the bridge is out over the river at Chittenden. I, therefore, had to take the road to Watsonville and San Juan and home over the San Juan grade to Gilroy. The San Juan grade is extremely rough and considerable muddy at the present time, but not at all dangerous. The road into Gilroy is rough and muddy.

"From Gilroy north, they are now putting in the State highway and there is a great deal of mud until about 20 miles from San Jose. From here in, the highway is finished and is a perfectly good boulevard.

"I arrived home Sunday, after five days, without putting one drop of water in our Cadillac radiator, in spite of the fact that several hours running was entirely on the low and intermediate gears through mud over a foot deep. Nor did the water boil at any single time. In view of the roads, which were as bad as anything I have ever negotiated, I would consider this a remarkable performance.

"In view of my experience on this trip, I would suggest two or three things to anyone contemplating this journey. First, avoid the Bear Creek road until the roads have thoroughly dried. Do not attempt the road from Boulder to Redwood park for a couple of weeks until they have had a chance to dry out and last, lock up your fish and provisions through the night, or the coons may get you, too."

HIGHWAYS GOOD.

The roads from San Francisco to Los Angeles as a whole are splendid, according to J. W. Leavitt, who has just returned after a two days' run south in his Overland. The first day he made Tulare, and the remaining 258 miles to the southern city was covered in the day following. Leavitt says:

"The roads to Los Angeles are in splendid condition. The only rough going that we encountered was north of Bakersfield and this is not very long. The motorists in going to Los Angeles should travel by way of Tehachapi pass, Mojave, Palm Dale, and Mint Canyon.

"Those who wish to visit San Diego should take the inland route. We went from Los Angeles to Tia Juana by way of the Coast route and returned on the inland highway. The latter is by far the best although a little longer. This, however, is not noticed inasmuch as it is more picturesque and interesting and, in fact, seems shorter."

BURKE HOME FROM TRIP.

M. D. Burke, traveling salesmanager for the Bekins-Speers Motor company, has just returned from Chico in the new Lozier four. Burke reported the roads in good condition which can be appreciated from a statement that he covered the 240 miles on high speed. In fact, the touring season has opened up much earlier in this section than heretofore.

STATUE OF WILLIAM THE SILENT TO BE ERECTED

NEW YORK, April 7.—The Holland Society received a report last night at its annual meeting that its committee in charge of the plan to erect a monument to commemorate the Dutch settlement of New York had raised the money and would erect a statue of William the Silent in Riverside drive.

The effort to erect a statue in New York in honor of "William the Silent," known in the history of Holland as the man who successfully combatted the Spanish invasion in the sixteenth century, extended over a period of five years.

The statue with its pedestal will be forty feet high and will be an exact reproduction of the statue of William the Silent that was placed some years ago in the center of the main square of The Hague, facing the halls of justice.

Develop Your Bust

Women need no longer be humiliated and embarrassed because they are thin, flat chested and not developed, for science has found a simple way to give the beautiful curves of a perfect figure. To prove this, let us send you, free of charge, a 50c package that will show you how easily the bust can be developed from two to six inches, and become full, plump and firm. This discovery, that is of such vital interest to all thin women, is the result of long study and investigation by a leading woman physician, who, in seeking to overcome the defects in her own figure without the use of "pads" or forms, discovered a happy combination of tissue-building elements that increased her bust some four inches, made her arms round and shapely and her neck and shoulders plump and symmetrical.

Dr. Kelly not only gained a beautiful form by her own formula, but used it successfully with many of her patients. Women, this is a personal message from a physician of your own sex, and all we ask is the opportunity to send you without any expense on your part, that Dr. Kelly's Formula can give you a better figure, beautiful complexion and improve the general health. Send the little coupon and 10c for expenses, and a few treatment will be mailed at once in plain package. Write us today. DR. KELLY MEDICAL CO., Dept. 213 DA, Buffalo, N. Y.
